

CHURCH ELDERS ARE DUCTED

Dr. G. G. Corbet and James Scott at St. Matthew's

Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison Speaks of Their Office at Morning Service

"Magnify God, Who of His mercy hath called you to rule within His church. Be faithful to your vocation.
Show yourself zealous to promote virtue, fear not the faces of the wicked, but rebuke their wickedness. Be merciful to the poor, and support them to the uttermost of your power, and so shall you receive the benediction of God, present and everlasting." It was with these stirring words of John Knox that Rev. J. A. Morison concluded his address to the newly inducted elders in Saint Matthew's church yesterday morning. These elders, Dr.
George G. Corbet and James Scott, had both been previously ordained to the office of the eldership in the Presbyterian Church, the former in Saint David's church and the latter in the First Presbyterian church, and, having been duly elected to serve in the eldership in Saint Matthew's, they were solemnly inducted into office, after making answer to the formal questions, which were as follows:

"Do you accept the office of ruling elder in this congregation and promise faithfully to perform all the duties thereof?"

"Do you promise to study the peace, unity and purity of the church?"

The elders having answered in the affirmative, the following question was put to the members of Saint Matthew's church, and they signified their assent by standing.

"Do you, the members of this church, receive these brethren as ruling elders, and do you promise to yield them all that honor, encouragement and obedience in the Lord to which their office according to the word of God and the constitution of the church entitles them?"

The induction prayer was offered by the minister, and the right hand of lordship extended to the newly inducted elders by the session.

ADDRESSES ELDERS.

In the course of his address to the elders, Rev. Dr. Morison said, in part:
"As in the Old Testament the elders exercised an honorable office of government among the people of God, so also in the New Testament the apostles ordained elders in every church, commanding that they that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in word and doctrine; therefore this church from the beginning included in her government not only ministers who are to preach the gospel and administer the sacraments in the name of Christ and as His representatives, but also ruling elders, chosen by the people to represent them and to be joined with the ministers in the exercise of government and discipline in the church."

"These ruling elders in each congregation, together with the ministers, constitute the session, to whom it is committed to admit and exclude members, to regulate the worship, guard the doctrine, direct the activity, and conserve the interests of the congregation. The elders are also to represent their brethren in presbyteries, synods, and general assemblies, when commissioned thereto."

Dr. Morison spoke of the Catholicity of the Presbyterian Church and traced vividly but briefly some of the great services rendered by her to the cause of civil and religious liberty. His discourse at times was critical. Some matters usually discussed among theologians were elucidated under his scholarly treatment. He spoke of the work of the church in Europe and America and referred to the fact that the constitution of the United States of America was very largely modelled after that of the Presbyterian Church.
Particularly appealing was the indiction hymn sung by the large vested choir.

BAPTISM

The Sacrament of Baptism was administered to Constance Doreen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Roberts.
The congregation was large, filling nearly every seat in the church. For the first time the new pipeless furnace was in use, and it demonstrated its ability to warm the auditorium most comfortably.

Wins $125,000 Prize And Kills Himself

MUNICH, Nov. 30.—An Italian merchant, living in Munich, won the equivalent of $125,000 as first prize in a lottery, but, soon after receiving news of his winning, he committed suicide in despair.

It appears that, when he bought his lottery ticket as a joke, he signed a statement before witnesses that in case he should win he would give half of his prize to the Society of Munich Chimney-sweepers and the rest of it to the breweries.

Cat Blamed for Death Of Owner From Gas

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A pet cat is believed to have caused the death of Ansdale Davis, 63, and the illness of his wife, Rose, 69, who were found unconscious from gas in the bedroom of their apartment in Brooklyn. A patrolman who broke into their apartment, succeeded in getting Mrs. Davis to respond to treatment, but her husband was beyond help.

Occupants of other apartments traced gas to the Davis apartment and called the police. The Davises kept a cat in their apartment, neighbors say, and it is believed that it may have disconnected the rubber tube from a gas jet.

MORE NEW DANCES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Two new dances, expected to rival the Charleston in popularity, have been demonstrated by members of the American Society of Teachers of Dancing. The Cuban danzon and the Miami canter won general approval.

DOG AND FOX BECOME FRIENDS

A curious case of animal friendship is reported from Plymouth, England, where "Laddie," a greyhound, recently caught a young fox. The fox has now become fast friends with all the dogs in the kennels on the estate of Laddie's master. The picture shows the fox and one of the smaller pets.

