

Was Weak and Run Down WOULD VERY OFTEN FAINT AWAY

Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, Port Elmsley, Ont., tells of her experience with

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

She writes: "It is with gratitude I tell how your Heart and Nerve Pills benefitted me.

"I was very weak and run down, had headaches nearly every day and very often would faint away, in fact, my doctor said that sometime I would never come out of the faint. It was through one of your travelling agents that I was induced to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking three boxes I am glad to relate it has been a number of years since I had a fainting spell and scarcely ever have a headache. Too much cannot be said in praise of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, for in me they have effected a perfect cure."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A gentleman was on a holiday at one of the Scottish county towns recently. Seeing a line of horse laid along the street, he asked the man in charge if there had been a fire. "No," replied the man; "we've only been practicing." Then the visitor began to quiz the brigade man. "How do you call out your men when there's a fire?" "Oh, weel," was the reply, "we jist drap them a postcard!"

Frank Darwin told me his father was once standing near the hippopotamus cage when a little boy and girl, aged four and five, came up. The hippopotamus shut his eyes for a minute.

"That bird's dead," said the little girl, "come along."

GOSSIP.

A splendid 7 1/2 x 11-inch photo-engraving of that prince of Clydesdale stallions, Baron's Pride, may be purchased through this office for 50 cents in cash, or it will be given as a premium to any present subscriber of "The Farmer's Advocate" who will send us the name of one new yearly subscriber, accompanied by $1.50.

"Some of our Canadian growers and friends (says the American Sheep-breeder) are quite anxious about the thirty-day quarantine imposed by the Government on all Canadian stock imported into the States. We believe they need have no great anxiety over this matter, and that satisfactory arrangements will be made for the importation of good, clean stock, as most of the Canadian breeders have, without serious interference with their trade in the States."

As the principal expense of raising hogs is their feed, any knowledge of how to save feed or to cheapen the same without injuring the hogs is valuable to the man becoming possessed of it. All plant growth is the cheapest that we can supply to our hogs. It is better to advise in advance the necessary information, so that it can be used when needed rather than to wait too late and then explain what should have been done two or three months previous to have provided for the present time. It is a good plan to sow an acre or two of rye pasture so that it will get a good start and be growing in profusion before the winter sets in. It will furnish a nice pasture very late in the season, as it will grow after frost and between the freezing, and then will start very early in the spring-time and will furnish a crop of grain after being pastured in the spring.

ADVICE RE SHEEP-RAISING.

Secretary Coburn, of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture, in reply to an enquirer regarding embarking in the sheep business in Norton County, wrote:

"Considering the sheep-raising investment I may say, as closely related to it, that the people of your county appear, from the returns made by her officials, to be far more partial to developing the dog industry than to sheep. For example, they report to this office, under oath, that in 1905 the county was cultivating 1,759 dogs and 152 sheep, and in 1906 had increased the dogs to 1,774 and reduced the sheep to 142.

There is probably no part of the world naturally better adapted for sheep than Norton county, Kansas, and every farm in the county should profitably maintain a flock, but I could not counsel embarking in sheep in any agricultural community or in any county which shows a preference of 1,300 per cent. in favor of dogs. Where dogs are regarded as so much more desirable than wool, and mutton, and lambs, the sheep industry and the sheep owner have about the same chance for prosperity as a snowball in hades.

The average Kansas canine (your Bob and Fanny, and my Tige and Togo always excepted, of course), is a worthless, sycophantic, lawn-defiling, flea-breeding, fly-snapping porch loafer by day, equalled by no other domestic animal in habits of unspeakable nastiness; and a sneaking, murderous, cruel coward, prowling all the countryside by night, with a lust for mere wanton slaughter unknown to any wild beast, and he harmonizes with the harmless, beneficent sheep only after the sheep's flesh is inside his stomach, its wool in his teeth and his jaws dripping with its blood.

Your county, however, is by no means the greatest sinner in the matter of discriminating in favor of dogs and against sheep. One of the best counties in the State last year officially reported, from actual count, 4 sheep and 3,145 dogs; another 1 sheep and 1,636 dogs; a third 2 sheep and 2,790 dogs; still another 1 sheep and 1,211 dogs, and so on. It seems to me that the ratios are out of proportion. Either there are entirely too many dogs for so few sheep, or by far too few sheep for so many dogs.

While I would like to see many more sheep in your country, I must say that under the circumstances, as they appear to exist just now, I am somewhat timid about advising more than the most modest investment in providing them."
