AN ENPLANATMON.

A number of our city sulseribers have comphaned that a political partizan fly-sheet was distributer at their houses along with Gmir last werk.

It is perinaps necalloss for us to bay that the Ify-shent ham au connection with Giarl and did not emanate from this oflice. It is not generfilly mulerstorn, however, chat fikir (as well as several of the other weekly papers of the eity) is delivered in 'Koronto by employis of our own earricrs. It sometimes happens-as in the present case-that lly-shects are delivered by this company along with papers. We have the assuance of the manager of that company that the political document in ques. tion was not placed within the copies of Grif, and its delivery by the same carriers was - merciy in unfortunate coincidence. We are thaukful to our subscribers for having afforded us an opporturity to investigate and explain the matter.

 now lefure the House of Commons only needs one thing to make it perfectly aceeptable to the people of Cauada, and that thing js the Governor-General's veto. His Excellency has of course not been taken into account by the Ministry, or rather, his approval has been anticipated as a matter of course. Lord Lanstowne has done nothing that wo are aware of to warrant the beliof that he will give his sanction to this plain piece of partizanship, and sign atway the liberties of the people in the face of the protests aud petitions that have been presented. The assumption to the contrary is an insult to him, aud one which we sincerely hope he will repel as it deserves

Finst Pige.-General Middloton has expressed himself as proud of his "boys," and well he may be. The gallant fignt at Fish Oreek and the brilliant charge at Batoche proved that British blood will tell wherever you find it, cspecially if the fighting forces are under the command of an officer whose persostal bravery is an inspiration, as is the case with General Middleton.

Eightir Page, -The arch-rebel Riel is safely caged, and now the interest of the alfail begins. What will the Government do with him? The Mail says the law will take its course, and every patriotic Canadian trusts the statement. But it would be too much to suppose that no political effort will be put forth to thwart the arm of justice. lime will tell.

GRII'S CANADIAN GALIJERY.

No. 10., MR. THOMAS GREENWAY, M.1.1', MANLtoma.
The burly gentleman in our sketch to day is the Leader of the Opposition in the Legislature of Manitoba. J.he dnties of his position have not yet reduced him to very much of a shadow, for although it cannot be cloubted that the Opposition in that Housc have a good and snbstantial raison d'etre, they have never found it necessary to keep up debates for fiftyone hours at a stroteh. Blr. Greenway is naturrally disposed to take life easily, and if he has never made any great stir in the Honse it is duo more to his temnorament than to the virtuo of the Norguay Government.

Mr. Greenway was born at Cornwall, Eng., in 1835, and came to Canada in 1844, where he was married in 1S60. Up to $1 S 7 \mathrm{~S}$ he resided in the township of Stephen, Co. Bruce, where for ten consecutive years he held the honorable position of lieeve. In 1579, and again in 1874, he was a candidate for the Honse of Commons, but on both occasions was unsuccessful. Itis rival was, however, unseated by the courts in 1875 , and Mr . (Xreenvay went to Ottawa where he served his country to the end of the parliamentary term. He became a resident of Manitoba in 1878, and the next year was returncd to represent the constituency of Mountain in the Iocal House. He has held the seat ever since. In politics Mr. Greenway describes himself as a Liberal.

F Albert Aiken and his combination are entertaining the patrons of Montford's Museum in a round of sensational dramas.

The combined exlabition of the Ontario Society of Artists and Canadian Academy is now open at the Art Rooms, King Street. The show is better all round than ever before, and will well repay a visit.

- The Dry Goods Association are to be consgratulated on the success of the Gough engagement. The old man cloquent did full justice to his great reputation, aud fixed himself more firmly than ever in the affections of Torontonians.

A conversazione is to be held at the Norma! School on Tuesday evening next in honor of the Right Worthy Graud Jodge I. O. G. 'J. It is whispered that Mr. Tom Hurst has an original song for the occasion that is likely to eudanger the roof.

Nessrs. Browne and Bengough's comic opera Hecuba is likely to see the foot-lights bafore long. Managers in the Old Country and the States have opened negotiations with a view to its production. Mr. John A. Frascr, Jr., has placed his clever comedy dfud led in the hands of a well-known and capable actor who intends shortly to produce it in this city.

Theratical Mratafer (aside, to dramutic: author).-Ah, here is Mrs. Montmoroncy ; this is the lady I intend for your heroinc.
Dramatic Author.-But my Jessie is described as a slightly built young girl ; this lady will weigh fourtecu stode at least.

I'lieatrical Manayer.- Quite so, dear boy, but everything is in the "malre-up" now-a. days. As you say, Miss Montmorency will weigh fourtcen stone, but she cau "make-up" to seren.

Balmy spring being uyon us, suitable underclothing is required. R. Walajer i& Sons carry a splendid assortment, and have just now some special lines to clear ont. Their white and colored shirts are anequalled.

SCOTAIE AIRLIE.

'Тононо, May 6, 1885.
Disar Wuloses,-I' ma last letter I tellit ye I was arrested on ma way hame tae ma boordin' hoose by twa idiots o' detectives, wha werc as prood o' their supposed capture as a dogcatcher powndin' some puir onfortunate innocent terrier dowgic. But whon thoy tellt me tae ma face that I, Hugh Airlic, was a born forger, wi' a string o' alictes as lang as the ten commandments tacked on tae me like the tail o' a kite-losh! Wullie, it was mair than I cud stand, my bluid boiled, an' afore I cud get grip o' masel' I up wi' ma twa fists, shackles an' a', an' gac ane o' them a whustle $i^{\prime}$ the nose that gart him stagger aff the side-
