FREDERICTON, N. B. Feb. 20.— John J. Weddall, the well known dry goods merchant of this citiy, is seriously ill and his condition is causing his friends some uneasiness. days ago he contracted the grippe and yesterday was obliged to undergo an operation for an internal trouble.

The Imperial Oil Co. have commenced operations for building their oil warehouse in this citiy. The building is to be situated on Aberdeen street, and will be constructed entirely of stone, brick and metal. In future the burning oil will be shipped to Fredericton and stored in the warehouse here and delivered to customers in a tank wagon.

Miss Matilda Fleming, daughter of Geo Fleming of St. Marys, and Fred Sanborn, of Cloquet, Minn., were united in marriage at the residence of the groom's sister, Mrs. Hugh Graham of Cloquet on Jan. 31st. The marriage was somewhat romantic. The bride's brother, Harry Fleming resides at Cloquet, and Mr. Sanborn, who is a personal friend, saw the young lady's photograph at Mr. Fleming's home. Correspondence ensued, resulting in a short engagement and subsequent marriage. Miss Fleming lefe here on Jan. 28 and was met by Mr. Sanborn on the train a few miles from Cloquet. Their marriage followed immediately upon their arrival at their future home. The exhibit to be taken from here to the sportsmen's show in Chicago is now being loaded upon the car provided by the C. P. R. for the purpose. GAGETOWN, Feb. 13.—The sad news reached here on Monday night of the death of Perdy, only child of Hon. and Mrs. G. H. V. Bulyea, of Regina, N. W. T., formerly of Gagetown. The boy was at first seized with a delirious fever, from which he had partly recovered, when he was seized with paralysis of the vocal powers, which afterwards extended to the brain. Two doctors were in attendance, and everything that human skill could do was done, but nothing could save him. Mr. and Mrs. Bulyea have the sympathy of the whole community in their great bereave-

At the agricultural meeting held here last Wednesday evening, H. B. Hall, Geo. McAlpine and F. C. Ebbett were appointed a committee to pro-cure information as to whether a required number of cows could be procured and the stock subscribed for the starting of a cheese or butter factory. Owing to the condition of the roads, the meeting was not as largely attended as it otherwise might have been. However, a great deal of practical information was given the far-Appleby, K. C., was elected member for this county to the local legislature today by acclamation. There was a small attendance at the court house, mostly Mr. Appleby's political supporters. In addressing them he thanked them for the honor conferred on him. A year ago there had been a a few months ago a still more severe contest for the dominion, and both parties were anxious to avoid another contest just now. Representatives of the two parties had met together, and leading conservatives had stated that if the government supporters nominated him they would not put up a man to oppose him. The government friends had a convention a couple of weeks ago and he was unanimously nominated. The opposition supporters met the same evening and did not put man in the field. While he thanked his old friends in arms he also wished to thank the conservative party for the way in which they had treated Since he had accepted the nomination he had met with nothing but courteous treatment from the representatives of that party. During the short term in which he would serve he would endeavor to so carry himself as to cast no reproach upon this his native county.

His position was clear to all, a liberal and friend of the present administration. He would give every measure promoted for the interest of the province and the county his careful atconsideration. Three weeks ago he had not the slightest intention of again entering politics

MONCTON, Feb. 20.-The men of Moncton lodge of Knights of Pythias were joined by brethren from Amhers and Springhill to the number of about in celebrating the anniversary of the order last night. After the long form of the third degree had been exemplified refreshments were served, after which a number of toasts were proposed, the visiting lodges being especialy honored. Among the speakers were Mr. Marven of Union lodge,

A Lynn, Massachusetts, paper of recent date contains an account of the meeting in that city of Alex. Hope and his wife, formerly of Moncton. Hope has been living for some years at Portland, Maine, and his wife at Lynn, Mass., where, having procured a bill of separation instead of a divorce, she four years ago married S. C. Eales Hope claims that his wife deserted him at Moncton during his absence stream driving. Mrs. Hope, or Eales says her husband left her to battle with the world alone, and after remaining n Moncton for a time she finaly drifted to Lynn, earning a liiving for herself and boy, now 16 years old by dressmaking, until she met Eales. Hope does not claim his wife but desires the custody of the boy. The latter, however, is satisfied with his present surroundings and will not leave his mother if he can help it.

MILLTOWN, Feb. 18.—The barn and kitchen of a house owned by an old gentleman named' Ripley, on Elm street, were burned early Saturday morning and the main building damaged a good deal. Late on Saturday night fire again broke out in the same building, but it was soon extinguished.

The origin is unknown. A lady upwards of 80 years of age by the name of Sheen, living on Elm street, had the misfortune to slip and dislocate her hip the other day.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Methodist church this evening it was almost unanimously voted to remodel the church building at a cost of from $2,500 to $3,000. Robert Irvine was instructed to prepare plans of alteration and submit for further consideration by the congregation.

A stranger, driven out of the rum business from Calais, settled down for operations in the building which was formerly the Methodist parsonage, Friday last, but complications on Saturday night resulted in the marshal giving him until today to remove his stock, and he left for some more congenial place. for the purpose of considering the bills presented by the Board of Health in connection with the smallpox epidemic.

