

RED STORE

Aug. 20, 1913

Seasonable Goods

and as well goods that must be used by both rich and poor, and at prices that appeal to both.

The first consideration with nearly every consumer of goods is quality and quite properly so, poor quality is dear at any price. Secondly, the desire to get good goods at right prices. Here we claim to be able to meet you.

Effectuated by crop prospects and increased consumption at this season of the year all seasons have advanced. To-day's price for finest granulated.....	$4.85 cwt.

20 lbs. for.....	$1.00
Another grade not quite as fine quality, but bright and real good.....	$4.70 cwt.
21 lbs. for.....	$1.00
Queen Brand Lever Top Fruit Jars, same quality as sold by us last season
Pints.....	$1.00
Quarts.....	$1.15
Half Gallons.....	$1.50
Tillson's Rolled Oats, large pkg. 20c.
Half bbl. Bags Tillson's Rolled Oats.....	$2.75
Ontario Meal, yellow and well kiln dried.....	$1.75
Ontario Cracked Corn yellow and well kiln dried.....	$1.75
Choice White Middlings.....	$1.50
Good Middlings.....	$1.35; $1.40
Purity Flour, guaranteed to please or we refund the price—To-day $6.50 a barrel. Also in half barrels, quarter and eighth barrel bags.
Rainbow Flour, blbls, half blbls, quarters, eighths.
Lily Pastry Flour, blbls, half blbls, quarters, and eighths.

We have reduced our price on Canned Vegetables

—OUR REASON—
1914 crop will open at a lower price than for several years and will come on the market about November 30th. We have more than we will need up to that time.

All "Little Chief" goods
Tomatoes.....14c. each.....$1.65 doz.
Peas.....13c. each.....$1.40 doz.
Corn.....11c. each.....$1.20 doz.
If in need of Fancy Groceries, Fruit, Confectionery, Tea, Coffee, etc., Meats, Poultry, Etc., give us a call.

All goods for Cash and at Cash prices.
We want choice Butter, (2 lb. flats preferred) To-day's price 25c.
Fresh eggs 25c.

Lamont & Steadman

Moirs Fresh Chocolates

All XXX Quality 40c. lb.

Twenty different varieties of these delicious chocolates to choose from. Fresh new stock. You know the quality is right, and that my chocolates are always fresh. You also know that you have paid 50 and 60 cents a pound for many of the kinds I sell at 40c. My price is only 40c for any variety I have in stock.

Choice Candy
All at one price
Only 10 cents for Half Pound

Large variety to select from, and always fresh, displayed in dust proof show case, with prices on each tag. Here are some of the kinds: marshmallows and milk caramels, assorted fudges, cream chocolates, maple walnut and pineapple fritters, assorted chocolate, molasses and coconut kisses. Price 10 cents for half pound. Chocolate and cream mixture 15 cents pound. Hard boiled mixture, 10 cents a pound.

WEAVER'S

Where you pay Cash and Pay Less in the Blanchard Building, Webster St. Kentville Nova Scotia

More's Kandy Kitchen

Anybody who stays good fruit as our fruit. If you want your appetite of our fruit. If you want a dainty treat, everyone will enjoy try some of our fruit with some of our delicious Cream. If you want something to offer your callers, our fruit will be the most acceptable offering you could make.

A. C. MORE, Prop

Telephone Connection

LOCAL NEWS

STOVE WOOD FOR SALE apply to PERRY W. BISHOP, Kentville. 1 a o Dr. C. T. Campbell will be absent from his office for the week beginning Monday Sept. 15th.

Mrs. J. W. Turner and Mrs. C. L. Baird of the Kentville W. C. T. U. are at Picou attending the W. C. T. U. Convention.

Chaplain MacIntosh of 94th Regiment, Aldershot, will preach in the Kentville Baptist Church Sunday Evening.

Miss Ella who has been at Sheffield Mills spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. David Ella returned to Ottawa this week to resume her position in the Civil Service there.

Miss Edna Gillingham and Miss Daisy McCormack, milliners at the F. J. McCarthy Parlors, returned Wednesday from attending the Millinery Opening.

Rev. C. R. Freeman formerly pastor at Aylesford, but now at Canso, has returned from a holiday trip of five weeks, during which time he visited Northfield Mass., and attended the Summer Conference there.

Town in Darkness—Wednesday night the town was in darkness on account of a breakage of one of the cast iron pins in the machinery of the Electric Light Co. The break was remedied and last night the lights were again welcomed.

Mr. T. A. Porter, of Saugus, Mass., arrived Wednesday on a visit to relatives in Kings Co. He is now the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. S. S. Strong, Main St. West.

Obituaries

STEADMAN LEE ROY SLAUENWHITE

The funeral of the young and only son of Solomon Slauenwhite, took place at Berwick, on Tuesday last, September 9th.

The circumstances surrounding his death were very sad, through an accident caused while playing with other boys, a stone or apple hit the child on the groin and resulted after three days sickness in the departure of this child of eight years into The Garden of the Lord.

