WEDDINGS

Tricarini-Merritt.

Wednesday, Sept. 27.
A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Merritt, 35 Brook street, North End, when their daughter, Miss Etate W., was given in marriage to Edward S. Tricarini, manager of the Ogar Box, Mill street. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. C. B. Appel, and the ceremony was witnessed by only near relatives and friends of both parties.
The young couple were unattended. Miss Merritt was gowned in green silk, and wore a large white picture hat. After the wedding a dainty luncheon was served, and later last evening Mr. and Mrs. Tricarini left on the Boston express for a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, and other cities in the States. The bride's traveling gown was of blue broadcloth. Many friends of the young couple remembered them handsomely on the happy event, and they were the recipients of a valued assortment of gifts of silverware, cut glass and furniture. Among these might be mentioned a handsome parlor suite from the groom's employer, I. S. Isaacs. On their return from the States Mr. and Mrs. Tricarini will reside at 39 Paradise Row.

Ellison-Green.

Wednesday, Sept. 27.
The home of Miss Christopher, 310 Duke street, W. E., was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday morning when Miss Evey O. Green, formerly of Kings county, but now of Boston, became the wife of Miss E. Ellison, of Queens county (N. B.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Hutchinson. There were no attendants. The bride arrived from Boston yesterday morning. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ellison left for their future home in Queens county.

Rintoul-Hammond.

Fredericton, Sept. 26.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Hammond was the scene of an unusually interesting event yesterday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Lucy Beatrice Hammond, was united in marriage to James L. Rintoul. The bride was escorted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Macdonald, pastor of the Brunswick Street Baptist church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride, Miss Hammond, during the past few years, has resided in Montreal, being a graduate from the Montreal General Hospital Training School. She was becomingly attired in cream satin and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her travelling costume was of navy blue and her hat of Austrian beaver. Mr. Rintoul is a native of Glasgow, Scotland, and now occupies the position of secretary-treasurer of the Philadelphia Water and Power Co., with headquarters in New York. The bride party left last night on the Boston train. They will make their home in Brooklyn (N. Y.).

Collins-Vanwart.

Thursday, Sept. 28.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Vanwart, of this city, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Alice Beatrice, was united in marriage to John Long Collins of Campbellton. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, by Rev. W. W. Malcolm, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Mrs. Bruce S. Robb as matron of honor, and her sister, Miss Annie Dean Vanwart, as bridesmaid. William R. Fraser acted as groomsmen. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream satin in empire style, with pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her wedding veil was a family heirloom, having been used on four similar occasions. The bride wore a black Gainsborough hat, trimmed with white plumes and touches of pale blue. Her bouquet was of pink roses. The bridesmaid's dress was of pink chiffon tulle. She wore a large black picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding supper was served. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, the parlor with palms, potted plants and autumn leaves, and the dining-room with cut flowers in pink and white. Among the out of town guests, who were present at the ceremony, were: Joseph Collins, father of the groom; Miss Susie Collins, his sister; and Messrs. Charles and Frederick Collins, his brothers, of Alma, Alberta.

county; Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks of Montreal; Miss Ollingham of Portland (Me.); Mr. and Mrs. Henri Techach of Bradford (Pa.); and Mrs. J. D. Murray of Bantouch. A large number of good friends and presents were received by the young couple. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a piano. Mr. and Mrs. Collins left on the maritime express last evening for a visit to Mr. Collins' former home in Alma before proceeding to their future home in Campbellton. The bride's traveling costume is a strictly tailored suit of navy serge, with a blue plume velvet hat. The couple left for their future home, trimmed with fringe and maroon mantle.

Trainer-Johnson.

Thursday, Sept. 28.
A very interesting event took place yesterday morning, when John Trainer, son of Patrick Trainer of Union street, was married to Josephine Johnson, daughter of Gustave Johnson, of 1 Union street. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception by Rev. A. W. Meahan. The bride was very prettily attired in a suit of grey. The couple were unattended. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends, who by invitation, witnessed the ceremony, afterward sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast. The presents, including china, silverware and furniture, were varied and valuable, attesting to the popularity of the bride and groom. J. J. Manson, milliner, with whom the bride was employed, presented a beautiful set of Linoges chairs, and the bride also received a handsome armoire from the staff of the same company. Mr. and Mrs. Trainer left by I. C. R. for a trip to Prince Edward Island. They will reside in Union street.

Power-Shea.

