

tiful letter of Mgr. Larocque to Mother Caron ;— paralytic stroke ;— she visits at different houses ;— at the Deaf and Dumb Institute ;— her respect for Superiors ;— her love for the Rule ;— being unable to do anything else, she knits ;— she goes to take care of Sister Zotique ;— at the St. Joseph's Refuge ;— her last pleasures ;— her last hopes ;— she awaits death.

CHAPTER XIX

AUGUST 13th 1888

DEATH OF MOTHER CARON. 239

The death of the just is precious in the sight of God and also in that of men ;— those who have given edification during life should edify in their death ;— first crisis ;— the lesson given by the dying ;— Sisters vie with each other in tending the dear patient ;— her spirit of prayer ;— dialogue with Sister of the Immaculate Conception ;— a complication ;— Extreme Unction ;— last Viaticum ;— it brings peace ;— from the Asylum to Fullum Street ;— inauguration of the Infirmary ;— example to those who will suffer and die there ;— the 3rd of August, another alarm ;— 7th August, a new crisis ;— the 8th August, Father Caron says Mass for her ;— the evening of the 13th ;— her agony ;— the Te Deum ;— she expires ;— the remains are exposed ;— coincidences ;— the newly professed in presence of the dead ;— the funeral ;— in the cemetery at Longue Pointe.