VI. And whereas it is necessary that prompt and implicit obedience should at all times during the raging of a fire, be paid to the directions of the Firewards: Be it further enacted, that the said Firewards respectively,

Firewards may compel persons present at a fire, to form lines for conveyance of water.

or any or either of them, shall have power, and they and every of them are hereby authorized when such necessity shall exist, to require and compel the persons present at any fire, to fall in and form the lines or ranks for the conveyance of water for extinguishing the fire, and to remain in such ranks as long as may be deemed necessary; and if any person present at a fire shall refuse to fall in or remain in any such rank when thereunto required by any Fireward, such person so offending shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay the sum of Forty Shillings, to be recovered, levied and applied, in the manner specified and provided in and by the fifth Section of this Act.

Persons refusing to fall in or to continue in ranks, shall forfeit 40s to be recovered and expensed as by § 5.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Firewards, or any two or more of them, are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time, and at all seasonable times in the day time, to enter into any house, shop, or other building, within the limits of the said Town, and to examine and inspect the manner in which any stove or stove-pipes are set up, placed, fixed or carried, or any hearths, fireplaces or chimnies, constructed or built, and if such stove or stove-pipes, or such hearth, fireplace or chimney, shall be found, in the opinion and judgment of the said

Firewards, or any two of them, may at seasonable times in the day time, enter any building and examine stove, fireplaces and chimnies;

and if such stoves, fireplaces or chimnies, are so fixed or con-
