Cancer Society meeting

The Erindale Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society recently hosted the annual meeting of the South Peel Unit, at the Erindale Community Hall.

Mrs. Helen Cummins, director of activities for the unit and former president of the Erindale Branch, chaired the meeting.

Mrs. Anne Farkas, vice-president of the Unit, presented pins to the presidents of each branch, including Applewood, Clarkson, Cooksville, Erindale, Lorne Park and Port Credit. Mrs. Farkas was given a gift by Mrs. Grace Shunk on behalf of the unit for her work in the Society.

The guest speaker was Miss Doris Brown, who spoke of her particular work in the social service department at Princess Margaret Hospital.

After a brief intermission, Jack Lambert, field secretary of the district, chaired the nominations and election of officers for the coming year in the unit.

Mrs. Helen Cummins was elected president, Mrs. Ruth Staughton (a former president of Erindale) was elected vice-president. Mr. R. O. Geddes was re-elected treasurer and commemoration funds chairman as was Mrs. Doreen Deans to the campaign chairmanship.

Other re-elections were: Mrs. Lillian Wright as education chairman; Mrs. Grace Shunk as service-to-patients chairman; and Mrs. Ruth Staughton as publicity chairman. Mrs. H. C. McCallum of Port Credit was elected as social convener, Dr. W. L. Richards as medical advisor, Mrs. Peggy Wood as transportation convener and once again dressings convener was placed in the hands of Mrs. Ida Sproule.

Mrs. Helen Cummins thanked the ladies of the Erindale Branch for hosting the meeting and also wished their new president, Mrs. Elsie Leppan, much success in her coming year.
