

McDOUGALL IN CHARGE OF DEPARTMENT BELLEFLEURS THE GREAT COPPER MINES OF THE LEVIATHAN IN NOVA SCOTIA FOR SEVERAL YEARS ESTABLISHED FOR HERE PASSED BY BAPTIST BOARD

Publisher Of "Free Speech" Arrested In Moncton Yesterday By Detective Killen On Warrant Sworn Out By Police-man Lucas—Arrived In St. John In Custody Last Evening—Details Of Information On Which Action Was Taken—His Previous Record.

C. Bruce McDougall, publisher of Free Speech, was arrested in Moncton yesterday afternoon by Detective Patrick P. Killen, on information laid by Frederick Lucas, an officer of the St. John police force, charging him with defamatory libels. The arrest caused a great sensation.

The information which was laid by Police-man Lucas Wednesday is as follows: Canada, Province of New Brunswick, Police District of the City of St. John. The information, and complaint of Frederick Lucas, of the City of St. John, police constable, made this 18th day of August, A. D. 1920, before the undersigned Robert J. Ritchie, Esquire, police magistrate of the City of St. John, who said that C. Bruce McDougall, on the thirty-first day of July, A. D. 1920, at the City of St. John, published a defamatory libel on Alexander W. MacRae, in a certain paper called Free Speech, which libel is in the words following, to wit:—"Why has A. W. MacRae, the demagogue, given up the Sydney House? Has he dropped the noose, or is it because Gertie McKean has gone to Boston? And which said libel was written in the sense of imputing to the said Alexander W. MacRae had been in the habit of resorting to a house of ill-fame and which libel was published without legal justification or excuse and was designed to expose the said Alexander W. MacRae to ridicule and contempt."

And also that the said C. Bruce McDougall, at the City of St. John, on the tenth day of July, A. D. 1920, published a defamatory libel on Thomas H. Bullock in a certain paper called Free Speech, which libel was in the words following, to wit:—"The pious mayor did not go to Brown's flats Saturday as he intended, but spent the greater part of the day around town looking for the Free Speech reporter. He will never be full until such a time as our pious mayor drop into a man who would and did do so, and bribe the young electors of the little town with rum and whiskey. This is not to be chief magistrate. This is an altogether different matter. Let the pious mayor call this statement true, if he dares, and Free Speech will tell how much his rum bill amounted to for his election. Can Free Speech call this statement a lie? The Bible in one hand and a bribe in the other? Then you have a picture of the even handed justice as our holy mayor would have it. Shame, shame on the man who sought his profit in the high and mighty seat of chief magistrate by bribing our boys who cast their ballots for the first time, in one hand and a Bible in the other, while the other hand is busy writing in the sense of and imputing that the said Thomas H. Bullock was a hypocrite and a giver of bribes and which libel was published without legal justification or excuse and was designed to expose the said Thomas H. Bullock to public hatred and contempt."

And also that the said C. Bruce McDougall, at the City of St. John, on the fifth day of June, A. D. 1920, published a defamatory libel on Daniel Mullin, Esquire, one of His Majesty's counsellors in the law, in a certain paper called Free Speech, which libel was in the words following, to wit:—"To all unscrupulous individuals who are seeking legal advice and incidentally becoming Dan M., (meaning Daniel Mullin) is recommended, and which libel was written in the sense of and imputing that the said Daniel Mullin was in the habit of making contracts and office as his clients and which libel was published without legal justification or excuse and was designed to expose the said Daniel Mullin to public hatred and contempt."

And also that the said C. Bruce McDougall, at the City of St. John, on the nineteenth day of June, A. D. 1920, published a defamatory libel on James H. Frink, in a certain paper called Free Speech, which libel is in the words following, to wit:—"The horse doctor of the Common Council (meaning James H. Frink, an alderman of the City of St. John, and chairman of the water and sewerage board of the Common Council of the said city) ranks the men who curb his graft as asses, but who is the boldest of them all," and which libel was written in the sense of and imputing that the said James H. Frink was guilty of corruption and dishonesty in his public capacity and office as an alderman of the City of St. John, and which libel was published without legal justification or excuse and was designed to expose the said James H. Frink to public hatred and contempt."

