RHODE ISLAND
REDS "CHAMPIONS."

At our Kings County Poultry Show Rhode Island Reds were the largest class, and no better quality than was shown in reds, the undisputed champion bird of Canada and the United States this season is a Rhode Island red pullet which won first at Minneapolis, America's National red club show also winning 1st at Guelph Canada's largest club show, as best bird in show over 3000 birds competing this pullet, was bred and owned in Canada. This win will do much to encourage Canadian breeders to exhibit at America's largest shows already a number of Kings County breeders are expecting to exhibit at Guelph next season and why not! Kings County has the goods in a number of meat and egg producing breeds at this time when greater meat production is required our breeders are gradually doing away with the smaller and fancy breeds and taking on the larger and more productive such as Rocks, Reds, Wyandottes and Orpingtons.

Mr. Nichols Tare, and Mrs.
Laurie Sanford of Windsor have recently been the guests of W.
R. Lawrence of Lakeville.

CHURCH ST. CORNWALLIS.

The Parish Hall has seldom, if ever held within its walls, a happier gathering than that of the seventh inst., when friends met together to do honor to another of our returned soldiers.
This time it was Godfrey Watkins. The youngest of the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Watkins, who have, and are doing laudable service for their King and Country in France.
The youngest was the first into the Battle. The first to be wounded, and so very fitting that he should be first to be welcomed back home. And it was meant that a right Royal welcome he should have. The Hall was tastefully decorated by Beauty and Youth, with flags and evergreens. The Boy Scout Band of Wolfville furnished delightful music. This Band with their clever Master in the person of Mr. MacAvoy deserves and obtain great credit for what they have accomplished in the short time since their organization, and will be better known as the months go by. At eight o'clock the chair was taken by the Rector of the Parish, Rev.
S. J. Woodroffe and he in his most efficient manner became Master of Ceremonies and was ably supported by his friends.
The Rev. J. U. Bell of Canard.
Mr. Watkins upon solicitation took his place beside that of his son and the programme opened with selections by the Band, followed by a song of Miss Muriel Starr. "Spring is Coming," Miss Starr's voice never was in sweeter vein and her good news was so reassuring that a rousing encore followed and she responded with, "Ask Me," thereby captivating all her hearers.
Miss Helen Kidston was Pianist for the evening. The Feast of good things was sustained by Mrs. Bell. The Bonnie singer of Scotch Song she favored the audience with two selections each better than the "other." Make new friends, but keep the old, and "My ain Hameland." The speeches by the Clergy both interesting and instructive as well as overflowing with praise and pleasure were followed by the request that our guest of Honor should take the floor and talk for an hour if he would.
Needless to say he did nothing of the sort. Returned Heroes will not talk much from the home platform, but a soon as Mr. Godfrey Watkins stood up.
There arose such a cheer as started even the instruments in the hands of the bandmen, and with one accord band and voice awoke the echoes with,
For He's a Jolly good Fellow, by that time everybody was laughing. Then when silence was restored, in a few well chosen words our young soldier voiced his appreciation for the kindly feeling and hearty welcome he had rec'd and expressed the hope that all the Church St. lads would be permitted to return home in no worse condition than he. We were glad to notice that Godfrey has the use of both his hands but he has to return shortly to Halifax to enter a convalescent Hospital there for further treatment for the arm.
After short speeches, cheers, of bread, sandwiches, cake and Cocoa with the singing of God Save the King, and the music of the Band, this Happy evening was brought to a close with the benediction being pronounced by the Rector.

WOLFVILLE OBITUARIES.

Florence Johnson.
The sad death of Florence the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George A. Johnson, took place at Wolfville on Monday of last week. She had been ill only a week and the death is a sad blow in the home as well as to all those who knew her.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon conducted by Rev. F. J. Armitage assisted by Rev. G. F. Miller (Presby.), Rev. Wm. Ryan of Horton. The floral tributes were very pretty including offerings from the Methodist Sunday-school, the pupils of the public school, the Y'S the Pastime Club, the Give Service Girls, the Girls Club and other friends. The interment was in Willow Bank cemetery.

William F. Parker.

William Frederick Parker, died at his home, Wolfville on Sunday, March 10th. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning, early conducted by Rev. A. C. Chute, Dr. Gates, and Rev. N. A. Harkness, and the body sent to Halifax on the early train for burial at Fairview Cemetery besides his wife who died 4 years ago and his father and mother.

Mr. Parker was the son of the late Hon. Dr. Parker of Halifax. He graduated at Acadia in 1881, student law at Harvard and later practised at Halifax, being of the firm of Borden Ritchie Parker and Chisholm.

His health failed and he came to Wolfville to reside about 16 years ago. He practised law here for a short time but soon was obliged to carefully consider his health and has made a

His wife was Kate, daughter of Dr. D. M. and Mrs. Walton wife of the present Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia; and Miss Parker, who has been with her brother much of the time since the breaking up of her Dartmouth home.

A few years since Mr. Parker performed a labor of love in the writing of a voluminous biography of his father, the greatly esteemed and much beloved D. McN Parker.
