

News of the Churches

PRESBYTERIAN

Knox Church, Logville, N. B., has extended a unanimous call to Rev. W. B. Robson, of Miramichi, N. B.

Rev. A. D. Stirling, of Scotchburn, N. S., has been called to Union Church, Hopewell, N. S. The call was under consideration at a special meeting of the Presbytery of Pictou, held in New Glasgow, January 28.

Rev. G. A. Logan, who recently resigned his charge of Union Church, Hopewell, N. S., has accepted a call to Sherbrook, N. S., and will be inducted to the pastoral charge of that congregation on Tuesday, February 2.

Mr. George E. Knight, who was for more than a year in charge of the Courtenay Bay Mission, and who has recently completed six months' service in South Richmond, N. B., left on Thursday of this week to fill several months' appointment in Kemptville, Ont., in the Presbytery of Halifax.

Rev. Murdoch Gillespie, late of River Hebert, N. S., will be inducted to the pastoral charge of the congregation of Great Village, in the Presbytery of Truro, February 1. The moderator of the Presbytery, Rev. J. C. Davies, D. Coburn and F. M. Milligan have been appointed to take part in the induction service. This congregation has been vacant since the removal of Rev. A. L. Fraser to Smith's Falls, Ont., in September last.

Rev. V. M. Purdy, late of Sherbrook, N. S., was inducted to the pastoral charge of St. James Church, Parrashoro, N. S., in the Presbytery of Wallace, January 14. Rev. C. H. McRae, of Springfield, and inducted Rev. G. S. Mitchell, of Oxford, and Rev. Wm. Forbes, of Tatamagouche, to address the congregation on their new minister. The first minister of Parrashoro congregation was J. McGregor McKay, who was inducted to this charge in 1855, and who later ministered in St. Paul's Church, Woodstock, N. B., from 1878 to 1882.

Rev. A. D. Menzies, who has been for several months in charge of the responsible position in the office of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, left this week for Montreal to make his headquarters there for some time. Mr. Menzies is a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and has filled several important pastorates. On account of ill health he was compelled to retire from active service a few years ago, and undertake temporarily duties in another sphere. His name is still on the Assembly Roll of the church. With Mrs. Menzies he has made many friends during their stay in St. John.

Church Dedication at Kentville, N. S.

The handsome new church edifice of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Kentville, N. S., was dedicated to the worship of God on Sunday, January 17 with appropriate services. Professor H. A. Kent of Halifax Presbyterian College was the special preacher for the day. The pastor, Rev. R. B. Layton, ministers from adjoining congregations, Revs. J. U. Bell and W. H. Spencer, besides brethren of other denominations assisted in the morning, afternoon and evening services. The new church is built of unadorned red granite with grey freestone trimmings. The design of the architecture is Gothic, while the furnishings within and without are in keeping with the general appearance of the edifice.

McKenzie Memorial Service.

A memorial service to the late Rev. J. W. McKenzie, D. D., late missionary in the New Hebrides, will be held tomorrow in the congregation of West River and Green Hill, N. B. Dr. McKenzie claimed this as his home congregation. Here he was born and here he received the early religious training which was to bear such rich fruit in his forty years of faithful missionary endeavor in Borneo, the Malay Peninsula, and elsewhere. He was a member of the Presbytery of Pictou throughout his entire missionary career, and at the service tomorrow, Rev. Robert Cunningham, D. D., will be present as the appointed representative of the Presbytery.

SCALY, CHING, BURNING RASH

On Wrists. Soon On Shoulders, Stinging Pain. Could Not Sleep, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Rash Disappeared.

So, Boston, Que.—"I first had a fine scaly rash appear on my wrists soon after I had been in the tropics. It became very inflamed and caused me great suffering by the burning, stinging pain. These soon broke out on my shoulders and I could not sleep nights for the itching and burning. It was like this for two months or more. I had medicine and used many remedies but nothing did me any good. I had read of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was soon cured and free from all the trouble. The rash disappeared and I have not been troubled since." (Signed) Albert Little, Jan. 28, 1914.

Why should I use Cuticura? There is nothing the matter with my skin, and I thought Cuticura Soap was only for skin troubles. True, it is for skin troubles, but its great mission is to prevent skin troubles. For more than a generation its delicate emollient and prophylactic properties have rendered it the standard for this purpose, while its extreme purity and refreshing fragrance give to it all the advantages of the best of toilet soaps. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A."

BAPTIST

Rev. A. H. Foster, formerly of St. Matthew's Church, St. John, N. B., is the present pastor of the above congregation.

Nominations for Moderator.

It is the privilege of each of the seventy Presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in Canada to make nomination of a minister to fill the chair of the Moderator at the next General Assembly which will meet in Kingston, Ont., in June. Already more than one Presbytery has exercised this right. The Presbytery of Barrie, Ontario has nominated one of its own members, Rev. D. D. MacLeod, D.D., while the Presbytery of Toronto has chosen Rev. John Neil, D. D., of Westminister Church, Toronto, as the one upon whom they desire to see the moderator's mantle fall.

