

Pay Will Be The Same

Men selected under the Military Service Act will receive the same pay as those now on active service receive. Pay will start from the time a man reports for duty. Money from the Patriotic Fund and Separation Allowance will also be available for selected men.

Canadian soldiers are well paid. The fact that wages in Canada are generally higher than those paid in Europe is recognized in the system of remuneration for men on active service. Clothing and all equipment in addition to food is also supplied to the Canadian soldier, leaving him with no expense except personal incidentals.

The rate of pay for men in the Canadian Expeditionary Force, other than commissioned officers, is as follows:

Rank	Pay	Field Allowance
Warrant Officer	$2.00	20 cts.
Regimental Quartermaster, if not a Warrant Officer	1.85	20 "
Quartermaster-Sergeant	1.80	20 "
Orderly Room Clerk	1.50	20 "
Orderly Room Sergeant	1.50	20 "
Pay Sergeant	1.50	20 "
Squad, Batt., or Co. Sergeant	1.40	20 "
Company Sergeant or Staff Sergeant	1.40	20 "
Squad, Batt., or Co. Q.M.S.	1.35	20 "
Sergeant	1.35	15 "
Lance-Sergeant	1.10	10 "
Corporal	1.05	10 "
Lance-Corporal	1.05	10 "
Bootsmith, or Second Corporal	1.05	10 "
Transporter, Baggage, and Drumsman	1.00	10 "
Private, Gunner, Driver	1.00	10 "
Supper, Butcher, etc.	1.00	10 "

As in the case of those already gone overseas, Separation Allowances will be available for those dependent for livelihood upon selected men. The Separation Allowance is $20.00 per month for the rank and file, $25.00 for sergeants and staff-sergeants and $30.00 for warrant officers. The experience is that many men can afford to assign half their pay to dependents, in addition.

A considerable number of men who have enlisted in the Canadian forces have found themselves better off under the army rate of pay, which is granted in addition to board, lodging, clothing, equipment, transportation, etc., than they were while in civilian positions. Their wants are provided for, and they receive a steady addition to the bank account each month.

Issued by The Military Service Council.
