Why are undertakers like professional pugilists? Because they are always boxing people.

The Port Hope Volunteer Rifle Company gave a concert last Tuesday evening which was a great success.

☞ Nana Sahib, instead of being dead, has occupied himself by translating Hamlet into Hindostanee.

☞ Prize fights between women are of daily occurrance in South Staffordshire, England. They strip to the waist and follow the rules of Fistiana implicity.

☞ The New York Herald wishes it to be distinctly understood that Canadians will receive no sympathy from the states in the event of Fenian invasion. Our own opinion is that it will be the Fenians who will stand most in need of sympathy.

A farmer going to get his grist ground at a mill, borrowed a bag of one of his neighbors. The poor man was knocked under the water-wheel, and the bag with him, and of course he was drowned. When the melancholy news was brought to his wife, she exclaimed—"My gracious, what a fuss there'll be about that bag!"

☞ One of the latest fashions with the ladies is wearing long ends of narrow ribbon around the neck. Few of the uninitiated know the significance of the same. When they wear the ends hanging in front, it means that "the lady is married;" down the back, that "she has a feller coming to see her, but isn't engaged;" over the left shoulder it means, "fellers, come, follow me." If she does not wear any, it means that she is "engaged, and don't wish to have anything to do with any other feller."

☞ So low has political morality sunk in the States that the New York Times thinks it necessary to praise ex-President Buchanan for refraining from the use of private correspondence in the book he has lately published, and to preach a homily upon the impropriety of public men using for partisan ends what is spoken or written in the freedom of personal acquaintance.

A very painful case was recently investigated in London. A young man was about to be married, and the thoughts of his fate filled him with exceeding great melancholy. Two days before the ceremony was to have taken place, he said to a friend,—"Oh, Edward, I wish it was over." He did not look forward cheerfully to his marriage, to say the least, and at length his "feelings" became too much for him. A few hours before he was to have crossed the Rubicon he was found dead in his bed,—no further explanation of his fate being needed than the cup of cold poison lying by his side.

HOTEL LIVING IN NEW YORK.—The proprietors of the Broadway hotels are talking seriously of raising their prices of board from $4.50 to $6 per day, not because they have grown immensely wealthy at the former figure, but because they believe they can obtain the latter rate as easily; and I believe they can. As it is, the landlords are unable to accommodate the crowds of applicants for board, and they are inclined to establish a tariff, out of pure benevolence to their guests of course, that will give their customers more room. The prices which some persons pay at the fashionable hotels are remarkable. There are families at the Fifth Avenue who give $500 to $600 a week for their mere lodging and boarding privileges, while their "extras" will reach $300 to $400 more.—[New York letter.

The following property, viz: North half of lot number 30, on the 12th con. of Goderich township, containing by admeasurement 46 acres, more or less, upon which there are fifteen acres cleared. This land is in a favorable situation, being within five miles of the town of Clinton. Also, a valuable property in the village of Kinburn, one half acre of land, a good farm house, shop, and stable on the premises. This would be a good situation for a tailor or saddler and harness maker as there is none in the vicinity. Leather or store goods at wholesale prices will be taken for either of the above places.
