

Q. What disability have you got?

A. Well, I had a tree fall on me back about six months before I got in the Army.

Q. Where were you all the time that you were absent?

A. I was home, sir.

Q. What were you wearing?

A. Well, I was wearing my uniform, except my pants, so I wouldn't get them dirty.

Q. What led you to come back and surrender yourself?

A. Well, I figured I was all right by being home and I didn't get no letter and nobody was there. I just found out I was A.W.L. when I got back.

Q. How did you find out you were A.W.L.?

A. I was down town to get some cribbing for the well and when I got home my wife said the Provost had been there.
