The Poet's Corner.

Farming in the Moon.

"I tell ye, it's nonsense," said Farmer Ben.
"This farming by body and rule,
And sendin' the boys to learn that stuff
At the agricultural schools!
Talk theese a young fellow in!
But yer headn't be tellin' yer science to me,
For I believe in the moon!"

"If ye plant yer crop in the growin' moon,
And put up the line for crows, Ye'll find it will bear, and yer wheat will too,
If it's decent land where it grows.
But potatoes, now, are a different thing—
They want to grow down, that is plain;
And don't ye see, ye must plant for that When the moon is on the wane?"

"So in plantin', and hoein', and hayin' time,
It is well to have an eye,
On the hang o' the moon—ye know ye can tell
A wet moon from a dry."
And, as to hayin', ye know once now
Are cuttin' your grass too soon:
If ye want it to spend, just wait till it's ripe
And mow in the full of the moon.

"And when all the harvest work is done,
And the butcher's time come round,
Though yer boys may be leavin' the very best
And as for scabbies, are found, Ye will find yer back will shiver and shrink
When it comes on the table at noon—
Stried to raise—if it wasn't killed
At the right time of the moon."

"With humors, frets, and Granges now,
Folks can talk till all is blue;
But don't ye be swollerin' all yer hear,
For there ain't more'n a half-o'p true.
They are tryin' to make me change my plans
But I tell 'em I'm no such coon:
I shall keep right on in the same old way,
And work my farm by the moon."

A Midnight Alarm.

There is scarcely any fright more alarmin' to a mother than the ominous sound of coughs—so loud, at the hour of night. When Hagar's Pectoral Balsam (for the throat and lungs) is at hand, group and distressing coughs lose half their terrors. It cures coughs, asthma and bronchitis.

Fun and Fancy.

"Fella, say good-night to the government and give her a kiss." "Why not?"
"Because she'll box my ears." She did so."

"Will Ye Suffer with Dyspepsia and Stomach Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by J.
Wilson, Druggist."

A contemporary remarks: "The commonest season has now fairly run." "That is better than to say that a vigorous season had now fairly commenced."

me with the soft end o' the mop."

"Ah," said Jakobus, taking his friend's baby, "he has got his mother's eyes—and my hair," he added, as the useful prodigy grabbed him by the fore-head."

tween the countries, Canadian mammae who visit American beaches will not be that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you. For sale by J. Wilson,

A St. Louis Medical Magazine says meaning is the best method of loosening and expelling secretory substances in the air passages, and that sneezing is, in other respects, an excellent remedial process. That magazine is accused of having been subsidized by a snuff fac-tory.

Be on Your Guard.
Don't allow a cold in the head to slowly and surely develop into Catarrh when you can be cured for 50 cents.
A few applications will cure incip-
-ent Catarrh.
One or two boxes will cure ordinary Catarrh.

you.

A professional beggar died recently in Rio Janeiro and left a fortune of $200-000. A Rio journal remarks that the discovery should occasion no surprise, as it is well known that many of the beg-gars in that city are worth more than those who bestow alms on them.

How a Dude Caught Cold.
A slim young man in the height of fashion was violently sneezing in a street when a companion remarked, "Aw, Chawles, deah boy, how d'ye catch that deafid cold." "Aw, deah fellah, left me came in the lower hall tother day, and in sucking the ivory handle, so deafid cold, it chilled me almost to death." If Charles had used Dr. Har--ker's Red Pine Gum his cold would not trouble him very much. For sale at J.
Wilson's prescription drug store. If McCarthy's whitewash will not wash white.
