

in Canada, and concerning the landing of passengers or cargoes from such boats or vessels, or the receiving of cargoes or passengers on board the same, as may be thought best calculated to preserve the Public Health, and for ensuring the due performance of Quarantine, by, and in respect of vessels, passengers, goods, or things, arriving at any port within Canada. to which he thinks it right for the preservation of the Public Health that such regulations should apply, and for the thorough cleansing, and disinfecting of such vessels, passengers, goods, or things, so as to prevent, as far as possible, the introduction or dissemination of diseases into, or in Canada, and may appoint or remove such officers as he may deem necessary for so doing, and assign, to them respectively, such powers as he may think required for carrying out the provisions of such regulations, and may, from time to time, revoke or amend the same, or any of them, and make others in their stead, and may impose penalties, forfeitures or punishments for the breach thereof; which regulations shall be notified, by Proclamation, published in the Canada Gazette, at least, twice, and the production of the copies of the Gazette, containing any such Proclamation, shall be evidence of the making, date, and contents of such regulations. AND FURTHER, that such regulations shall have the force of law during the time they respectively remain unrevoked, unless they be expressly limited to be in force only during a certain time or at certain times or seasons, in which case they shall have the force of law during the time, and at the times and seasons during, or at, which they have been limited to be in force; and that any person disobeying any such Regulation may be prosecuted for a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, as the Court may direct, or otherwise such person may be sued for the penalties contained in such regulation.

AND WHEREAS, by certain Regulations, amongst other, made by Our Governor General of Canada in Council, under, and in pursuance of the authority of the said first section of the Act hereinabove in part recited duly notified by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date on the twenty-third day of May, in the thirty-first year of Our Reign and twice published in the CANADA GAZETTE, it was provided and declared, amongst other things, as follows:

SIXTEEN,—“All vessels trading between any ports or places within Canada, and not having touched at any port or places, without the Dominion nor communicated with any other vessel which shall have arrived from any port without the Dominion shall be exempt from the foregoing rules and regulations, so far as respects the necessity of going to or stopping at an anchorage ground aforesaid; nor shall the said Rules and regulations apply to any vessel of war or to Transports or vessels having Queen's Troops on board accompanied by a Medical Officer, and in a healthy state or to any Steamer, unless sickness or death may have occurred during the passage.”

AND WHEREAS by a certain other Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed at the Session thereof held in the 35th year of Our Reign and intituled: “An Act relating to Quarantine” it is by the twelfth section thereof amongst other things in effect enacted: that all Regulations made by the Governor in Council, under the first section of the hereinbefore in part recited Act, shall continue to have the force of Law until revoked by Regulations made under the second Section of the Act now in recital.

AND WHEREAS OUR Governor General in Council hath this day been pleased under the authority and in pursuance of the said above in part secondly
