McGraw Fortunate.
Manager McGraw has been fortunate this season in that all his regular pitchers have been going right. In fact, all season long—and the Giants have played a third of their games—the "Little Napoleon" of baseball has used only five pitchers—or at least only five names show in the list of hitters having won or lost games. He has had Mathewson, Marquard, Touseau, Demaree and Fromme for the work and while Wiltse and a rocky or two have been tried in spots, none has figured as having won or lost a game for the team.

Christy Mathewson, whom some one has said is going back, has been the Giants' winning pitcher, and he also stands at the top of the National League list with ten wins and only three defeats. Matty started off with a loss, but free then has taken ten of his twelve games pitched. In some games he has been hit hard and then won, but this always has been more or less with a "Big Six."

Matty's record of wins is Boston 1, Brooklyn 1, Chicago 1, Cincinnati 2, Pittsburgh 2, Philadelphia 2 and St. Louis 1.

1. and the teams to which he has lost games have been Brooklyn, Chicago and St. Louis.
Marquard has won six games, losing four, for McGraw this year; Demaree has won five, losing six; Touseau has won eight, losing three, while Fromme has taken three games only, losing three. The wins and losses of these four pitchers are as follows: Marquard—Won, Boston 1, Brooklyn 1, Chicago 1, Cincinnati 1, St. Louis 2; lost, Pittsburgh 1, Philadelphia 2, St. Louis, one each.
Demaree—Won, Boston 2, Chicago 1; lost, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis, one each.
Touseau—Won, Brooklyn 1, Cincinnati 2, Philadelphia 2, Pittsburgh 2, St. Louis 1; lost, Brooklyn 1, Chicago 1, Philadelphia 1, Pittsburgh—Won, Boston 1, Brooklyn 2, Chicago 1, Pittsburgh 1; lost, one game each to Brooklyn, Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

TO WEIGH ABOUT 210.
Paris, June 26.—"Jack" Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, will weigh 210 pounds when he enters the ring on Saturday for his fight with Frank Moran of Pittsburgh. This means that he will be about ten pounds heavier than at the time of his fight against "Jim" Jeffries at Reno on July 4, 1910.

Since Johnson began training he has lost twenty-five or thirty pounds. He will continue his hard work until today, Johnson says he is still looking for a taker of a bet of $5,000 which he wants to wager on himself. The odds in regard to the fight range from five to one down to two to one in favor of Johnson.

News of the Boxers.
Hugh McIntosh, an ex-promoter of Australia, who is now in the United States, declares he will give $50,000 to any white man who defeats Johnson.

Jess Willard and Tom McMahon will meet again next month in Vernon, Cal. Gilbert Gallant won the decision over Eddie Murphy in twelve rounds at the Atlas A. A., Boston, on Tuesday night, and Gilbert Gallant won the decision over Dan McDonald of Halifax stopped Charley Kelley of the P. S. S. Rhode Island in two rounds.

AQUATIC
Another Yacht Cup
San Francisco, June 26.—The announcement that the German Emperor will give a cup to the winner of the Sonder class yacht race at the Panama-Pacific Exposition is contained in a telegram received by the German consul, Franz Bopp, from the German Ambassador in Washington.

This makes the third cup from the head of a great nation, as President Wilson has offered a cup for the winner of the 12-meter race, and King George V. of England has put up a cup for the Class N. race under universal rules.

DOPELETS BY FULLERTON
The Chicago White Sox scarcely can take it as a compliment when the crowd cheers every time it is announced one of them has jumped to the field.

Johnson and Cady of the Red Sox fell five stories in St. Louis. That's nothing for Boston players used to slumping further than that.

Let's see, wasn't it this same B. B. Johnson who is now crying so loudly who this spring said the Federal League was a joke?

It is this Kaiserling, of Indianapolis, the son of Kaiser, of same team? We are mildly curious about it, that's all.

