

Here's how residents spent their Christmas

Mrs. Mary Fix, Hurontario St., former reeve of Mississauga when it was the Township of Toronto, spent Christmas with friends in the Caledon Hills.

Mrs. Fix sends season's greetings to her many friends. She was unable to send cards this year having just returned home after undergoing surgery at Mississauga Hospital.

MARRIED

Bill and Linda Hopkins, who were married in October and now live in Ottawa, returned home to spend Christmas with Linda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Scheerle, Pine-tree Cres.

KAMLOOPS

Jan Erik Christoffersen of Kamloops, B.C. flew home to spend two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Halvard Christoffersen, Elizabeth Anne and Neil, Lakeshore Rd. E.

Jan, a graduate of the University of Toronto, has worked in various provinces of Canada, Australia and New Zealand as a geologist.

FULL HOUSE

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Brownell, Wilson Ave., had a full house as usual at Christmas. Their two younger girls, Naomi and Ruth are still at home and from Buffalo came their son-in-law and daughter, Gus and Vickie DeVos and son, Michael David, also the Brown-there from Oakville for New Year's.

FITZGERALD

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Fitzgerald and family, Minnewaska Trail, had as guests for Christmas and the weekend Mr. Fitzgerald's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pritchard and their three children, Scott, Debbie and Ian, of Granby, Quebec.

BELLEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Highway, Melton Dr., spent Christmas and the weekend at Belleville with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lambert, and baby daughter, Lisa Louise, who is the Highway's only grandchild. With them went their daughter, Debbie, home on holidays from her second year at York University.

GINGER

Mrs. Albert Ginger, Wilson Ave., who will be 92 in April and always enjoys Christmas, spent the day with one of her five sons, Vernon, his wife and family at Erindale.

GIBSON

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gibson, and their family of three, Minnewaska Trail, welcomed for Christmas Bob's mother, Mrs. H.R. Gibson and her son, Kent from Belleville. Other relatives who attended the happy family gathering were Mr. and Mrs. William Muirhead and family of St. Catharines.

FAWCETT

Mr. and Mrs. Allan V. Fawcett, Bruce and Paul, Mineola Gardens, spent Christmas at Barrie with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fawcett and their little daughter, Jennifer.

SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smith, who lived for many years at "Tralee" Mineola Rd. West, and are now of Oakville, were hosts Sunday at their lovely home for census takers for the annual Christmas bird count held every year at this time by the South Peel Naturalists' Club.

CANCER SOCIETY

During the hustling, bustling busy days before Christmas, many silent but important acts of kindness and mercy are carried out by busy people, most of them mothers of growing families.

Such was the case with members of the Port Credit branch of the Canadian Cancer Society. The executive met at First United Church the Monday before Christmas under convenership of Mrs. Pauline Sheridan, to pack gift boxes for cancer patients in the area.

QUEEN ELIZABETH

Another act of kindness which should not go unnoticed was that of the children of Queen Elizabeth public school. Under leadership of the Students' Council, the children collected money and groceries, did their own shopping, packing and decorating then delivered hampers to needy families. Some of the classes packed one and the senior classes two and all contained a complete Christmas dinner for a family.
