NEW BOOK

The Life of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and of his Blessed Mother translated and adapted from the original of Rev. J. C. Businger, by Rev Richard Brennan A. M. New York, Cincinnati and St. Louis: BENZIGER

We have received the first number of this beautiful serial, together with a splendid steel engraving of the Resurrection, which is given as a premium to each subscriber. The work will be completed in 38 parts at 25 cents each. As to the merits of the work, we cannot do better justice than by quoting from the letter do better justice than by quoting from the letter of approbation given to it by his Lordship Bishop Walsh, who says: "Judging of it by what I have read, I am confident that this work will not fail to edify and instruct its readers and to inspire then with the love of Christ and of His Blessed Mother. I believe that it is eminently suited to the age and country in which we live. Modern Society is sick unto death, and there is no other name is sick unto death, and there is no other name under heaven that can save it except the holy name of Jesus; there is no other name to remedy its deadly disease than by eating of the tree of life, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations.' Your work will also promote the knowledge of the ever Blessed Virgin and of the place she holds in the economy of man's salvation; and for this reason, too, it is most commendable. The doctrine of the Church in regard to the Blessed Virgin is the shield of the fundamental doctrine of the incarnation of Christ and of the whole scheme of man's redemption." We hope the work will receive as liberal a patronage as it really

CATHOLIC INTELLIGENCE.

-Rev. Father Alphonsus Pelletier, S. J., attached to St. Francis Xavier's College, W. Fifteenth St., New York, died suddenly on the 29th ult., while marrying a couple. R. I. P.

-The death is announced by cable of His Eminence Cardinal Antonucci, Bishop of Ancona, which occured on the 58th ult. He was born at Subiaco, Sept. 17th. 1798. His elevation to the Cardinalate was dated March 15, 1858.

—The Government of Madrid, Spain, has authorized the Capitular Vicar (Administrator) of the diocese of Barcelona to introduce the Brothers of the Christian Doctrine into his diocese. The Brothers are at liberty to live according to the rules of their institute, and to devote themselves to the instruction of youth, on condition that no tuition fee be required from the Government, the Brother being left dependent on their own private resources and industry.

 $-\Lambda$ short time ago it was proposed in the Hungarian Congress that all the Jews of Europe should return to Palestine. The proposal met with a deserved and derisive rebuke. There is now, however, a movement on foot to have a settlement of German Catholics established in the Holy Land. The chief promoter of the latter movement is Rev. Ladislaus Schneider, who has already purchased a tract of land near Emmaus. It is said that there is room in Palestine for millions of colonists.

-Mr. Girard, the famous Indian scout, re lates that on one occasion the Berthold Indians, who had suffered from a drought, went to Father De Smet and entreated him to say a Mass for rain. The Father promised to do so if they would cease trafficking in liquor, and devote their hearts the whole of one day to the Great Spirit. The promise was given; the Mass was said, and before night it commenced to rain, and continued raining for four After that, up to the time of his death, Father De Smet's word was law with the tribe.

-Progress of the Faith in England and SCOTLAND.—The advance of Christianity in these countries during the past year is clearly indicated by the "Catholic Directory" for 1879, just published by Messrs. Burns & Oates, of London. The number of priests in England, which a year ago was 1,874, is now 1,903, an addition of twenty-nine. The number of churches and chapels in England, which a year ago was 1,095, is, now 1,122, showing an ad dition of twenty-seven. Scotland has, once more, a Catholic Hierarchy, numbering six Prelates. The number of her priests a year ago was 262! it is now 272, an addition of ten. A year ago there were 253 churches, chapels and stations in Scotland; there are now 264,an increase of eleven.

-The day appointed by the Holy Father to give audience to the representatives of the Catholic Press from all parts of the globe is the 20th of February, the first anniversary of his election. On this election nearly all the Catholic journals and periodicals throughout 229 DUNDAS STREET, LONDON, ONT. the world will be represented. Mgr. Tripepi the editor of Il Papato, has stated that he would publish a list of the journals and, periodicals represented, adding that the directors of such journals and periodicals should inform him who are the representatives chosen by them for the Pontifical audience. The numerous articles and letters received by him are an admirable testimony of the veneration and love cherished by Catholic journalists for the Holy See.

-ITALIAN PRIESTS REWARDED FOR SCIENTI-FIG LABOR.—A number of priests in Italy have received rewards or premiums at the Paris Exposition. The following are amongst those rewarden: The Abbe Zanotti, Director of the Glass Museum of Murano, near Venice, a silver medal for a collection of the best classical type Abbe Francisco Faa di Bruno, honorable men tion for his writing instrument for the blind the Abbey of Monte Cassino, a gold medal to: their publication, the Bibliotheca Cassinensis, etc.: the Mechtarists Brimenians, of Venice, silver medal for works published by them: the Abbey of Monte Cassino a bronze medal for artistic paleographic works; Faa di Brune for a new style of barometer; and Father Embriaco, of the Dominican Convent of the Minerva, Rome, honorable mention for a regulator, pendulum, etc., etc. The latter has a great reputation for his admirable invention of water-clocks, one of which adorns the Gardens of the Pineie.

NOTICE

All parties requiring Church and School furniture or pewing should send for our fi-instrated guide to Church and School furnishing and deco-rating.

The Guide contains a great deal of informa-tion, besides illustra-tions of Altars, pulpits, altar - rails, lecturns, pewing and school fur-niture manufactured by us.

As our business is ex-clusively. Church and School furniture we are enabled to manu-facture much cheape-than parties who only now and then do work in this line.

On account of its du-ribility and long con-nection with Church Architecture, we use oak lumber with wal-nut ornamentation of our furniture, and in our Catalogue those woods are always understood unless otherwise men-tioned, but estimates will be given for other woods if preferred.

When the designs for pewing are furnished by the architects, our estimates for the work will be promisely

YOUNG LADIES ACADEMY

It is a fact known to every church goer that the seats in a large majority of churches are constructed with very little regard to comfort, and that the formation of the seats is such that a person cannot sit for thirty minutes on them with out positive discomport. This results from parties making them who have never given the formation of a seat any particular thought or attention. Now this is one of the most important features to be taken into consideration in furnishing a church. If you were to purchase seats for your residence, you would get them as comfortable as possible; how much more attention ought to be paid to comfort when seating a house of worship. You seat your church but once Why not seat it nicely, and above all comfortably. If you put in an uncomfortably formed seat, it is ever a source of annoyance. While, on the contrary, if you have a properly formed and comfortable seat, it is always inviting and a source of pleasure.