B. B. Johnson, the Mt. Lassen of baseball, is again reported in violent trap.

Fairville Team To Take Place of the Cubs
Jack Driscoll Steps Into the Breach—An Interesting Game in the League Series Last Evening

The game of baseball in the Fairville League between the Royals and Athletics last evening proved a most interesting contest and while the score at the finish stood 7-3 in favor of the Royals, each time a hit was made it meant hard work and every score was fairly won. The game went nine innings the first and only time in three years the croquet ball in Fairville.

The feature play of the game was without doubt Perry holding down third sack for the Royals. Dick surely was on hand for everything that went his way, his eight chances being well accepted.

Two double plays, Duke to Maher, were well executed, and showed the Athletics getting into form in combination work. Perry to Gillis also executed in good style a double play on behalf of the Royals.

The pick-ups and well judged throwing of both short stops, Gillis and Duke, deserved more than passing mention. These are perhaps the youngest players in the league and they certainly look good.

As to the batteries Quigg and N. G. (Royals), and Huns and Duke (Athletics), handled the sphere to the entire satisfaction of the fans. Charlie certain made several nice stops and his pitching was consistent. In the last of the eighth inning John O'Keefe (Royals), and Huns in the fourth inning had to retire, his place being taken by Leo Comeau.

The crowd might have been larger considering the really fine exhibition but owing to the rumor of the Cubs' withdrawal, the fans were not sure a game would be played.

Tonight the reorganized Cubs under the guardianship of Jack Driscoll will clash with the Royals and some surprises are expected.

After the game a meeting of the base ball executive supported by a score of interested fans, was held to discuss the withdrawal of the Cubs from the league. President George O'Reilly presided. It was announced that definite word had been received that the Hifford team had disbanded and the question was asked what was to be done. Here the energetic and efficient secretary, Jack Driscoll, in order to keep the game going, stepped into the breach with an offer to place a nine in the field under the name of the Cubs and assuming their standing. At present they are in the cellar. The boys recognize that it takes a real sport to go against such odds as the Cubs have to face, and not to be outdone when fair play was the order of the day. Captains Pink of the Athletics, and Hanlon of the Royals, generously agreed to relinquish a game each which was their due because of the Cubs not showing up to play as scheduled. And now his all eyes on the new born Cubs whose mysterious lineup will appear tonight to make their initial bow.

At Thursday, July 2, is to be the public opening of the playgrounds it was decided to postpone the game for that evening and give all hands an opportunity to join in the festivities at the school field. After this postponed games will be played on Wednesdays without fail and the public will not be disappointed again in the matter.

Some changes were made in the personnel of the teams with the sanction of the meeting, but his practice will soon have to stop in fairness to all concerned.

Those Five Escapes.
John Sime writes to the Times, in reference to the alleged neglect in putting fire escapes on the Grand Union Hotel, to say that he does not regard himself as responsible for the delay. He says that after waiting many weeks to hear from Inspector Kenny, he communicated with that official who came and said he wished to have James Lewis with him. Mr. Lewis came and Mr. Sime says he showed them over the house and that Mr. Kenny told Mr. Lewis that he left it all in his hands. Mr. Lewis made certain suggestions and Mr. Sime asked him to tender for what he thought ought to be done. The tender Mr. Sime says was from fifty to seventy-five per cent higher than it should have been, and he also contends that Mr. Lewis should not be both contractor and inspector in the same case. He says he has no intention of evading the law, but on the other hand does not propose to submit to what he regards as an injustice.

WHY MANAGERS ARE PREMATURELY BALD

(By Fullerton.)
Frank Chance was telling of the trials of a manager and to illustrate he told a yarn.
"I had a pitcher once," he remarked. "He was a good pitcher—but he would not keep in condition. One day he lost a game and that night I learned he had been out almost all the preceding night. You can imagine my feelings. I tore into him and was telling him a few things about himself, and threatening him with punishment."
"If you do that, Frank," he said, "I'll quit the team and join the navy."
"Join the navy?" I yelled. "If I thought I could get you on a boat I'd buy your ticket anywhere. I'll buy you
