

J. R. ANDERSON U. F. O. CHOICE AT NOMINATION

Leading Farmer and His Mountain View Estate is Model of Efficiency

CONSERVATIVES MEETING Will Select Candidate Today—H. H. Horsey Already Chosen as Liberal Candidate

Mr. James R. Anderson, of Mountain View, was on Monday, at Picton, the unanimous choice of the United Farmers' organization to contest the riding of Prince Edward in the approaching general election for the Commons. Messrs. E. B. Purtille and R. W. Ireland were nominated but withdrew. The convention was largely attended by representatives from all parts of the county.

The Progressive party's nominee is one of the best-known of the members of the U.F.O. in the eastern part of the province. He is a leading farmer of the township of Ameliasburg and has been the vice-president of the U.F.O. in this district.

He has been identified with the movement for a considerable length of time and his selection to carry the United Farmer standard in the rural county of Prince Edward is no news to those who are acquainted with present day events in this section.

Mr. Anderson is a leading dairy man and has occupied high office in the Eastern Ontario Dairyman's Association. He has been outspoken on matters pertaining to the present farmers' movement and has contributed to the agricultural press.

His farm at Mountain View is a model; there it is that he carries out in detail the principles in which he believes. That a farmer can practise scientific agriculture with financial success has been very clearly demonstrated in his case.

Today the Conservatives are in conclave at Picton, considering the selection of a candidate to carry their principles to the polls. It is expected that the choice will fall on Mr. John Hubbs.

Mr. H. H. Horsey of Cressy was some time ago chosen by the Liberals of the riding.

Woman As Candidate

DURHAM, Ont., Sept. 27.—At the U.F.O.-Labor convention held here yesterday, Miss Agnes C. Macphail, of Ceylon, was selected as standard-bearer of the South-east Grey U.F.O. Political Association at the next federal election. The convention was unique in the history of politics in this riding. During the twenty minutes of the time allowed for nominations, 25 candidates were proposed and every one made a speech. Eleven candidates declared their intention of fighting it out and it took five ballots to decide a winner, the fortunate candidate beating out her opponent, Henry Shaw, of Markdale, on the final ballot, 84 to 67.

Receives License As An Embalmer

Mr. James F. McComb, who has been for some time in the employ of the Tickell Company, undertakes and embalmers, today received a license to practise the art of embalming in the Province of Ontario. Recently he passed his examinations before the Board of Examiners of the Embalmers' and Undertakers' Association at Toronto with very high honors. He learned the art with Tickell & Sons Co.

The newly qualified embalmer is a veteran of the Great War. He joined up with the 80th Battalion in the early days of the struggle and served for three years. He was in France and Belgium for the greater part of that time. He chose as his vocational course that of embalming under the direction of the Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment Commission. His course has been highly creditable, as the results of the examinations show.

GUARD THE CHILDREN FROM AUTUMN COLDS

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next cold and wet and unless the mother is on her guard, the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mothers' best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE CASE OF "BUNNY"

Editor Ontario:—

As we have heard so much of late of a six-year-old boy called "Bunny," kindly permit me to answer enquiries made by the public in regard to this case. He has been under our notice for some considerable time, first at Tweed, then at Point Anne, and for the last few months at Belleville. The father is an employee at Point Anne. We have done all that can possibly be done in the case to have the boy placed in the proper institution for the care of such cases. But both the Hospital for Epileptics at Woodstock, and the Hospital for Feeble-Minded at Orillia will not accept any patients under eight years of age.

We have no place or institution in the Province of Ontario, to our knowledge, where this boy can be placed. The age of admittance should be reduced to six years of age. But until such is the case the parents are responsible to care for him, although they have, I understand, nine others to care for. May I quote from a paragraph of a letter received from the department, December 21st, 1920: "We have not made any provision for looking after nursing five years of age. He should be with his own parents and the state should not be asked to accept parental responsibility when the parents are alive and able to do it themselves;" and also from a letter received June 13th, 1921: "I cannot imagine this case quite as bad as you paint it. Surely a baby five and a half years old can be controlled by his parents or somebody who would take an interest in him."

The Chamber of Commerce, some of the Doctors, the Social Workers, Chief of Police, and societies and private individuals have endeavored to have the boy taken care of but without success. The statute says No, and it appears we cannot alter it.

SCHOOL FAIR AT CANNIFTON EVENT OF YEAR FOR KIDDIES

Fathers and Mothers Take a Great Interest in Results of Judging—Parades, Speeches, Exhibits and Refreshments—Thrills all the Time.

Cannifton was on Tuesday the Mecca of hundreds of the farmers of Thurlow, the annual school fair for the township proving the attraction. From eleven-thirty in the morning until after five o'clock in the afternoon the proceedings absorbed the attention of the crowds, which came from all the quarters of the compass by motor and by carriage. The vicinity of the grounds was in every way indicative of the fact that there was something of intense interest about the north end of the village. Motors lined the sides of the high-ways and flooded over on the grounds, so freely that it is probable that in future the grounds will have to be restricted to the people alone so great was the jam on the school lot.