In the Presbyterian Churches of the Old Land, the method of election to the moderator's chair is somewhat different to that in vogue in Canada. The choice is made out by the Assembly itself voting upon the names forwarded by presbyteries, but by a standing committee of the Assembly which makes its choice several months before the Assembly convenes. The Standing Committee of the United Free Church of Scotland has already made appointment in the person of Prof. A. R. McEwen, of the Chair of Church History in New College, Edinburgh, who will without further voice of the church take his place of office in the Assembly when the term of his predecessor expires.

A Missioner From China.

It has not been usual for the eastern section of the Church hitherto to have visits from missionaries in China and India, while they were home on furlough, as these have been under the direction and support entirely of the western board. With missionaries from the New Hebrides, Trinidad, British Guiana and Korea, who have become more or less familiar, while those who labor in India and China have remained to a large degree strangers to us. But a change is coming into the old order of things, and in the sphere of foreign missionary enterprise it but requires the final word of the General Assembly to decree that east and west are no longer two but one. Already we are given evidence of the coming change in the visit to the Maritime Synod during the first part of February of Rev. John Griffith, home on furlough from the mission station of Changheo, Honan, China. He will spend next week in Halifax giving a special course of lectures to the students of the Presbyterian College. He will address congregations in Sydney, N. S., on Sunday, February 7, visiting other congregations in that quarter during the following week. On Sunday, February 14, he will be in St. John, while he will be in Chipman and Fredericton, February 16 and 17 respectively. He is spoken of as a speaker of much ability and power.

Principal MacKinnon Returns.

On Tuesday of this week Principal MacKinnon, of Halifax Presbyterian College arrived in St. John on the S. S. Chiencto on his return from Trinidad where he had gone in December to participate in the ordinary of the first class of graduates from our theological college in San Fernando. He reports the "Mela" in connection with the ordination service as most successful gathering. He met with all our missionaries in the Trinidad and British Guiana fields with the exception of Rev. R. G. Fisher of Essequibo. Doubtless, the good principal will have a most interesting story to tell of his visit to the tropics, and many a congregation will be awaiting to hear the story told in his own inimitable way.

Getting Ready.

The St. John Presbytery is to meet in St. David's Church, St. John, in June next, and already plans are in progress to make the annual meeting interesting and profitable. The executive committee of the Presbytery met in Calvin Church Wednesday afternoon to outline a programme for the several sessions, and to discuss such other business as naturally came before them. Good progress was made. Besides the local members of the executive, Mrs. C. T. Purdy, of Moncton, and Mrs. H. H. Thomson, of Robbsey were present at the meeting.

Deacons Report.

The Deacons Committee of the Presbytery also met on Wednesday to hear the report of the Deacons, Miss Cora Sinclair. This committee is appointed at the annual meeting and consists of a representative from each auxiliary in St. John. Meetings are held monthly to hear, and to confer with, Miss Sinclair on her work. The story of Miss Sinclair's work from month to month is a most interesting chapter in social and benevolent enterprise, and reveals a many concrete incidents of life as it is found in our city which would otherwise be hidden and, being hidden, untouched by Christian influence and helpfulness.

A few days ago a committee representing the teachers and officers of St. John Presbytery church, St. John, waited upon Chas. H. Dolg at his home, 54 Stanley Street, and presented him with a handsome teacher's Bible, accompanied by an address and a bouquet of twenty carnations in token of their appreciation.

Twenty years' faithful and efficient service as superintendent, Mr. Dolg filled the office of superintendent continuously since 1894 until his retirement in 1914. Some time previous to that he superintended the work in connection with a branch Sabbath school conducted under the auspices of St. John Presbytery church in the temple of Honor Hall, North End. Mr. Dolg expressed his sincere gratitude at this token of appreciation from his fellow workers. Many regrets are heard that on account of illness he is unable to give the interest and attention to the activities of the church and Sabbath School which was his wont.

Marriage of Soldiers.

The General Superintendent has sent out the following letter in reference to the marriage of soldiers: My attention has been drawn to the question of the marriage of men already enlisted in the present contingent of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. It is highly desirable that such marriages shall not interfere with the relation of the bridegroom to the army. You are aware that according to present military regulations, the wife has the privilege of withdrawing her husband from the forces. It would therefore be clear that a man through his marriage may be prevented from proceeding overseas. On this account I desire to urge that any of our ministers, before celebrating the marriage of any such soldiers, will see that the wife is permitted to obtain leave from the bride for the bridegroom to fulfill the terms of his enlistment, and that permission of the Commanding Officer is presented, in order to make the marriage altogether regular.

Very sincerely yours,

S. D. CHOWN.

Conference Evangelist.

Rev. G. A. Anderson, the conference evangelist, has been meeting with great success in his work. He has so far held. The services held at Oromocto resulted in a great awakening, and many were added to the membership of the church. The greatest revival in the history of the community is reported. The Evangelist is now at Gagetown.