Thursday, Sept. 28.
In St. Peter's church, North End, yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, Rev. J. H. Bonmann, C. S. R., officiated at a pretty nuptial event, in the marriage of John Power, contractor of West End, to Miss Mary E. Shea, of Simonds street. The groom was supported by his cousin, John Power, and the bride's sister, Miss Gertrude Shea, was bridesmaid. Owing to a recent bereavement in the home of the bride, no invitations were issued, only relatives being present.
The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Vincent Shea. She was nicely costumed in a navy blue suit, and wore a white beaver hat. Her bridesmaid wore a becoming suit of tan with a black beaver hat and willow plumes. After the wedding a tempting breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Shea, 66 Simonds street. Before taking up their residence in west St. John the bride and groom will enjoy a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York. They received a handsome assortment of wedding gifts, including a valuable array of cut glass and silverware.

Wetmore-Buchanan.

Thursday, Sept. 28.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Buchanan, Nelson street, West End, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning when their daughter, Carrie G., was united in marriage to Stanley M. Wetmore, proprietor of a pharmacy in Queen street, city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Archibald, in the presence of only relatives and intimate friends. The bride was given away by her father and was dressed in white silk, with lace trimmings and bridal veil. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses.
After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore left on the Boston boat on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York and other cities in the States. On their return they will reside at 210 Queen street. Both the bride and groom are well known in the city. The groom's present to the bride was a piano. The bride also received a sterling silver chafing dish and spoons from the congregation of the Charlotte street Baptist church, where she has been a choir member for some years. Many other presents of cut glass, etc., were also received. The bride's traveling dress was of green broadcloth, with hat to match.

Neuling-Sewell.

A pretty wedding took place on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. George's church, west side, when Fritz Sadias Neuling, of this city, was united in marriage to Annie Isabella Sewell, daughter of S. V. Sewell, of Duke street, west. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Sampson. The bride was prettily attired in a suit of Royal blue, with large picture hat. Mrs. Robert Neuling, her sister, and Messrs. Charles and Frederick Collins, his brothers, of Alma, Alberta, were present.

Barton-Patterson.

Thursday, Sept. 28.
The home of Mrs. W. J. Vincent, 61 Meeldown street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last night when Miss Annie J. Patterson, of Cady's, was united in marriage to Herbert J. Barton. Miss Patterson is the daughter of John W. Patterson, and has been a nurse at the General Public Hospital. Mr. Barton is the secretary of the St. Mary's Band. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Raymond. Mr. and Mrs. Barton, who will reside at 108 Watford street, were married at 10 o'clock, and a dinner set from members of St. Mary's band.

Refrainments were served at the bride's residence, 117 Duke street, west, after the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Neuling left on the Montreal express for a honeymoon trip. Returning, they will reside in Duke street, west.

Maloney-Cahan.

Thursday, Sept. 28.
St. Rose's church was the scene of a happy matrimonial event yesterday morning at 5:15 when Miss Margaret Cahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cahan, became the bride of Leo Maloney, a popular young barber of the north end. Rev. Chas. Collins was the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Joseph Cahan, looked very attractive in a tailored suit of cream serge with black plume velvet hat and willow plumes. She was attended by her sister, who was prettily attired in Alice blue with black beaver hat. T. Harold McGuire supported the groom.

A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Ready street, Fairville, followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Maloney left on the S. S. Governor Dingley on a visit to the States. On their return they will reside in Clarendon street. They were the recipients of many wedding remembrances from numerous friends who wish them all happiness in their matrimonial life.

Keith-Vesey.

Sussex, N. B., Sept. 27.—(Special).—The Church avenue Baptist church was the scene of an interesting event yesterday morning when Miss Pearlstone Vesey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Vesey, of Apophis, was united in marriage to Charles Keith, manager of the Sussex Mercantile Company's store in Petticoat. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Alfson. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the bride and groom were a dandy and well dressed. A united choir rendered music.

The bride was charmingly given in white embroidered net over white satin with pearl trimmings, and she wore a white beaver hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nell L., who was becomingly attired in mauve satin with pearl trimmings. The bride's going-away costume was blue velvet with black hat and willow plumes. The groom was supported by his brother, Leonard, of Havelock. The ushers were Joseph Mills, Jack Davidson, Howard Kirkland and Simon Friars. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, among them a silver tea service from the members of the choir. The groom's gift to his bride was a handsome piano. Mr. and Mrs. Keith left on the evening train for Petticoat, where they will reside in their future home. At the train a host of friends gathered to see them off, and wish them good will.

Campbell-McLeod.

Toronto, Sept. 27.—At a fashionable wedding in St. James' Presbyterian church this afternoon, when John Campbell, son of C. McLeod, former general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and Mrs. McLeod, was married to Dr. Colin Campbell, of Toronto. Rev. Principal Gordon, of Knox College, and Rev. Dr. Robertson, of the church, officiated. The bride party included Miss Vivian McLeod, Miss Roslyn Campbell, Miss Jessie McMurdoch and Dr. O. B. O'Brien. The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in white, and the groom in a tuxedo. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends, and a large reception was given at the bride's home.

