

Dress of Old People.

Old people make a great mistake when they become indifferent to personal appearance, and they neglect what is becoming in their dress.

Men especially are apt to become neglectful, not having, as a rule, the innate sense of decency that a woman is apt to retain to the end, and in consequence how many unattractive old men are seen!

SAVE YOUR FEATHERS.

Diamond Dyes will Make Your Faded Hat and Bonnet Feathers as Good as New.

It may be that some ladies are not aware of the fact that old hats and bonnets can be made to look as good as new by the Diamond Dyes.

Use the Diamond Dyes prepared for Wool and Silk that can now be bought from any dealer. Clean the feather by soaking it in strong soap-suds fifteen minutes, then draw gently between the thumb and fore-finger a number of times, and rinse in warm water, dip and re-dip in the dye-bath until the desired shade is obtained.

The next best thing to taking a summer or winter trip is to change the aspect of one's home twice a year. Such change does not imply a domestic upheaval involving great work, family discomfort and general wretchedness for a week or more.

A captain of an ocean vessel, one day as his ship was speeding through the waters, saw a signal of distress some distance off.

Catarrh Shackles

Broken in 90 Minutes. It is an alarming fact, but one that is not generally known, that Catarrh of the bladder is a disease that is often cured by the use of Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Powder.

THE WHITE RIBBON.

"For God and Home and Native Land." Conducted by the Ladies of the W. O. T. U.

OFFICERS. President—Mrs. Tufts. Vice-Presidents—Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. Borden.

Next meeting in Temperance Hall, Thursday, March 31st, at 3.30 p. m. The meetings are always open to any who wish to become members.

No intoxicating liquors are sold in Wolfville. Every bar is closed. In temperance with all its attendant evils is here a thing of the past.

On Sabbath afternoon, March 20th, the white ribbon ladies of Wolfville with a host of sympathetic friends assembled in the Baptist church to celebrate in memorial service the name and work of one dear to every lover of "God and Home and Native Land."

Dr. Jones, of Acadia University, presided. On his left were Dr. Keirstead representing the University; Mayor Thomson, the municipality of Wolfville; Mr. Hardy, the Sons of Temperance, and Mr. Hatch, the pulpiter.

The meeting, though somewhat long, was one of much interest. Dr. Jones made the introductory address. He said the 20th of March would celebrate the birthday of N. I. Dow and Miss Willard as the moving spirit for the memorial service for him on the day, but on the same day she went to the higher service. He thought of her as a deep, sweet, pure life and everybody's friend.

Mrs. Tufts pictured "Miss Willard as a Leader of Women." She had a happy childhood, a sweet voice and a fine sense of humor. The secret of her influence was that God made her for a special work and endowed her with peculiar power for organizing others for work.

After a solo by Mr. Robson, Mr. Hardy, of the Junior class of Acadia, spoke of "Miss Willard's Purpose in Life" as wide as the world. She first conceived the idea of binding together the nations of the world in true brotherhood, and rested not till the World's Temperance Union was a reality and not a dream.

CATARRH SUBJECTS

This dread malady lurks behind the most insignificant nasal catarrh, and when the seeds of disease are sown seeds away the beauty, bloom and mien of life pleasures a drudgery.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRH POWDER will cure the intractable cold and the most stubborn and chronic Catarrh cases. It puts back the beauty pink and sheds sunshine in its trail.

My wife and I were both troubled with Catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from it since we used the first application of Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Powder. It is a most wonderful cure. There is no case too old or too long standing. It is a cure—New York Dispensary, N. Y.

Services for Odd Moments.

Johnny Buggs says here lay again, the day time because at night they ask for me.

Algeron (who is much given to talking in phrases)—Angeline, I love you like a fever—a fervor—a fervor worthy of a better cause.

Patience—What is the cheapest-looking thing you ever saw about a bargain counter? Patience—A husband waiting for his wife.

Minards Liniment Cures Colds, etc. She—So you don't like the hat just in front of us. How would you like it trimmed? He (savagely)—With a lawn mower.

There is a man in Hamilton who has such a good wife, that in all his married life he can't remember that she ever found the salt cellar on the table empty once.

Willie—Ma, can people leave parts of themselves in different places? Ma—No; don't be ridiculous. Willie—Well, Mr. Sign said he was going to Arizona for his lungs.

Billie—I had an awful scare the other day while out for a walk with Will. Betsy—How? "Why, we met the minister, and Will asked him to join us."

Little Miss Muffet—I don't thupette I ought to go around all alone with a gentleman like you, Mr. Dunkey, but I can't. It's all right. The donkey is as good as most chaps.

Miss Outertown—Isn't there a Mrs. Skinner in this village, who keeps household? Hi Hubbs!—She takes board, ma'am; but she don't keep 'em.

"I'll not go hunting again with Jonathan," said the groom to his bride. "Isn't he careful with firearms?" "Worse than that. He has the biggest stock of old stories of any man in town."

"You'll never have another offer like this," he said, as the maiden uttered him. "Thank you," she replied. "I'm afraid you were going to say something disagreeable."

"I cannot stand this any longer. This is the trouble with my apprentices. Your stupidity is such the both of us cannot stay in the same place." "Well, please, sir, I don't want to go said the apprentice, simply.

"Oh, oh!" moaned Mrs. Woola, who was suffering from a decayed mole, "why aren't people born without teeth, I'd give to know 'if 'Why, my dear, exclaimed the husband, "do you happen to know any one that wasn't?"

"Richard," asked the teacher, "what was the message Gen. Sheridan sent to Gen. Early before the battle took place?" "He said," replied the big boy with the bad eye, "Go, Early, and avoid the rub." "And merely for this the key him in after school."

Minards Liniment Cures Gout in Cows. "What is the trouble, Maggie? I see look worried." "Sure as the trouble is with the cow. One of them is crazy because it swallowed his rattle, and the other is bowled out of sympathy, and having the two of them, he can't be which one swallowed the rattle."

Colpitt—Yes, sah, I tuck de chicken. I was gwine tuck make a chicken pie and tuck de cork book and read, da drink and it say, "take one chicken." He don't say buy one chicken, or buy one chicken. He don't say whose chicken take, so I just tuck the first one I could lay han on. I telled de other shuns in a book, sah.

"Nops," said Mr. Rockwell, as he wiped his glasses. "I'm afraid of college education ain't got to do his much good after all." "Why, Elias," his anxious wife cried, "what makes you say that?" "He admitted in the store yesterday that there was still a few things I knew more about than him."

At last, after many dangers, she had braved the terrors of the Collier's and had rejoined her lover at St. Klondike. "Are you tired to see me?" she asked. "Do you still think I am worth my weight in gold?" "In gold?" he cried contemptuously as he folded her in his fond embrace. "My darling, you are worth your weight in bush."
