FACTS ABOUT MEN'S HATS

There are very good reasons why you should be careful about the hat you select. Your hat and your shoes either make or mar your appearance as a good dresser. Many a hat looks well on your friend but not on you.
Buy a hat to suit your face as well as to fit your head. But be sure to try a STETSON, HAWES OR COL-ENZO
and your hat worries will be over.

ness."

House of Refuge Committee Meets The House of Refuge Committee met yesterday afternoon, there being present Warden Panabaker, Rev. E.
Bohlander, Mayor Mercer, Galt, and Mayor Gross, city. While the question of the addition to the present building was discussed it was finally decided that as the year is drawing to a close nothing further could be discussed. At the next meeting of the County Council, however, the Grand Jury recommendation will be presented to the Council with a recommendation that the matter be disposed of by next year's Council. Other matters of a routine nature were discussed.

Resignation Accepted with Regret A business meeting of the Laf Lot Club was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Myra Padden, St. George Street, when the resignation of the President, Miss Doretta Leslie, who is about to take up her residence in Elmira was accepted with much regret by the Club members. Miss Padden was elected to be Miss Leslie's successor and as she is one of the Club's most active members they feel sure that she will capably fill the position. Regret was expressed at the removal of Miss Leslie from the city and the hope expressed that good luck would follow her in her new home. Miss Marian Shreiner was appointed Assistant Secretary. Following the business meeting dainty refreshments were served. Mrs.
Padden gave the girls a peak into the future by the aid of their tarot cards which was greatly enjoyed.

Handsome Quarters

"The finest swimming tank on the continent and one of the finest gymnasiums," Mr. D. S. Bowly, Crown Attorney said this morning regarding features of the Hart House, Toronto University which was opened yesterday. Mr. Bowly and Dr. J. A. Hill-and were the attendants as representatives of the North Waterloo Alumni Association.
Features of the building besides those mentioned are the assembly hall in which 300 people can dine at one time and quarters for several visiting athletic teams, all laid out along the most modern lines. The assembly hall and social quarters are open to any undergraduate and graduate of the University.

TORONTO WILL DISCUSS
VACCINATION

TORONTO, Nov. 12.—Instructions were issued by the Board of Control to-day for the calling of a public meeting in Massey Hall next Wednesday for the purpose of discussing the question of Compulsory Vaccination. This action was taken as the result of the presenting of a petition by the anti-Vaccination League and other citizens.
The discussion was more or less heated and was marked by serious charges against one of the physicians vaccinating for the Board of Health which may result, if proven, in his instant dismissal.

Preston Talking About Housing.

At a meeting of the Preston Board of Trade to consider the housing problem, a representative of the provincial commission at Toronto was present and outlined details of a general plan. The meeting was well attended and considerable discussion took place. The general impression was that something should be done at once to relieve the scarcity here of workmen's houses.

First show at the Star starts tonight at 7 o'clock. The biggest comedy program ever shown in Kitchener. Second show at 9. 11-12-1t.

Manager Jennings of the Imperial is in luck for the vaudeville bill which will be shown there next week. The headline act being John R. Gordon & Co., appearing this week at Shea's Hippodrome, Toronto together with a xylophone act and another first class vaudeville act, four in all. In addition there will be a good picture program so patrons may depend upon getting big money's worth.

Stills Found in Huron.

D. J. Kearney, of Montreal, inland revenue officer, accompanied by Inspector White, of Bruce, brought to Wingham John Gillespie, a farmer about a mile from Belmore, on the boundary road, charged with operating a whiskey still. The case was heard by Magistrate Morton, and the captured still was brought into court. It developed that liquor has been made in the locality for some time, and the increasing perfume in the neighborhood where Gillespie lives grew stronger until the officers seized both still and distiller.
Gillespie pleaded "guilty" and the magistrate imposed a fine of $250, with costs of $25.50. The accused is reported as informing the inspector that it wouldn't take him long to make this up, and they would not catch him so easily next time. The fine was paid 9.

To-day Mr. Kearney, accompanied by Inspector White, searched the pre-