Correspondents who send letters to The Semi-Weekly Telegraph and who wish to have them returned if they are not printed, must send stamps for return postage.

The York and Cornwall mills are still in the hands of the St. John shareholders, and there is a possibility that the transfer to the Canadian Cottons, Ltd., will not go through. It is said that the Montreal company practically entered into possession and not finding the conditions as they understood them to be, withdrew from the contract. A local shareholder who has been in Montreal recently said it was true that there had been a hitch, but the differences might be satisfactorily settled.

Warren B. Watters.

Warren B. Watters, aged 10, son of F. H. Watters died yesterday morning at the residence of his uncle, W. J. Watters, of Point, N. B. He survived the illness of six months. He was a bright boy, his father, three brothers and three sisters. Rev. R. P. McKim will conduct a service at the house this evening and the funeral will be held at the St. John church, where the funeral will be held.

Mrs. Margaret McColgan.

The death of Mrs. Margaret McColgan, widow of William McColgan, occurred at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at her home in Somerville, on the Kennebec River. She was in the 81st year of her age, and had been in poor health for some time. Her husband died about fourteen years ago. She is survived by two sons and five daughters. The sons are: William McColgan of this city and Samuel McColgan of Point, N. B. The daughters are: Mrs. G. Seely of Millville, and Mrs. Walter Corbett and Mrs. William Saul, both of this city. She also leaves twenty grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from her late home in Somerville. The body will leave Millville at 1 o'clock.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 28.—Walter Swift, one of Woodstock's respected citizens, died on Sunday morning from kidney trouble at his home in Woodstock, aged fifty years. He had been in failing health for a year or more, but was able to work until a few days before his death.

He was born in St. Andrews, but had been a resident here for many years. He was a young man, and for several years was a conductor. He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter, one brother and one sister. The body was taken to St. Andrews for interment.

Mrs. Mary Dale.

Mrs. Mary Dale died on Sept. 19 at the home of her son, Harry Dale, 23 Green street, Barrie, Vermont, after a lingering illness of Bright's disease. Mrs. Dale was born in St. John, N. B., in 1827. She leaves to mourn her loss nine children: five sons and four daughters; Henry, Frederick and Nicholas Dale, Mrs. James Peck and Mrs. David Taylor of Barrie; Mrs. W. C. Wright of Edmonton, Alberta; Mrs. Herbert Gardiner of Lewisville, N. B.; Albert Dale of Boston and William Dale of Hardwick. She also leaves thirty-three grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon last in Barrie.

Alfonso Clark.

Fredericton, Sept. 28.—Word was received today that Alfonso Clark had been found dead in his bed at the Canadian House at Fredericton Junction. He was a native of Barrie, British West Indies, and had been in Canada for about three years. He was aged 19 years and had been in the employ of the Canadian Pacific some time. He was suffering from rheumatism, which developed into heart trouble. Death was due to natural causes. It is understood that the young man is survived by his parents who reside in Barrie and an effort will be made to locate them as young Clark carried some life insurance, which was made payable to them.

Joseph Henderson.

Announcement of the death of Joseph Henderson, who was killed by a train at a large number of citizens to whom he was so well known, and by whom he was held in such high esteem. To his family his death was a great blow, coming as it did about noon yesterday, entirely unexpected. He had been sick for only one day, and that with a heavy cold which had a tendency to bronchitis. The doctor was with him yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, and noticing that his heart action was not good, prescribed for him, but before the prescription was returned from the druggists he died.

Friday, Sept. 29.

A large attendance and ideal weather conditions combined to make the annual fair of the St. John City and County Agricultural Association a great success. Many people went out from the city, and automobiles and other carriages were very much in evidence. The entry list was very large and the judges had a busy day. The time was taken up with the judging, and it was found that there was not time for the speeches which were to have been delivered by some of the judges.

Celery, wheat and buckwheat were among the exhibits. One product that came in for a lot of attention was the alfalfa which was grown from the seed imported by the association. It was clearly shown that alfalfa can be successfully grown on New Brunswick soil. In the domestic science department, the preserves, cake and bread served special mention. This was a new department this year and the entry list was very large. The live stock was considered very good, and there were a great many entries. The sheep class that was not filled was the sheep class, and R. R. Patchell, the secretary of the association, said that the people of the country had gone out of the sheep raising business, and he was at a loss to explain the cause.

The judging began about 1 o'clock, and it was 5 o'clock before the work was finished. The poultry of Hiram Lemon, of the North End, was very fine and carried off a great many of the prizes.

The officers of the association were greatly pleased with the work, the different classes were filled, and consider the fair a success in every way.
