Liberal-Labor Move Urged

H. H. ASQUITH

Government with a Liberal wing.

It is recalled that the Laborites up repudiated any idea of co-operating with the Liberals.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—What is apparently an official bid from the Liberal for co-operation between the Liberal and Labor parties was launched last evening at a Liberal meeting under the chairmanship of the Earl of Oxford and Asquith, the party leader.

The speaker was Prof. Gilbert Murray, who claimed close affinity between the Liberal and Labor parties and said the Socialistic tenets of the Laborites troubled him very little, because state action was bound to increase with the development of society.

If the expulsion of the Communists from the Labor party, so forcibly pronounced by Ramsay MacDonald at the recent Liverpool congress, was successful, the natural consequence, Prof. Murray believed, would be a gradual rapprochement between Labor and Liberalism.

He suggested, as the best plan, a Liberal Government with a Labor wing, and, as second best, a Labor Government with a Liberal wing.

Lord Asquith cordially endorsed the suggestion.

It is recalled that the Laborites up repudiated any idea of co-operating with the Liberals.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF SAINT JOHN.

"The Unholy Three" At Imperial Monday

A great deal of comment about the remarkable picture, "The Unholy Three," has reached Saint John from other cities where it has been shown, chiefly through traveling business men and vacationists. It is well to point out that this is Imperial's picture for Monday of next week. It is one of the extraordinary offerings of the year. It deals with a ventriloquist (Lon Chaney) a real dwarf-man and a giant, all of their sidishaw performers, who, with their tricks and disguises, form a crime syndicate aided by a demure girl (Mae Busch), but an innocent youth (Tom Moore) upsets their schemes by his frank honesty. The picture marks a new slant in absorbing story.

DELIGHTED ALL AT IMPERIAL TREATRE

Mrs. T. J. Gunn's First Public Violin Playing Since Paris Study.

Mrs. T. J. Gunn's first appearance in public since her post-graduate course of study in the conservatoire at Paris was made last night in connection with the Imperial Theatre programme. The house was filled and the talented artist received a very flattering reception from a representative audience. Her numbers were Prælude in E-flat major by Kreutzer and a new and charming setting of "Killerney." A third number was demanded by the audience. Mrs. P. J. Hodgson accompanied Mrs. Gunn and their combined offering was a charming introduction to the big program. Mrs. Gunn displayed excellent technique and rich tone quality and delighted all.

ENJOYED PARTY.

A very enjoyable time was had at the home of Miss Thelma Parlee last evening at a Halloween party. Appropriate games were played including a matrimonial race, won by L. Parrie; apple ten pins, won by L. MacDonald, with a pin fall of seven. All guests arrived in costume and were escorted to the ghost's tomb, where the games were played. Refreshments were served and at the table were placed cards attached to prizes in a surprise box. Those attending were Misses Vida Gibbs, Horstense Calder, Helen Grant, Harriet Grant, Thelma Parlee, Eva Gould and Elsie Farris and Messrs. Harold Ingersoll, Kenneth Northrup, R. Allingham, K. C. Todd, W. K. Trafton, Fred Parlee and Lewis MacDonald.

Hallowe'en Kids at Imperial Sat. Evening

Imperial Theatre's costume contest for the children of Saint John which takes place tomorrow night (Hallowe'en) is usually one of the funniest stunts a grown-up can look at. It is a sort of a kiddified amateur night and the serious attempts of the youngsters to win the prizes by their comical and straight impersonations sets the audience wild with laughter. Each boy and girl entering the competition will be introduced to the audience at the intermission hour. Judges from outside will make the decisions influenced largely by the plaudits of the audience. The program includes Ireginald Denny's greatest picture "California Straight Ahead," a chapter of the serial, a comedy, the new organ and the orchestra.