On motion of Councillor Hickman, seconded by Councillor LeBlanc, the list of parish officers for the parish of Dorchester was accepted and filed.

On motion of Councillor Campbell it was resolved that a committee of three be appointed to enquire into the liability of the municipality for any charges and expenses of the Board of Health, and also in case the municipality should be under any liability in respect to what items of the account of the Board of Health or of other persons or officers acting under the Board of Health, such liability exists. Also resolved that in asmuch as the provincial government has paid all costs and charges incurred by the local or provincial Board of Health in connection with the outbreak of smallpox in the counts of Gloucester and Restigouche, that this council is of the opinion that the same course should be pursued in respect to the county of Westmorland, if the municipality should be under any liability to pay the costs and expenses incurred by the local Board of Health and provincial Board of Health in connection with the outbreaks of smallpox in this county.

The bills against the municipality were the council.

Warden Mahoney then thanked the council for the business-like manner in which they had attended to their duties, and for the courtesy they had extended to him in his somewhat difficult position, and on motion of Councillor Carter, seconded by Councillor Carter of Westmorland, the council adjourned sine die.

MAUGERVILLE, Fev. 16.-It may have been noticed in the Sun of the 15th instant that the veracity of your correspondent has been impugned in communication over the cognomen of C. H. Gilmor, re observance "memorial day" at the Oromocto v lage. The force of conclusions are better measured in such cases by loyalty, patriotism and the spirit of be nevolence, as applied to patriotic obwhen it does not reach the heart. If to haul hay ...nd wood while the shops were kept open for the regular Satur day's trade, was obedience to the mandate of the crown by royal decree, while the only solemn memoria service within a radius of nearly ten miles was being conducted. The congregation, while including all classes and creeds, numbered about thre score and ten, or less than an ordinary funeral occasion, would call forth to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of a deceas friend, then "the day was quite gen-erally and quietly kept." But when about the only opportunity offered, the clude that the day was "more honored in the breach" while the church was "half filled." Your correspondent meant no reflection upon those who did their duty.

HOPEWELL HILL, Feb. 17.-Mrs. Alcorn, widow of the late John Alcorn of Alma, died of cancer on Friday at West River, where she had been living of late. Mrs. Alcorn was a sister of Mrs. James Matthews of Chemical road, and was greatly respected. Mrs. Merril Robinson is ill at her home here with inflammation of the lungs. Dr. Chapman is in attendance. Invitations have been received here to the marriage on February 27th of J. Dodge Moore of Boston, formerly of this place, to Miss Ethel Wilhelmina Batchelor, daughter of Mrs. Jessie Batchelor of New Dorchester, Mass. Hiram Smith, son of R. Chesley Smith, has gone to Moncton to take a place in the I. C. R. roundhouse. HOPEWELL HILL, Feb. 15.—The roads continue in a very had condition and travelling is attended with many difficulties. It is impossible for double teams to get along at all, except right in the villages. The mails get down regularly every night now by team, but at a very late hour, not getting to Albert until nearly midnight. Mrs. Daniel O. Woodworth of Chemical Road, who has been dangerously Rev. F. D. Davison is holding special services at Lower Cape. The light keeper at Grindstone Island has been able to get off lately and get the mails, the bay being temporarily clear of ice.

GRAND MANAN, Feb. 15.-On Saturday, the 2nd inst., the Knights of Pythias of Southern Cross Lodge, No. 16, turned out in force to attend a special memorial service for our late beloved sovereign Queen Victoria. The Pythians were their mourning badges for the first time. Rev. Dr. Hunter, the rector, preached to a congregation that filled old St. Paul's to its utmost capacity. The rector's discourse was based on the words: Honor all men love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the King. It was a splendid homily and will be long remembered. At the close of the service the knights gave three hearty cheers and a tiger for

King Edward VII. Simeon Daggett, a native of this island but residing in Somerville, Mass. was killed at that place by a train on the morning of the 8th inst. the funeral took place on the 15th inst. at his home. Seal Cove. Mr. Daggett was a member of the Free Baptist church and also held the commission as a justice of the peace for Charlotte county for some time. On the same day the body of Cant Henry Burnham of this island also arrived from Eastport, Me., where he died very suddenly on the 13th inst. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, who took the body in charge and sent it home, accompanying it to Aurora with Masonic honors The sudden death of both these mer is a great shock to the community at large, of which they were honored and respected members. Rev. S. A. Boxer, Reformed Baptist is having a revival at North Head He baptized eight persons on Sunday, the 10th inst. He is being assisted by Rev. Mr. McDonald, a son of Rev. G. W. McDonald. Rev. A. H. McLeod Free Baptist, is having a revival service at Grand Harbor. Mr. McLeod is highly esteemed by the people there. Lobster fishing is reported good at White Head and Seal Cove. Plenty of snow and cold weather with fine roads for sleighing or hauling wood out of the woods. FREDERICTON JUNCTION. Feb 17.-On the 6th instant, Aaron Phillips, one of the pioneer settlers of Little Lake, and one of its oldest citizens, died after a protracted illness from heart disease. A widow and two sons and one daughter survive him.

