

TORONTO
College of Music

AND

Organ and Orchestral School.

F. H. TORRINGTON, Director.

PARTIAL LIST OF STAFF,

FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS LATER

- F. H. TORRINGTON, Organist Metropolitan Church, Conductor Toronto Philharmonic Society, and Toronto Musical Festival, 1886; Fellow Society of Science, Letters and Art; London, Eng; Director.
- JOHN BAYLEY, Leader Philharmonic, Festival, and Mr. Torrington's Orchestra; Bandmaster Citizens' and Queen's Own Bands.
- J. CHURCHILL ARLIDGE, Solo Flautist, Toronto Musical Festival. Organist Carlton Street Methodist Church.
- H. L. CLARKE, Solo Cornet, Citizens' Band.
- W. O. FORSYTH, Graduate of Leipsic Conservatory of Music, pupil of Edvard Grieg, Papperitz, Zwintscher, Ruthardt, Jadassohn, Schreck and Hoffman.
- W. ELLIOTT HASLAM, R.A.M., London, Eng.; Académie de Musique, Boulogne, France; Associate and Gold Medallist of the Society of Merit, Palermo, Italy; Musical Director Toronto Vocal Society, and St. James Cathedral.
- ARTHUR E. FISHER, Mus. Bac., Trin. Coll., Toronto, Organist and Composer.
- CARL MARTENS, Graduate of Leipsic Conservatory of Music; pupil of Carl Reinecke.
- MRS. H. M. BLIGHT, Organist Elm Street Methodist Church.
- T. C. JEFFERS, Organist Central Methodist Church; Pianist, Toronto Philharmonic Society.
- A. THOM CRINGAN, Licentiate Tonic Sol-fa College, London, Eng. Musical Instructor, Toronto Public Schools; Choirmaster Central Presbyterian Church.
- PERCY V. GREENWOOD, Organist All Saints' Church.
- EDGAR R. DOWARD, Organist Church of the Ascension.
- FRED. WARRINGTON, Baritone, Director of Sherbourne Street Methodist Church Choir.
- MISS WILLIAMS, Pupil of Madam Sainon Dolby, Signor Schira, and Signor Randegger.
- All branches of Music, Vocal and Instrumental, Theoretical and Practical, taught by thoroughly competent and established teachers only.
- The New College Building now in course of erection, will contain a large Music Hall, and new three-manual Pipe Organ for College use.

TERMS from $5 to $15 per Term.

For prospectus and full information address

F. H. TORRINGTON, DIRECTOR

12 and 14 Pembroke St., Toronto.