

Notice to Company.

after such assumption, be vested in Her Majesty, on giving to the Company one month's notice thereof, and on paying to the Company the value thereof, to be fixed by three arbitrators or the majority of them, one to be chosen by the Government, another by the Company, and a third by the two arbitrators so chosen; and the arbitrators may, in such valuation, take into account the expenditure of the Company, its property, the business of the railway and other works hereby authorized, and their past and present business, with interest not exceeding five per cent from the time of the investment thereof. 5 10