On the 8th instant, Spafford Tracy of Tracy Station, died after one day's illness, of cerebral hemorrhage. The tragic suddenness of this death has cast a gloom over the community. Mr Tracy was a man greatly respected He leaves a wife and three children. On Friday morning there passed away James McQuestion of Three Tree Creek, the oldest man in Gladstone, and perhaps the oldest in Sunbury Co. Mr. McQuestion was born in County Londonderry, Ire-land, 97 years ago. He emigrated to this country when quite a young man and after a time settled at Three Tree Creek, where he lived an independent late beloved sovereign lady Queen of his days. His wife, who died ten years ago, was Eliza McLaugh Derry. They had five sons and six daughters. Two sons and one daughter are deceased. When James Mc-Question settled by the Oromocto the county was one vast wilderness, with few clearings and few roads. Traffic was mostly by water. He lived to see much of the wilderness reclaimed and to see many of the inventions and discoveries which have been the glory of the Victorian age. He lived the simple and upright life which makes for length of days and peaceful old age-died without a single enemy and mourned by a host of friends. In common with the few nonagenarians, he eigns of the Empire

SALISBURY, N. B., Feb. 18.- The firm of A. L. Wright & Co. are giving the interior of their Coverdale lumber mills a thorough overhauling this winter. New machinery is being put in and the mill is being put in first class order for the season's sawing.

Three families, some sixteen persons in all, were delayed here some days last week waiting for the Alber train. total of 118. It has been found necessary to enlarge the dining room accommodations. The general health is good. All the victims of grip and vaccination are at work again. The excellence of the conservatory staff seems to be much appreciated. All the music teachers are working over-time. The art department has also an admirable showing of students doing faithful work. The plans for the new building are still under consideration. The erection of one wing is all that is contemplated at present, but the whole building will be a very beautiful edifice. The executive of the alumnae are working hard making out lists of names of the old students who will be the opportunity of contribut ing to the Mary Archibald memorial As the lady students of Mount Alli-son have a way of changing their names shortly after leaving school, the work of preparing the lists is no small or easy task.

At a recent meeting of the electric a rulight stockholders it was decided to line. enlarge the plant. A brick building is to be erected and a new boiler and engine added, increasing considerably the working power. A call is mad on the stockholders and probably additional stock will be issued.

SALISBURY, N. B., Feb. 20.-Coun cillor J. W. Carter, who returned home on Tuesday from the Westmorcounty council board, brought with him a photograph which had been before the council. The picture represents two views of a Cape Bauld smallpox patient. Those who have hibition at Crandall & Carter's store are fully convinced that the smallpox in this county is no joke. It is startling revelation to the scentical ones who had an idea that the mawas not really smallpox. The picture shows the face, neck, arms hands and breast of the patient, all a complete mass of loathsome looking Even the palms of the hands are affected.

ST MARTINS

The funeral of John Gambell of Fairview, St. John Co., who died after a very brief illness last Thursday evening at Providence, Rhode Island, took place on Monday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, Henry Dunlop. The remains were taken to the Methodist church, where the large audience completely filled the building, and an appropriate and suitable sermon was preached by Rev. L. D. McDonald. The interment took place in the family burying ground. Mr. Gambell being a Forester and held in high esteem by his brethren, the order walked in the forefront of the procession and at the grave read their burial ceremony. The deceased was also a member of the Orange fraternity, and this organization attended in full regalia. Much sympathy is ex pressed for the lonely widow so sud denly bereft. Mr. Gambell will be remembered by many as a kindly, genial nospitable person, willing to help a brother in time of need.

The W. C. T. U. held a very success ful commemorative service in the Bap tist church Sunday evening at the close of the regular service, the occa sion being the anniversary of the death of Frances E. Willard, the leader of world wide W. C. T. U. work and also to honor the name of our late beloved Queen Victoria.

At 8 p. m. the president and vicepresidents took seats on the platform which had been beautifully decorated with potted plants. Conspicuous among these was a beautiful lily in full bloom, its pure blossoms reminding one of the purity of these lives whose memory we will ever cherish The programme was excellent throughwas as follows: Singing "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah," Scripture, Psalm 23rd, president; prayer, Rev. The Rev. H. E. Dibblee was appointed chairman, a position he filled to the satisfaction of everybody. In a few well chosen remarks be explained the object of the concert, which opened with a chorus by the whole company, followed by dialogues, tableaux, songs and recitations. Great credit is due to all who took part in the different pleces, which were rendered in good style, showing the effect of thorough study and rehearsals of the different characters. Those who participated were Misses Mina, Lena and May Brennan, Edith Holden, May Dunphy, Kathleen Stocker, John Brennan, H. Rutledge, E. Carr, J. E. Stocker, Geo. Johnson, West Smith, Jack Crawford, Frank McElroy, Allan Hughes and Fred Cogswell. Now that the movement has begun some of the older heads have decided to throw their energies into what the younger part have so nobly begun, and it has been decided to have another entertainment at Easter on a much larger scale.