Small Percentage Returning to Palestine Under English Mandate

GENEVA, Nov. 30.—The Jewish population of the entire world is now placed at 14,163,543 according to statistics compiled by the Jewish Agency for Palestine. This constitutes about 1 per cent. of the entire population of the world.
Of this total Jewish population 9-232,576 inhabit Europe, being divided amongst the various European countries as follows:

Poland, 2,829,456; Russia, 5,253,324; Ukraine, 1,772,449; Roumania, 834,344; Germany, 575,000; Hungary, 473,000; Czechoslovakia, 354,342; Austria, 300,000; Great Britain, 280,000; France, 150,000.

The Jewish population of the United States is placed at 3,500,000. Out of this world-wide Jewish population a certain percentage, although small, is returning to Palestine in the effort to establish a national Jewish home under the English mandate. It is apparent however that this can never embrace more than an almost insignificant percentage of the entire race.

At the time of the armistice in 1918 the Jewish population of Palestine was estimated at 55,000. This has now increased to 125,000. Against this Jewish element the Arabs in Palestine number something like 645,000. The Jewish population, however, is rapidly establishing itself in all of the branches of commerce, industry, agriculture and finance in the little state.

MAYNES APPOINTED RHODES SCHOLAR

Saint John Student of Saint F.X.
University Chosen in N. S.

HALIFAX, Nov. 29.—William J.
Maynes, of Saint John, has been appointed Nova Scotia's Rhodes Scholar for 1926, according to an announcement made here tonight by Chief Justice Harris, chairman of the provincial committee. Mr. Maynes is a well known athlete, having been a member of Canada's 1924 Olympic team. He studied at the University of St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, N. B., and at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N. S., graduating from the latter in Arts in 1924.

He was editor-in-chief of the St.
Francis Xavier Nexus, a year book, last year. He taught school at Lewiston, Me., and since his graduation has studied botany and anthropology at Harvard University.

There were 12 applicants for the scholarship awarded to Mr. Maynes.
It was learned in a message received here yesterday from Halifax. These applicants represented St. Francis Xavier, Dalhousie, King's and Acadia universities.

The news that Maynes had been selected was received with delight here.
He has long been prominent in athletics, and has many friends and admirers. He has not done any running since the Irish games, which he entered after the Olympics last year, being occupied largely with teaching and post-graduate studies at Harvard, but he will likely take to the rider path again when he goes to Oxford next fall.

PROMISE AS RUNNER.

Maynes showed great promise as a quarter miler and won many races at that distance in the east. It was after he went to St. Francis Xavier that Maynes developed into a fast sprinter. He also stood high in his classes at Antigonish, and was regarded as an exceptionally bright student.
He took a large share in the college activities and, as editor-in-chief of the year book, or Nexus, published in 1924, achieved a college publication of unusual merit.

Mr. Maynes received his early education at St. Malachi's school and at the Saint John High school. He is at present in Antigonish on a visit to his Alma Mater.

The Rhodes entitles him to three years at Oxford University with an annual allowance approximating $2,000.
He has been specializing in science and will likely continue studies along the same line in England.

The Nova Scotia committee which made the award was composed of Hon.
Robert E. Harris, chairman; Mr. Justice J. A. Chisholm, vice-chairman; Professor Norman Rogers, Rev. Simpson, Professor A. K. Griffin, H. B. V.
Laing, J. W. Godfrey and Professor J.
E. Reid, secretary.

RECTOR FOR 75 YEARS.

PONTYPOOL, Eng., Nov. 30.—After 75 years of service with the same parish, the Rev. Christopher Cook has vacated the living of Mamiland, near this place. He is 101 years old.

or it may be just a steady drain on your en-

City Manager Gets
Two Cents a Week

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 30.—For two cents a week, Howell J. Davis, local business man, has agreed to act as city manager in the absence of Louis Brownlow, who has gone to Johns Hopkins hospital for treatment.
Brownlow was given six weeks' leave of absence, and Davis agreed to take over the job for that time at a salary of $1 per year, which is about 12 cents for the entire time he will serve. Meanwhile, Brownlow will get his regular salary, computed at the rate of $15,000 per year, less the 12 cents that goes to Davis.

PLAY HIT STOLEN.

TURIN, Nov. 30.—A performance of a new play, "Two Weeks of Life," by Nino Bertini, almost was disrupted when members of the audience noticed that many of the lines were lifted bodily from a novel, "The Trench," by Signor Salzi.
