ANOTHER GOOD MEETING FOR THE "KILTIES"

Stirring Addresses at the Imperial Last Night on Behalf of Col. Guthrie's Battalion.

"May God call me to my last long sleep ere the time come when that British flag is hauled down from that pinnacle where our ancestors have placed it." The stirring words of H. A. Powell at last night's meeting.

The fourth recruiting meeting in St. John county for the purpose of filling the ranks of the 236th Kiltie Battalion was held last night in the Imperial theatre.

The results of the meeting were indeed encouraging, several young men offering their services to the appeal of Major Morgan. There is no doubt that others were inspired by the eloquent speeches made last night and they will probably make application at the recruiting office within the next few days.

The delightful programme to which Mrs. Blake Ferris, Miss McHarg, the Gibb children and Piper Stevens contributed was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

John Keefe, father of Captain George Keefe, recently wounded with the 26th Battalion, made an admirable chairman. After calling the meeting to order, the chairman made a few remarks in which he stated that the purpose of the gathering was to secure men to fill up the ranks of the 236th Battalion.

Sergeant Whitenet was the first speaker. He referred to the work awaiting the men who enlist now. He alluded to the gallant part played by New Brunswick units and concluded his remarks by asking the young men of the city to do the khaki.

He was followed by Captain F. P. May of the 26th Battalion. Captain May spoke of the young men who can be seen day and night strolling up and down the streets of the city and frequenting places of recreation and amusement. These men have just as much right to enlist as any of the boys who are now fighting upon the battle fields of Europe, said the speaker.

He impressed upon the audience the necessity of co-operating with the recruiting officers in securing the men who can be best spared from civil life.

"There are many men looking over the sights on King street tonight who should be looking over the sight of a rifle," declared Captain May.

He said that he thought the voluntary system the best system in the world, providing that the young men did not abuse it.

"Many men are looking over the fall and winter styles 'in clothing,' clapping the speaker, 'when they can obtain the best and latest style of clothing, viz., a khaki suit, by signing the honor roll. About 3,000 men in the city are eligible to do the khaki and they should be made to do so.'"

Colonel J. L. McAvity followed Captain May. He said that the 236th Battalion would be recruited up to full strength within thirty days with every individual in the province doing his part.

"We are face to face with a crisis the like of which the world has never known and we should not stop until the war has terminated in our favor," said the speaker.

BIG INDUSTRY ON THE COAST TO RUN AGAIN

O'Leary and Lee Have Purchased the Sutton Clark Fish Curing and Canning Plant at L'Etang and Will Operate It.

It is understood that O'Leary and Lee, of which firm Richard O'Leary, of Richibucto, is the head, has purchased the J. Sutton Clark fish curing and canning plant at L'Etang from the liquidators, the Bank of Nova Scotia and will immediately start operating there on a large scale.

O'Leary and Lee are among the largest firms in the fish business in the maritime provinces, and have branches at several points. It is understood that they will start canning lobsters and sardines just as soon as the plant can be gotten ready for use. The news that this plant is to be run at full capacity again will be heard with pleasure by the residents of the lower part of the Bay. It will provide employment for a large number of hands, and will be another market for the lobster and sardine catch in that portion of the Bay.

CONGRATULATED ON HIS APPOINTMENT

Chief Justice McKeown Receives Address—Bar and Jury Join in Expressions of Good Will.

At the sitting of the Circuit Court yesterday morning, presided over by His Honor Chief Justice McKeown, a congratulatory address was presented by the grand jury on his appointment as successor to the late Chief Justice Landry. Fred R. Taylor, president of the Barristers' Society, on behalf of that organization, extended hearty congratulations. Hon. J. B. M. Baxter endorsed the remarks of Mr. Taylor. The address was presented by F. W. Daniel, foreman of the jury, and was in the following terms:

"We, the members of the Grand Jury at present attendant on your court, wish to convey to you our hearty congratulations on your appointment as chief justice of this province. As citizens also we feel that in the present stirring times the world over, there is need, more than ever before, of exalting the honor of our courts and the laws of our land, and it is our belief that in you we may look for strict and wise justice.

"It is our wish that your term of office may be a long and happy one with the satisfaction of duty well done."

A. H. Hanington also expressed his congratulations. Chief Justice McKeown thanked the grand jury and the bar for the kind feelings they had expressed. He referred to his appointment to the bench seven years ago, mentioning that on that occasion he had striven hard to obtain the appointment to which he felt he was entitled. On this occasion, however, he never sought the honor, and coming as it did through no efforts of his own, and particularly from a party upon which he had no claims, he considered the honor even greater than his first appointment.

The address of the grand jury was to him a mark of satisfaction of his efforts from the business community. He hoped that this same feeling would always exist, that he would continue to hold the respect of the bar, and that his fulfillment of the duties of his new position would meet with their entire satisfaction.

The court adjourned until October 6th.
