THE RING.

Martin Knocks Out Moran.

New York, July 12.—Bob Martin, A. E. I. heavyweight champion, knocked out Frank Moran of Pittsburgh in the seventh round of a scheduled twelve-round match at the Bronx boxing gymnasium.

Leonard and Tender.

Philadelphia, July 13.—Articles of agreement were signed yesterday for an eight-round, no-decision fight between Benny Leonard and Lew Tender. The bout will be held at the National League baseball park in this city on August 12.

Carpenter and Gibbons.

St. Paul, Minn., July 13.—Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul returned after a short vacation, and learned that Tex Rickard had indicated he could be George Carpenter's opponent in the international light heavyweight contest Rickard will stage next October.

"Tommy is ready and willing to meet Carpenter at any time and place," Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, said yesterday. "Tommy will dispose of Carpenter and then will be entitled to a match with Dempsey." Kane indicated that Gibbons would expect about $60,000 as his share of a match with Carpenter. Kane and Gibbons left last night for New York in an effort to close with Rickard.

Dempsey and Kearns.

Jack Dempsey has emphatically denied reports originating in Atlantic City that Mayor Edward Bader of that city would supplant Jack Kearns as his manager.

"Jack Kearns will be my manager as long as I am a fighter," the champion said. "He was my manager when I was fighting my way to the top. If I have my way he will make every engagement of my career."

Reports that he had been sued by his housekeeper for $400, the difference alleged due between $800 promised for services and $400 paid by Kearns, was denied by Dempsey. He said that Kearns had paid all bills and has receipts to show for them.

"About the most ridiculous thing I ever heard of—absolutely the limit in the ridiculous," Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, thus characterized reports of his alleged removal as manager of the heavyweight champion. "Yes, I'm still the champion's manager, reports to the contrary notwithstanding," said Kearns. "It looks as if I'll manage Dempsey for the rest of the time the champion spends in the ring, too. I have said this all along. The champ and I get along harmoniously. There's no dissension."

Not even an argument between us.

Nor has there even been any lack of harmony between us. Still these reports persist. I don't know why. I can't account for them.

Dempsey probably will return to New York within two or three weeks, Kearns said. The champion plans to remain in Salt Lake City for perhaps two or three days. After visiting his folks at home, Dempsey will proceed to the coast for a short vacation and then will return to New York. Johnson is occupied now attending to the details of the moving pictures of the Dempsey-Carpenter battle, and entertaining propositions for future activities for the champion. No definite plans for Dempsey's future have as yet been made, Kearns said.

Johnson Freed.

Jack Johnson, former heavyweight pugilistic champion, was released from Leavenworth Federal Prison on Saturday morning after serving ten months of a year's sentence for violation of the Mann act.

Johnson said that he thought he was still good enough for two more years at, or near, the top of the heavyweight division. Then he would retire to California to watch over his business affairs from there, he said. Johnson declared that he did not like boxing, but that he wanted to get back in the game for two years at least.

"What I mean by I don't like boxing," Johnson said, "is that if there were an automobile race or a bull fight on one side and a big boxing bout on the other side of the street, you never would find me at the glove contest."

He said he had taken boxing lessons from his encounters with bulls. "Many boxers are of the bull type," he said. "When they rush you four or five times, and by deft foot work you have avoided them and jabbed them a few times as they flash by, you have whipped—man or bull."

"I can use this," the former champion said, pointing to his head, "to win from the best ones now boxing."

Johnson said that he had no present intention of going abroad to settle up any business enterprises that he established while he was a fugitive from justice. He told newspaper men that he would go back into the ring soon and declared he would seek to wrest the championship from Jack Dempsey.

"I don't make any difference between Dempsey says about drawing the color line, the public wants Dempsey whipped," the negro fighter said. "And the public knows I am the one to do it."

Referring to his battle in Cuba with less Willard, who he lost the championship, Johnson said: "At that time I had to do what I did. I was dead and I was dead and they'll see some smoke coming up out of the grave, and it will be from my feet, which are hot yet from that fight."

Johnson said he had not yet signed any contracts for bouts and would not do so until he goes to New York. "I am in the best shape of my life," he declared. Prison records show he gave up as early as two weeks when he was committed last September. He said he weighed 222 pounds.

Johnson got a check for $5, which every prisoner receives from the government upon release from the prison. He said he intended to frame it. He did not want to worry about clothing, as he ordered a dozen suits from a Kansas City tailor.

Lucile Cameron Johnson, wife of the former champion, arrived from Chicago to meet him.

Johnson has received many telegrams, some containing fight offers, in the last few days. One message, according to the former champion, was from Elmer Tensley, New York, containing an offer of $10,000, with a forty per cent. option, to meet Fred Fulton at Havana, Nov. 15. Another message gave details of a home-coming reception being planned in Chicago.
