MALLOY-CHRISTIE

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. H. Christie, on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Marguerite Christie was united in marriage to William Walter Malloy, of Halifax. Dr. A. C. Chute performed the ceremony. The bride, who looked charming in a gown of white brocaded satin with the conventional veil and carrying a bouquet of roses and carnations, entered the room to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Lillian Malloy, of Halifax. Little Marion Moore, also of Halifax, made a winsome little flower girl.

During the ceremony Mr. R. George sang "Oh Promise Me". Amid the good wishes of friends the happy couple left by motor for a trip down the Valley, after which they will reside in Halifax, where the groom holds a responsible position in Crane Limited.

The bride received many beautiful and expensive gifts, among which were a handsome clock from Crane Limited, a substantial cheque from Phinneys Limited, and a floor lamp from the staff of Phinneys, of which the bride was a member before her marriage.

Among the guests from Halifax were Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Marion Moore, Mrs. M. E. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Josey, Mrs. F. E. Jefferson, R.
