The fate in the Commons of certain measures initiated in the Senate is in doubt. Senator Lynch-Stamton is the father of a measure to compel dealers in German and Austrian goods to advertise the fact. The bill stands for third reading. That it will pass is fully anticipated, therefore it must come to the Commons for consideration.

A daring robbery was discovered in Niagara Falls, N.Y., at Amberg's, a big department store, goods amounting to $800 being stolen this morning. The robbery was discovered on opening today. It is claimed that an automobile was used and the thieves were evidently familiar with the lay-out of the store, for only the best grades of goods were stolen. The loot was made up chiefly of Men's suits, shirts, ties, etc. Of shirts nothing but silk shirts were taken.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

ALGONQUIN PARK
In the Algonquin Park of Ontario, Canada possesses a virgin wilderness within easy striking distance of civilization and city life. Here the tired business man and his wife and daughter too— can get out into the big open spaces, brush away the mental cobwebs and feel the red blood course through the veins once more. When the breathless rays and glaring heat of summer make life in the city a burden, Algonquin Park (on 200 miles north of Toronto at 1170 miles west of Ottawa) is a place of refuge and enchantment. This great reserve of nearly three thousand square miles is on the very ridge or the "Highlands of Ontario." Its altitude above sea level averages 1,700 feet while some of the lakes in the park are 200 feet above the sea. The "Highland Inn" offers comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates. Make your reservations early as the probabilities are that the available accommodations will be taken up early this season. Write N. T. Clark, Manager, Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ont., or apply for information to any Grand Trunk Agent. A-24.

Parisians Now Keep Snakes as Pets; Toads, Too

PARIS, April 24—"Seeing snakes" will be a regular daily experience of husbands in Paris if the newest craze of fashionable women here gains popularity.

A stylishly attired woman, taking tea at the Claridge yesterday afternoon, suddenly opened her handbag and carelessly unloosed a slender green and gold snake, about two feet long, which wriggled to the floor and disappeared up the trouser-leg of a terrified waiter who fainted on the spot.

Rushing to the waiter, the woman calmly extracted the pet, replaced it in her handbag, and swept indignantly out of the restaurant. Afterward she complained to the manager that her favorite reptile was indisposed as the result of having bitten a plebeian waiter.

The manager requested her to move explaining that while he had kennels and cat houses, and bird cages, and even an aquarium for his guest's pets he had neglected to provide a suitable home for snakes.

Today, however, he discovered that no fewer than five women in the hotel own reptile "pets" and refuse to part with the "little darlings" which they maintain as "perfectly harmless."

The snakes were obtained by their present owners from Mme. Phisalix wife of the inventor of the anti-snake bite serum, who is now ill as a result of her refusal to counteract a snake bite because she wanted to make a scientific experiment.

Mme. Phisalix herself, however, does not think snakes are suitable pets. She prefers toads which she says are ever so much more affectionate, never forget a kind act and what is more, contrary to the general superstition, have very clean habits.

ROCHESTER, April 24—After deliberating for eleven hours and fifty minutes a supreme court jury at 10:25 o'clock last night brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree against James L. Odell, indicted with his wife, Pearl Beaver Odell, for the murder of Edward J. Kneip on the night of January 7. Immediately after the verdict was announced Odell was sentenced by Justice Robert Thompson to die in the week of June 13.

Weighed down by the nervous strain of the trial and her own heroic efforts to save the life of her husband through a sacrifice of her own honor, Mrs. Odell suffered a complete relapse at the Monroe County Jail this morning shortly before the hour set for the opening of the final session of court. A mere slip of a girl physically, her superb carriage through the trying ordeal of the last three days was purely on the strength of her supreme endeavor to do her utmost for the man she loves.

Although the outcome of the present case may have considerable bearing on the trial of Mrs. Odell due to be called for the latter part of May, it is believed that the defense in her case will take any course as will give it a decidedly independent aspect, or present condition is such that an important event is expected before the calling of her case next month, which is expected to have an important bearing on the jury's attitude toward her. In the testimony which she gave in the trial of her husband, she did not go into the details of the actual killing of Kneip, her lawyer asserting his legal right to prevent his client from incriminating herself.

On Monday C. J. Coppen, convicted by Mr. Justice Latchford and a jury of the murder of his wife in North Toronto last fall, will learn his fate. Coppen is under sentence to hang on May 5, and on Monday the First Divisional Court will give judgement on his stated case. Coppen will either hang or will be given a new trial.

Fred. Large, a youth, to Police Court today a story sounds like some of Dickens' tales, when he charged Benson, a robust looking man, an expensive fur-lined overcoat with refusing to pay him his wages. Large said that his hours Benson pool room were from a m. to about a quarter past midnight.

"We had to clean up, you know after the place closed," said Large. He went on to say that he got off for meals and spent whole day and half the night duty. Once in a blue moon said, Benson brought him in at noon, but nearly all the time went without food until he home after midnight. The appearance went to prove assertion.
