Ottawa, April 26th, 1932.

My dear Roy,-

I must apologize for not calling you as promised yesterday. I was in the office only for a short time and had rather a hectic day. When in I had a note to call you but it slipped my mind.

I expect to be home on Saturday again, and if not, Sunday noon. I will then give whatever time you wish. Probably it would be worth while to write me in the meantime.

Yours very truly,

E.R. Clark, Esq.,
c/o Harold F. Ritchie Company,
