THE ALASKAN RAILWAY FIGHT IS SERIOUS

Firearms Have Been Freely Used by Both Parties One Man Killed and a Number of Others Injured as the Result of the Struggle for the Crossing.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 5.—A despatch to the Post Intelligencer, from Valdez, Alaska, says one man is dead, three men fatally injured and nine are seriously wounded, as the result of a fierce conflict between the Guggenheim and the Bruner interests at Kaituma on Wednesday. The fight is over the right of way which the Bruner forces are protecting. The Guggenheim interests stationed detachments of armed men at points commanding the disputed ground early in the day. Tony Depasca, in charge of a party of laborers, started out to lay a track over the Bruner right of way, under cover of a fire from these camps. A fire was opened from the Bruner camp but Depasca's men succeeded in capturing the steel "Go-Devil" on which the Bruner camp had relied to destroy the work done by their opponents. Representatives of the Bruner interests are making every endeavor to have Governor Hoggatt order troops to the scene of hostilities.
