NEWS NOTES ABOUT PROMINENT BAPTISTS

Rev. J. H. Shakespeare, secretary of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and also secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, is reported now as having recovered his health. For a number of Sundays Rev. R. Osgood Morse has been the preacher at the Waterloo street church, St. John. The church is making preparations for the coming of the new pastor, Rev. J. A. Sweetnam, who will take up the work with them on December 11. A very pleasant event took place at the Baptist parsonage, Port Williams, on October 21, when about 100 uninvited guests gathered there to help celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Chipman's wedding. Although unexpected they were made welcome. After congratulations and a programme, the wedding march was played. Mrs. Chipman received a lovely bouquet of chrysanthemums and ferns, and was escorted to the side of the groom of twenty-five years ago, when a short and appropriate address was read, and one of the ladies presented to them a silver tray upon which lay new bills to the amount of $200, another lady coming forward with a beautiful lot of wedding cake, her special gift for the occasion. All then joined in singing "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds Our Hearts in Christian Love," which gave Mr. and Mrs. Chipman time to recover from their surprise enough to express their thanks and appreciation of the thoughtful kindness of their friends. After the presentation a social hour was enjoyed. Then all left for home, feeling that they had enjoyed a delightful evening, leaving their pastor and wife to wonder whether the presents of the evening had been a reality or only a pleasant dream.
