

ARTICLE VI.

MODE OF DECIDING UPON STATUS OF ANY ATHLETE.

In the event of any application for a decision of the Executive Committee upon the applicant's status as amateur athlete, it shall be the duty of the President to appoint a sub-committee of three to investigate the case. This committee shall report within ten days to the Executive Committee who shall thereupon take such action as they deem proper and just in the premises.

Upon application from any Club, a member of this Association, asking for a decision of the Committee upon the status of any individual, a Committee shall be appointed, and report, as specified above, and the decision of the Executive Committee be duly transmitted to the enquiring Club.

Each person whose amateur standing is being investigated, shall receive twenty days notice, if a meeting is to be called at which his case will be decided, so that he may be present should he desire it and submit his own statement. He must also answer all questions asked him by the Committee.

The Executive Committee shall have power to decide on any particular case by correspondence, if so recommended by the Sub-Committee.

The expenses attending such investigation shall be borne by the Club or individual making the application.

It shall be the duty of this Committee, if they deem an entry at the Championship Meeting a proper subject for investigation, to entertain the question, irrespective of any protest being entered.

ARTICLE VII.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Reading minutes of previous meeting; reports and communications; unfinished business; new business; adjournment.
