rectly-The Ferfidy of McMallen. The Montreal Gazette of Saturday published Sir Hugh Allan's sworn re-ply to the charges that have been made against the Government, based on the letters written by him to his American railway partners. This affidavit does not exonerate Sir Hugh of having subsi-dized journals and corrupted constitu-encies for the promotion of his schemess, but it completely refutes the charge that the Government, nor have we frant cally tried to torture the facts be fore the public into proofs into eviden-ces of their guilt, but have given our readers the facts as they have been harde.
