One of the Great Feats of Warfare.

General Maurice, discussing the impressions received on his tour of the Italian front, says:
"The visit has given me a greatly increased respect for what the Italians have done. From the beginning of their campaign the Italians have been dominating the enemy—fighting a real uphill battle, with all approaches and communication lines in full view of the enemy. But when they reached the plateau, the situation was still difficult for they found themselves in a country where everything, even water, must be brought up with great physical exertion.
"The Italians, now for the first time, have gained a position where they dominate the Austrians. But the advance is still difficult, and con-

Two Cases of Eczema and How They Were Cured

Further Proof That Dr. Chase's Ointment is a Positive Cure for Chronic Eczema.

If you read these letters you will find that Dr. Chase's Ointment is not to be classed among ordinary ointments by actually curing itching, stinging eczema in many thousands of cases. Mr. J. Boyce, Temperance road, Ferry Sound, Ont., writes: "Just a line to praise Dr. Chase's Ointment for what it has done for my wife. She has been suffering with eczema on her head for two years, and has spent no end of money with doctors and for ointments, which did her no good. She had about given up hope when she read of Dr. Chase's Ointment. By the use of this ointment the trouble had left her entirely, and I have had unbounded faith in it. I have told several people about the Ointment and they all praise it." Mrs. W. G. Deane, Greenwood, Nova Scotia, writes: "I was troubled with eczema on my hands and feet for eighteen months, and I could not see a doctor or get any relief. I had tried every ointment I could get, but I could never get any benefit from them. I went for a sample of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and found it very different from the others. It was not long before my hands began to heal, and four 50c boxes made them well. I cannot praise Dr. Chase's Ointment too highly, and frequently give some to others to get them using it, for I know that it will cure."
In the home Dr. Chase's Ointment is of almost daily usefulness for relieving itching and irritation of the skin in various eczema and similar itching skin diseases. Applied to all cuts and sores, it prevents blood poisoning and heals the skin. Dr. Chase's Ointment for sale by all dealers. Dr. Chase, Boston, U. S. A.

Justice to Premier Borden.

Under the heading, Justice to Premier Borden, the Canadian Courier prints an article by Professor Mac Mehan, of Halifax.

The Halifax writer thinks that the country should avoid party bickerings and all the injustice involved in the political 'hubbub of lies,' and look at the situation from the standpoint of patriots. He says:—
"Let the Administration of Sir Robert Borden be judged by what it has accomplished—as it will be by the future Macaulays of Canada. In the United States the late President McKinley's Administration, in 1897-1901, was the most successful of any since the Civil War."

'Ralph Connor' in the Synod.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces met in session at New Glasgow last week. There were some 300 delegates in attendance. The Enterprise says: The different sessions were all full of interest, but to our mind the greatest event in all the Synod's meetings was the address of Mr. Rev. Charles Gordon (Ralph Connor) who is home from the front. He poured out of his heart and his soul and his life what he had seen and taken part in the most stupendous events that are taking place, since the crucifixion of Christ on the Cross. This the message of Rev. Charles Gordon, as he told of the boys who are living and dying with their faces to the fire, on the border land of the eternal verities.

The times are dark and festal, but the spirits of the boys at the front are undimmed, and they feel that the great forces which ever roll on in their majesty and might are on our side. Before their inward eyes rises the phantom host of those who fall in the great cause, and whose graves are scattered in endless numbers in Flanders and France, but whose names and memories in the mother heart of Britain are secure for evermore.
He told of the passion of devotion and the wealth of sacrifice that abounds in this war of souls. One thing the Germans forgot—that this war will ultimately be won by the courage of those whose conscience are clear.

There is abundance of the essence of religion at the front. Distinction of Catholic and Protestant have disappeared. Two things are in the boys' creed at the front. The first is that 'God is around somewhere,' and the second is—'We will do our duty even unto death.'
The Chaplain's duty is to look after the bodies, the tempers, spirits, faith, and keep them fit and steady. The greatest Chaplain at the front is 'Charlie Chaplin.'
The men feel that God is near. He is kind and good. Trust in Him, give him your confidence, and he will help. They all feel that a great, good sympathetic God is over and near them. In St. Man's Laid 'The Lord is My Shepherd.' Yes, he had seen the thing work.
The most wonderful thing in this war is the sympathy and kindness

"Let Me Help You Carry the Burden, Mother"

"If Canada fails us in October, we must curtail many of our activities."

Mr. ARTHUR STANLEY,
Chairman, Executive Committee,
British Red Cross.

It now costs $300,000.00 a week to carry on the work of the British Red Cross, or $16,000,000.00 a year. Every minute of the day and night it costs $30 to minister to the sick and wounded and dying. Last year Canada's magnificent contribution paid for the entire work of the British Red Cross for nearly seven weeks. This year, in view of the greater need, it is earnestly and confidently hoped that Canada's contributions will be as great proportionately as the magnificent offering of last year. Our trust is, that the Citizens of Canada will give generously to this noble cause on

"OUR DAY", OCTOBER 24th

A Few Facts about British Red Cross Work.	IN GREAT BRITAIN	$220,000 spent on equipment of King George Hospital (1,350 beds) and $130,000 a year contributed to cost of its maintenance.
The British Red Cross Society is the only institution which carries voluntary aid to the sick and wounded of the British forces on land and sea in every region of the War.	57,000 Hospital beds found in the United Kingdom.	$225,000 spent on building and equipping Netley Red Cross Hospital (1,700 beds); and $625,000 spent on maintenance.
Its work is therefore the concern of all classes of British subjects, whether living in the British Isles, in the Dominions and Colonies beyond the seas, or in foreign countries.	30,000 of these provided with Nursing Staff.	$175,000 for Orthopaedic Curative Workshops and Training Fund.
	2,000 Trained Nurses working at home and abroad.	$185,000 for Facial Injury Hospitals.
	7,500 V. A. D.'s helping in Army Hospitals.

and comradeship and brotherhood of the trenches. This is worth going to France for. God placed the British Empire in the seven seas to bless a world with liberty and honor and humanity. He closed with powerful dramatic force with a quotation from Psalm 72:14—'And precious shall their blood be in His sight.' I never knew how red the blood was till I saw it streaming down the wounded bare bodies of the men, and I never realized how precious is the blood till I saw the cheeks of the dying grow whiter and whiter as their life blood ebbed away. Just common men to the hearts of the common men there is something like God. God's tenderness is seen in the tenderness of comrades for comrades. It is worth while going through this Hell, to see how good the men are.
