SQUARING THE EEL

John Gibson, who bred the noted Canadian-owned horse, "The Eel," has given the facts about the gray pacer, and has answered the somewhat disparaging statements made by a Michigan man, who sought to throw cold water on the horse.

In the article written by the Michigan man, and which appeared in The Horseman, signed by "Mich.," the writer states that John Gibson, some years ago, lived some miles west of Dundee, in Munroe County, and that he had a gray horse with a peculiarly wobbly gait, which got over the ground in pretty good shape, but was such a ludicrous spectacle that Gibson, who was something of a horseman, failed to have much faith in his future as a colt, and sold him for about $50 to a man who seemed to want it. Less than a year ago the purchaser seemed to lose faith in the horse, and a Canadian who happened along offered him $150. The deal was closed. Meanwhile the horse developed into a

Grants to Exhibitions.—The following amounts were given to exhibitions named below, on condition that the classification of this money be satisfactory to the representatives from this Association: Toronto, $100; Winnipeg, $25; Brandon, $25; Calgary, $25; Regina, $25; London, $25.

Each member was made a member of the Dominion Cattle Breeders' Association on payment of 50 cents per member by the Canadian Hereford Breeders' Association; this money to be donated towards Hereford prizes at the Provincial Winter Fair.

In case the grand championship at the Provincial Winter Fair is won by a pure-bred Hereford or grade, bred by a registered Hereford, all the Canadian Hereford Breeders' Association will supplement the prize to the extent of $25. The constitution was amended and adopted.

Glenloch, a colt of the yearling, illustrated in the Canadian Hereford Herdbook, was bred by Alex. Halliday, of Oakburn, Sask. He was sold to the late Mr. J. B. Beaton, of Oshawa, Ont., two years ago, and was shown at the St. Louis Exposition last summer.

pretty fair pacer, and Canadian people thought him worthy of training, although on account of his wobbly gait they named him The Eel. It has been learned that Mr. Gibson, former owner, is now residing somewhere in the northern part of the State. As to this, Mr. Gibson says:

"The facts of my connection with The Eel are as follows: I bred the gray stallion now known all over the world as The Eel 2:02½. He was foaled in 1902, and while a weanling I drove Belle Bidwell, his dam, to Deerfield, and she showed so much action and speed that Joe Bragg, owner of Gambolier, sire of The Eel, became anxious to own her colt by Gambolier, especially as Belle Bidwell was then known as the dam of Henry C. Smith 2:16. After some dickering, I sold the colt to Bragg for $90 and the service of Gambolier (the service that resulted in The Eel) to Belle Bidwell and one other service to Belle Bord, dam of Belle Bidwell. The colt at that time was as pretty as a picture, and was not over half-broken, but was a natural pacer, and as pure gaited as any colt I ever set eyes on. After Bragg got him he had him registered and named him Silver Joe. Along in the spring of the winter—anyway when the colt was a yearling—there was a fair at Deerfield, and Bragg attended the sale and became acquainted with Frank Ennis, of Oakburn, Sask., Canada, and Ennis bought the colt for $100. He then named him Glenloch, and he is now known as Glenloch 2:02½."
