CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAMMES ARE MUCH ENJOYED

"Your Community in Revolution" formed the subject of a very fine lecture yesterday afternoon at Chautauqua by Dr. Harry R. McKenney. The speaker dwelt on many phases of community life, and he covered a large field thoroughly. He had a fairly large audience which seemed to appreciate his lecture thoroughly.

A great part of the lecturer's remarks were directed to the average boy in the family and his idea of community life. He urged more attention to the boy's hours of play by the parents and greater concern as to how and where he spends his leisure hours. He said that he was glad to see that the day of the old, musty parlor at home

On Scalp, Arms and Limbs. Lost Rest. Cuticura Heals.

"Eczema broke out in a rash on my scalp, arms and limbs. The itching and burning were terrible. My hair became lifeless and dry and fell out in handfuls. My clothing aggravated the breaking out, and I could not rest at night on account of the irritation."

"The trouble lasted many nine years. My mother tried many different remedies but they did no good. We began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment which completely healed me." (Signed) Miss Beatrice M. Closson, No. 264, 10th St., Portland, Me., Feb. 20, 1922.

was passing and the living room was taking its place. He emphasized the need for a proper community organization to look after the growing youths. The boy, he said, must get the right attitude physically and socially.

Commenting on the health revolution, he said that something was wrong in view of the number of people dying from unnatural diseases. He urged better ventilation and better sanitation.

The entire address was one of the finest heard in St. John and the practical examples the lecturer gave in illustrating his points easily won his hearers. Dr. McKenney was frequently applauded during the course of his remarks.

Evening Programme.

The evening programme proved extremely pleasing to the large audience present last evening.

The Ernest Gamble Concert Company rendered many musical numbers which delighted the audience. The lecturer for the evening was Miss Ada Ward, who gave a very interesting address entitled "You folks over here."

That the Ernest Gamble Concert party was very much enjoyed was made known by the repeated encores. Miss Ward sang an Italian song. Miss Verna Page, the third member of the party, delivered a violin solo. Mr. Gamble then sang a group of three songs. A duet was sung by Miss Read and Mr. Gamble and this number concluded the concert programme.

Rev. N. S. Reeves introduced Ada Ward, the lecturer of the evening. Miss Ward is a very interesting and amusing speaker who holds the interest of her audience from the beginning to the end of her address.

The performance was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem. After the performance a large number of the people who were interested in Chautauqua remained to talk over ways and means to make the show an even greater success in the future.

The meeting was addressed by Rev. Mr. Reeves and his opinion of many of those present were heard.

The death of Sidney Beaman, formerly of Fairville, occurred at his home in Montreal on Saturday. He leaves his wife, two daughters and one brother. The family will receive much sympathy from friends here.

"O MOTHER, I'M SO HOT"

Thousands of little Canadians will run to mother this summer and whimper "O mother, I'm so hot." A natural condition? Yes, to be hot in hot weather, but not to whimper about it, if the blood condition is right. A child so fed that its blood is acid instead of alkaline, like the adult with acid blood, feels devilishly "all in" on a sultry day. There is but one way to make the blood acid—by improper feeding. "Excess Acid" foods, like white flour, refined cereals, meats, fats, sweets, make acid blood or "heat the blood." If the blood is alkaline there is no devilizing sense of heat, no depression of bodily or mental vigor, however hot the day. Natural, unrefined foods keep the blood alkaline—whole grain cereals, milk, eggs, nuts, beans, greens, and fruits. These are rich in alkalis and keep the blood "cool" and the mind and body fit, regardless of the heat.

Roman Meal is the only richly alkaline cereal, 400 parts in each 1,000 "Excess Alkali," alkaline enough to correct the acids of white flour, other cereals, fats, meats and sweets. It makes delightful porridge, pancakes, puddings, cakes. Even hot Roman Meal porridge is more "cooling" than any cold, refined, acid-forming cereal. But you can
