BOYS WILL SEEK ADVENTURE ALONG NOVA SCOTIA COAST

Will Leave Boston Early Next Month in a Small Schooner—Old Whaleman Will Accompany Them.

(Boston Transcript.)

Five adventurous, sea-loving boys of New Bedford, Boston, seven of them graduates of Milton Academy, are starting north early in July on the schooner yacht Clione for a two months exploration of the coasts of Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, with the famous Bras D'Or Lake as the highest latitude and turning point of the expedition. The young Corinthians are John E. and Lawrence L. Knowles of New Bedford, sons of J. W. Knowles of that city, owner of the Clione; Richard Bourne, a member of the well-known Bourne family of the old whaling city; Alexander Hiley of Milton and Charles K. Pope of Mt. Vernon street, Boston. Captain Clifford Gamgee, an old whaler, will go along to assist in the navigation and relieve the wheel at times, although the boys, keen for the maximum amount of fun, plan to work the boat themselves, at least after they get their sea legs.

The Clione is a stannish little schooner, fifty feet overall and built by Hodgdon at East Boothbay some years ago. She is equipped with a two-cylinder Lathrop engine, but the "dicker" will only be thrown on when entering or leaving the ledge-strewn harbors of Nova Scotia.

Every true son of New Bedford knows that a Clione is a small fish, which when secured by the thousands and perhaps millions, form the most delicate of delicacies, form the most delicate of delicacies, form the most delicate of delicacies.

So the little schooner has a wooden representation of a Clione under her bowsprit as a figurehead, and it is interesting to know that her early days were spent on the Labrador coast on a fish inspection trip sent out by the United States Government.

The trip of the Clione is another indication that yachtsmen are seeking new and broader fields and are gaining more and more confidence in their ability to meet stronger conditions than those which prevail in little landlocked harbors of the New England coast. It is expected that the Clione will double Cape Cod rather than accept a two-slit Provincetown and Marblehead before heading for Cape Sable and Sambro Head.

On reaching Cape Breton the party will engage canoes for an inland voyage on the Bras D'Or Lake, and up some of the picturesque rivers where the sailing is particularly good.

The story of their adventures should

Canada is feeding 75,000 Russian Children

The money and food, which the people of Canada in their generosity have contributed to the Save The Children Fund, will be sufficient to feed Seventy Five Thousand Russian Children.

In addition to these, the British Save the Children Fund—with which the Canadian Fund is associated—has undertaken to care for 50,000 more, making a total of 300,000 children to be fed until the end of August, and perhaps throughout the winter.

You can understand the very urgent need of more money to continue the wonderful work that we have undertaken.

Will you not help?

Cheques and money orders may be forwarded through your bank or local committee, or sent direct to Sir George Burn, Treasurer, Save The Children Fund, Elgin Building, Ottawa.

All subscriptions are expended in Canada on Canadian Foodstuffs.

A SUIT'S Tomorrow's

Most any kind of a suit can be made to look good the first time it is worn. A hot iron will "press the looks in."

But it takes something more than the heat of a heavy iron to keep the looks there.

The Suits we sell aren't "today's" suits—there's a future ahead of every one.

That's because quality is tailored in. Men's and young men's suits, $25, $30 and up.

Two trouser suits, $30 to $48.
