

Third Witness (cont)

^{Defence}
~~Prosecutor~~: Did you know anyone there?

A: No.

^{Defence}
~~Prosecutor~~: Did any of those articles come from there?

A: No.

^{Defence}
~~Prosecutor~~: How did you acquire this property?

A: It was given to me.

Defence: Did you ever do anything for any of the men?

A: No sir - other than street bicycles or kicks for men or leave.

Defence: Was you given all the property? for doing nothing more than that?

A: Yes - it was done as an act of kindness by benevolent Canadian.

Defence: Was all this given to you openly?

A: Yes.

Defence: Was it brought to you quite openly?

A: Yes sir - in full view of other men.

Defence: Have you seen all these articles before?

A: No, some of it I have seen noticed before the police investigated. Some of it was found behind the black-out screens and on the cupboard. Some of it was left on the scullery table from time to time and I have no idea who left it.
