HOME ON VISIT
Alward Huggard arrived in the city from New York on Saturday and is visiting his brother-in-law, Scotty Spinks, and daughter and will also visit his brother, Thomas Huggard in Norton. It is five years since Mr. Huggard has been home and friends are giving him a hearty greeting.

ENQUIRIES ABOUT FISH
The board of trade have received a request from the Canadian Trades Commission for prices and samples of herrings, salmon, sardines and cod for delivery in various parts of the world, including Italy, Panama, French Guiana, Dutch West Indies, Peru, Portugal and Ecuador.

SERVICE INTERRUPTED
A broken trolley pole on the East St. John street car, put the branch of the service out of commission for a while early this morning. A result was considerable inconvenience to the regular passengers. It is felt by those dependent on them for transportation that some arrangement should be made to provide for relief in the case of accidents on the lines to the suburbs so that business people should not be inconvenienced.

WAS GENERALLY LIKED
Out of respect for the late Commissioner of Customs of Ottawa, John McDougall, whose death was announced this morning, the flag on the customs house here is flying at half mast today. Expressions of regret were heard from men with whom the late commissioner was wont to meet in the routine of his occupation and the general consensus of opinion was expressed by the collector of customs who said, "He was a man of whom the government will regret to lose."

GOING WEST TONIGHT
Sergeant G. H. Lawrence, one of the original members of the 28th Battalion, who has recently been on the staff of the military headquarters here, is to leave this evening for Vancouver, where he expects to resume his former duties with the C. P. R. Sergeant Lawrence expressed himself as being pleased with the consideration shown him by the officers and men at the local depot and the many friends he has made here, while regretting his departure, will wish him every success on his return to civil life.

ALONG THE RIVER
Capt. Flewelling of the Ocoee brought down this morning a box full of wild strawberries, picked by John A. Dugan at Hampstead. Large bouquets of garden flowers, lilacs, dahlias and other wild flowers were carried by passengers. Roses are in bloom at Public Landing. There is need of showers now to bring the crops along but the country is wonderfully lovely. Men were working on the Valley Railway near Public Landing yesterday, the contractors being evidently determined to complete their work by August. The Ocoee had a large passenger list this morning.

STEPHENSON-LAMB
A wedding of interest took place at noon today when Harry M. Stephenson, a popular member of the Imperial Theatre orchestra and Miss Sarah A. Lamb, daughter of Charles J. Lamb of this city, were united in marriage. The ceremony took place in St. Luke's church in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her brother, C. Murray Lamb, wore a becoming tailored traveling suit of blue with hat to match and carried a bridal bouquet of roses. She was unattended. Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. R. P. McKim, Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson left on a honeymoon trip by motor through the provinces. The popular young people were the recipients of a large number of magnificent presents, among which was a beautiful mission wood writing desk from the orchestra and staff of the Imperial Theatre. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stephenson, 58 Winterset street.

W. I. MESSENGER BOY LOSTS HIS LIFE IN RIVER

Harry Burke, 16 Years Old, Drowned at Wilmot's Wharf, Near Oranmoco

(Special to Times.)
Fredericton, June 15—Harry Burke, aged sixteen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Burke of Fredericton, lost his life by drowning last night at Wilmot's Wharf, about one mile west of Oranmoco. With Leonard Toner and Clark Curtis, boys about his own age, young Burke cycled to Wilmot's Wharf on Sunday evening. They went in bathing, although none could swim except Burke, who could swim a few strokes. The boy went beyond his depth. His companions saw him go down and come to the surface and heard him call for help but not being able to swim they were helpless. One story is that the two boys attempted to hold a passing motor but it would not stop. Young Burke went down three times. His companions took their hats and returned to Fredericton, where they notified the father of the drowned boy. Mr. Burke communicated with Charles Street, who has recovered a large number of bodies of drowned persons from the St. John river and Mr. Fleet went to the scene of the drowning by motor boat. He located the body. The victim of the accident was a Western Union messenger, as is young Curtis.

WORRISOME DAYS THESE ARE FOR THE SCHOLARS

The High School examinations were started this morning. About 400 are writing the examinations. The High School entrance examinations began this morning in ten schools. The order in which the examinations will be written are as follows: Monday, geography in the morning and composition in the afternoon; Tuesday, arithmetic in the morning and drawing in the afternoon; Wednesday, algebra in the morning and nature and health lessons in the afternoon; Thursday, English grammar in the morning and history in the afternoon; and Friday, Latin in the morning and reading in the afternoon. There are 275 writing these examinations this year while last year there were 284 candidates and twenty-two of those did not write the papers. Of the number that wrote last year 108 passed in the first division, ninety-four in the second, eighty-eight in the third, while thirty-seven failed.

RANDFONTAEN AT ROTTERDAM

Lee Roy Ellingwood of this city, received a letter this morning from his brother, Joseph, who was a member of the crew of the auxiliary schooner Randfontaen, saying that they arrived safely in Rotterdam after a fairly rough passage. The Randfontaen was built by D. A. Saker and was launched late this spring from the shipyard of the Marine Construction Company in Chesley street. After being fitted out with engines, etc., she sailed for New York and there loaded for Rotterdam, sailing via Falmouth.