The funeral was taken by the Rev. T. C. Mellor, Rector of Kentville, who spoke feelingly to the boys and girls assembled at the home, of the value of life.

The interment took place at the Oaks cemetery.

MRS. MARY EISENHART

Died at Canaan, Kings Co., N. S. Mrs. Mary Eisenhart, aged 90 years and 8 months, widow of the late Capt. Nathan Eisenhart, of Chester, Lunenburg Co. She was the daughter of Mr. James and Eunice Hume of East Chester. At the age of 12 years she was united with the Baptist Church, and became a useful earnest worker in the church, for many years a teacher in the Sabbath School. She was noted for her benevolence to the poor in the community.

The last year of her life was spent at the home of her eldest son A. R. Eisenhart of Canaan Kings County. The rest of her family are scattered abroad. There were five sons two are dead, W. H. and B. S. Eisenhart in the United States. The only daughter Emma M. Barnett a widow living in Roxbury, Mass., came on to the funeral. The Rev. A. J. Vincent officiated.

In speaking of the life of usefulness of this aged saint he gave consolation and comfort to mourners, her children, grand children and great grandchildren. Loving hands bore the remains to their last resting place in the Oaks Kentville, N. S.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. W. H. Rudolph of Garland has sold his farm to Messrs. James Bezanon and James Adams of New Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobin Lockwood of Port Williams are visiting at Berwick, guests of the latter's uncle Mr. Edwin Pierce.

Maxwell Hibbert of Berwick has returned to Truro to resume his duties as teacher in the Truro Academy.

The Glenwood Ranges, not better than the best, But Better than the Rest. Sold only by Illsley & Harvey, Co., Ltd.

Miss Bessie Landry, formerly of Kentville but now of Windsor, is spending a couple of days at her home in town, guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Landry.

WANTED AT ONCE—A good dining-room girl, also kitchen girl, good wages. Apply at ABERDEEN HOTEL.

Required, a bright active boy and girl, not under 15 who write a good hand, to work in office, and make themselves generally useful. Apply Box No 1, Kentville Post Office, s w tf.

Mr. C. R. Bill Collector of Customs Wolfville has been chosen by the Maritime Customs Association which convened at Halifax last week to represent that Association at the Convention of the Canadian Civil Association at Ottawa in January next.

Wednesday's Halifax Herald—The 66th, regiment parade this evening to receive their great coats, haversacks, etc., for Aldershot camp. The regiment leave for camp Saturday evening, returning next Thursday. A large proportion of the regiment have signified their intention of going to camp, and a large muster is expected. The camp at Aldershot this year is one of the largest held in the maritime provinces. It is to be hoped that employers of militiamen will assist by giving their men leave to attend camp.

CHAS. W. BELL

Painting and Decorating
Paper Hanging

Hardwood Finishing
sw 9ins Church Avenue, Kentville

Evangeline House

Restaurant, Board and Rooms
by day or week.

Prices Reasonable. Opposite Post Office over Yeager's Store
Special Meals and Lunches served during Camp at Aldershot.

Aberdeen St., Kentville, N. S.

Mary Garden
Talcum

$1.00 the Jar

Mary Garden
Perfume

$2.50 the ounce

Clark's

Toilet Goods
Department

We have got all the best of one of our collections

49c. each

Some are low neck and some of them

Worth from $1.15 to $2.50. Don't fail to see of these Bargains.

F. B. NEWCOMBE & CO.

YOUR

supplies for fall and winter can be bought to advantage here. There's a satisfaction in seeing goods before buying. You can not do this when you send your order away. Our prices compare favorably with any of the mail order houses. Let us submit them to you before buying.

Speaking of Tea our Blue Banner Tea is meeting with a big sale, simply because its the best tea value in the country. You may pay 35 and 40c a lb for other teas but as good. We handle but this one brand and find that in nine cases out of ten that customers once using it invariably come back for more. If you have not tried it do so at once and be convinced. 25c lb., 3 1/2 lbs for $1.00 is well stocked with the best brands of hard and soft wheat flour, corn meal, cracked corn, middlings coarse chop feed flour, oats and bran. Our prices will compare favorably with those elsewhere.

Our Feed and Flour Department

Pickling Requisites

Choice Apple Cider Vinegar.....	25c gal
Choice Pickling Onions.....	4c lb, 7 lbs 25c
Green Tomatoes.....	18c peck
Pickling Spice.....	25c lb

One price to all and that the lowest

Yerxa's

Prices Right Goods Fresh Store Clean
Aberdeen St. Kentville Phone 117

FOR SALE—Pickling cucumbers in large or small quantities.
R. M. Reid, Port Williams
Phone 106-5, Wolfville sw. 6 ins.

Mr. Young Fellow

you want a Smart Suit, a Suit with snap and go to it, a Suit that is entirely different. No "Yesterday's" for you Come and see this Suit Newness, Mr. Young Man.

R. S. McQuarrie

Merchant Tailor
Webster St., Kentville

BROWNIE

Take a

Brownie
Kodak

on your Vacation
Finest Assortment of Films and Papers at
McDougall's Drug Store