RULE II.

Officers chosen.
President and Vice-President

FOR the better regulating this Company, a President and Vice President shall be appointed at the annual meeting in February; they shall be chosen in the following manner: every member shall put the names of the persons he wishes to propose, on a slip of paper, fold it up and give it to the President, and after all are collected he (the President) shall open them, and whoever has the majority of votes shall be declared duly elected. A majority shall be decisive in all cases, except that of filling the Office of Secretary, and the admission of a member: the Secretary shall be drawn for by Lot, and he who draws Number One shall serve or pay a fine of Five Shillings; but, should he decline serving, it shall devolve on Number Two, and so on, every member refusing to serve, paying the aforesaid fine; the President to draw for absent Members, those who have acted as Secretary or paid the fine, shall be exempt from serving again until it has been through the whole Company. The admission of a member to be decided by Ballot: four dissenting voices or Black Beans to preclude the party.

Secretary.

Admission of a Member.