BAD ACCIDENT MARS RACES AT HILLSGROVE YESTERDAY

Hillsgrove, R. I., Aug. 19.—A serious accident in which R. C. Lashbury of Broadbrook Conn., broke his leg just above the ankle, marked the second day racing at the Hillsgrove track today. The spectacular mishap occurred in the first half of the heat of the 2:14 pace. As the field swung into the stretch, the Plummer, with Eddie Sunderland broke up badly, falling into the gutter and rolling into Sunderland, throwing him to the track. Lashbury, driver of Ella Willis was thrown heavily. Colner came up and ran into Donnybrook, who was trying to get out of the mixup, throwing Sunday, Colner's driver. Donnybrook also went down, throwing Martin, his driver. All the horses then scrambled madly into the gutter and rolled into the track. As near as could be learned Colner stepped on Lashbury, breaking his ankle off short. He was hurried to the Rhode Island hospital, where he was attended by Dr. N. F. Flanagan. Sunderland was struck about the head, but was not seriously injured. Ella Willis' sulky was smashed to pieces but before damage could be done the horses were recaptured. The horses in the mixup were followed owing to an unavoidable accident. In the last heat of the same race Logan Jr., stumbled and fell in front of the stand, throwing Martin high into the air and Lucy A., which was following ran into Logan Jr., throwing Murphy, Lucy A.'s driver heading to the track. Drivers and their horses escaped without injury. Another mishap occurred in the third heat of the 2:15 trot, when with the field closely bunched and with Leona at the pole, Hawkins made a running break and put his feet through Leon's sulky wheel. In this manner both horses travelled 15 feet before they separated and unaccountably got off without a hurt.

The 2:14 pace was the feature of the day, and furnished the third new record for the track this year. In the second heat the Plummer was forced to go the mile in 2:10.4 lowering the track record of 2:11.4, made by Gal Porter Oil Filter, bh, (Kelley) 6 dis.

Present Indications Are That Crop Will Not Come Up To The Forecasts Of Early Summer.

Special to The Standard. Annapolis Royal, Aug. 19.—That the early summer is now generally admitted and what was expected to prove a bumper crop will in many sections be a failure. The trees bloomed and set well and every indication pointed to one of the heaviest yields in the history of the Valley. But the prolonged drought has made the apples dry up and drop, and in some places even premature ripening has set in and the winter apples are already beginning to ripen. The farmers expect the crop will be thousands of barrels less than the estimate made in the early summer. Field crops have also suffered heavily from the prolonged drought and as one farmer put it "the potatoes are baking in the ground."

Nova Scotia Dissatisfied Over Results Of This Year's Tourist Season. Many Reasons Offered.

Annapolis Royal, Aug. 19.—So far the tourist trade has been disappointing. The number of people arriving in Nova Scotia from the United States so far this year is many hundreds less than the number for the corresponding time last year, and 1920 was considered an unusually dull period for many reasons. The revival of prosperity in the United States may be keeping the people so busy that they cannot come away. There are many theories in regard to the slackness of travel, the chief one being the poor accommodation offered by many of the hotels and the excessive charges made. Whatever the reason may be the people are not coming this way this year and it will mean a heavy loss to the merchants throughout the province who have stocked heavily in anticipation of the tourist trade.

ANNAPOLIS YOUTH CHASED BY BULL

Frank Smith Of Greenwood Has Thrilling Time With Bovine — Although Badly Bruised, Is Not Seriously Injured.

Annapolis Royal, Aug. 18.—Chased by an angry bull and forced to flee round the yard for his life and in the end to be tossed over a stone wall, and all just because he wore a red sweater, was the rather thrilling experience of Frank Smith of Greenwood, this county, on Monday morning. He was taking the bull to water when he suddenly turned on Smith and gave him the liveliest five minutes of his life. For a time Smith was in active training for the bull, and in the long distance races. At last seeing a heavy club he attempted to beat off the infuriated animal, but Mr. Bull seemed to enjoy the sport, dodging the club and tossed him on a bed of rocks, although badly bruised Smith was not injured at all.

HIGHWAY ROBBER MAKES RICH HAUL

Two Rings, a Bracelet, 15 Cents And a Soup Bone Taken By Daring Child Robber — Police Interested.

New York, Aug. 18.—Detectives of the West Twentieth street station are looking for a fourteen year old girl who held up eight year old Melba Jessy in the rain yesterday morning and robbed her of two rings, a bracelet, some soup meat, and 15 cents. When the girl fled, leaving fearful Melba to gather up her torn shawl, empty purse, and dilapidated umbrella, and go home to 454 West Twentieth street to explain.

Melba wasn't eager to tell, because the girl robber said that horrible things would get her if she did. Fear of her mother triumphed over bogles and she managed to relate between the soup meat and started back home she met a nice looking girl near Eighth avenue, who admired her bracelet. The girl was dressed in black and wasn't much older than Melba.

This girl saw that Melba's bracelet was a little too large for her, and that it was tied on with a piece of string. So the girl asked her into a bakeshop where cord could be obtained and offered to make the bit of string shorter. She came out of the bakeshop the bold girl in black simply snatched the bracelet and broke the cord that held it to Melba's arm. Then she dumped Melba's umbrella and shawl in the gutter, emptied her pocketbook, took the two rings and the soup meat, and let her go with the dreadful warning. After Melba's father heard the story he went around to the West Twentieth street police station and reported the case.
