

One True Medicinal Whiskey

Beware of Imitations

While substitution is not a part of modern merchandising, it is still practiced to a greater or less degree by a few merchants who haven't the courage to compete with their fellows along legitimate, fair, lines, or who do not care for their customers' health, but their own profits only.

Substitutes Are Dangerous

And any merchant who practices substitution is unworthy of the public's confidence.

When a remedy has been before the public for more than half a century, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in prominent hospitals, when it has carried the blessings of health to as many thousands of homes of the sick as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. Be sure you get the genuine.

It is Foolish to Cut the Eyelashes. Too much has been said in the past about the wonderful results to be obtained by cutting the lashes frequently, that it may surprise you somewhat to be told at this date not to shear your lashes whenever you think they are not growing with the proper rapidity. Be quite sure that if the

Therefore, so much the hair roots that if one crop proves a failure, the second or third will fill all the requirements. It is known how to all make and matrons, that strive as you will, the lashes will not—perhaps it would be better to say, cannot—grow to be an inch or so in length, as so many women believe. There is no gaining the scientists who assert that it does no harm to put it in the oven to length!

Daily Hints For the Cook

GRANDMOTHER SAUCE. Four coffee cups sugar, one coffee cup water, put in enamel saucepan. Cook for a few minutes after coming to a boil. Add two quarts cranberries run through choppin' to syrup and cook until cranberries are done. Long cooking causes berries to taste bitter. MERINGUE. Add about one-fourth of a teaspoon of cream of tartar and one full tablespoon of sugar to the white of one egg after whipping softly, then whip again, until creamy. This is good for any kind of pudding, or pie and can be flavored or colored and it does no harm to put it in the oven to brown. TURBANS OF FISH. Take slices of halibut about half an inch thick, cut into fillets, dip in a mixture of 1-4 cup melted butter, the juice of 1 lemon, a little onion juice and a sprinkling of salt and pepper. Roll up like a little rosette, fasten with a toothpick and roast 20 minutes. Serve with cheese sauce and potato apples.