Most interested of all were the scholars, for their exhibits were entered in various competitions, but scarcely less interest was shown by the parents and by the brothers and the sisters of the exhibitors. The teachers were by no means the least interested.

The various schools of the township made a fine showing in the parade, the contest being very keen, as the judge, Mr. A. D. McIntosh, District Representative, showed by the standing made by the competitors. The awards were as follows:

First—S.S. No. 6, Cannifton, Miss Cowan, teacher.

Second—S.S. No. 19, Roslin, Miss Arkes, teacher, and S.S. No. 17, Roslin, Miss Tummon, teacher, tied for second place.

Third—S.S. No. 1, Front of Thurlow, Miss Abar, teacher, and S.S. No. 11, Fourth of Thurlow, Miss Brown, teacher, tied for third place.

Fourth—S.S. No. 3, Second con. Thurlow, Miss H. Sills, teacher, S.S. No. 16, Fourth of Thurlow, Miss Young, teacher, and S.S. No. 4, Second con. Thurlow, Miss Anderson, teacher, all tied for fourth place.

Fifth and special—S.S. No. 7, Third con. Thurlow, Mr. C. Weaver, teacher.

Cannifton school had the largest turnout in the parade and carried off the first award. The scholars of this school wore special decorations of green and pink. The Roslin school children with their hoes and rakes showed decided originality along with those of Plainfield, the boys of the latter carrying corn and the little misses, rakes.

Public Speaking and Choruses

Public speaking is not neglected on these occasions and considerable attention is given to this. S.S. No. 1, Front of Thurlow, won first place, with Plainfield second.

Mr. McIntosh took occasion to address a few remarks to the assembly, drawing attention to the value of drill and of public address. He stated that the township of Thurlow was to be congratulated on the magnificent showing it had made in entries of stock and other classes.

"As time goes on, less will be given for races and more for other competitions," he said.

The choral work was particularly well done, the prizes being awarded as follows: First, Plainfield, S.S. No. 17; second, Roslin, No. 17, and Thurlow, No. 4.

Exhibits

Calves and colts, sheep and pigs, raised by the youngsters showed evidences of the solicitude of the children. There were a number of fine calves and the ponies and colts would delight any boy. Poultry was not forgotten, and the household cat and the faithful dog were there. The latter appeared to ride in state in cages decked with ribbons. Gaily decorated carts perambulated the grounds, some filled with pumpkins of mammoth sizes, all the product of the garden plots cultivated by the young idea.

On and on the tables there were vegetables and roots and flowers that would be the envy of almost any fair exhibitor. In the school entrance were cakes and pies, which show the careful training in the art of house-keeping the young maidens of this section of the country are getting, at the hands of their mothers.

In the interior of the school and at a dozen places on the lot were to be found the exhibits of the children. Everything was in their hands and it was their day. Almost everything in which a child takes delight was there, and the adult could by a glance see that the boys and girls of today have in the main the same interest as the children of former days.

To great trouble a number of the teachers had gone in order to drill the scholars and win the treasured prizes, and the results did credit to those who are educating the young of this section.

Inside the school were evidences of the art instruction the scholars are getting in the lower classes. One class of work shows the hold the practical and the utilitarian has and should have on the life of the young farmers to be.

It was in the exhibit of the model hayracks and the wagon-racks. Some excellent handiwork was apparent and the boys had a sense of the practical in their work.

One of the most interested spectators on the grounds was Inspector H. J. Clarke, who knows and is known to every child of school age in this inspectorate.

Mr. A. D. McIntosh is one to whom much of the success of the school fair in these parts is owing.

Among the racing events, were the following:

Boys' sack race—Palmer Phillips, (S.S. No. 11), Clayton Hall (S.S. No. 17), Arnold Vanallen (S.S. No. 18).

Girls' apple race—May Browning (S.S. No. 3), E. Chapman (S.S. No. 19), Carrie Sills (No. 16), and A. Turner (No. 5), tied for third place.

Three-legged race, boys—L. Bell and M. Quinn (No. 1), D. Vandervoort and M. Purdy (No. 2), E. Conolly and C. Barlow (No. 4).

Three-legged race, girls—E. Chapman and B. Reid (No. 19), Hazel Ray and Carrie Sills (No. 16), Dora Reid and Alice Moorman (No. 4).

The teachers during the afternoon engaged in an ice cream eating contest, the delicacy having been provided by the trustees, who made the contestants blush when they asked who had eaten the most cream.

The officers of the school fair were: President, J. Bush; vice-president, Grace Simmons; secretary, Percy Ray; treasurer, Mary Adams; directors, Gordon Rose (S.S. No. 11), Richard Cranston (S.S. No. 15), Orval Rollins (S.S. No. 17), Raymond Vanallen (S.S. No. 18), N. McDonald (S.S. No. 20).

Tynednaga township fair was held on Monday at Melrose and was of the same high class as the Thurlow show.

Today the Sidney exhibition for schools is on at the town hall.
