

BOYS' CLOTHES

Are Cheap.

This is a fact! Still we know some of our readers are going to stop and say,-"Tain't so, nuthin is cheap!" But you are wrong, and there are various things cheap to-day, but the trouble is most people don't want cheap things. Times are changed since we were boys, when the sign of a good healthy boy was to go round with,well, patches on his trousers. Accidents would occur sliding down trees and roofs, and getting over fences. But our story is,-we have just opened a range of

Boys' Am. Grey Tweed Suits,

Two-Piece Suits to fit ages 9 to 14 years. Price Range being $9.60 to $10.60.

Boys' Heavy Khaki Drill Suits,

Ages 4 years to 10 years. Only $4.90 suit, for all sizes.

These Khaki Suits will wear like a bit of iron. They are made Military Style but can be altered if required. The coat comes with four pockets, each with a Buttoned Flap, and Coat Buttons are detachable Military Metal Buttons. The Pants have two front pockets and one on the hip, and also Belt Support Straps. Consider this price of $4.90 and you will find nobody will even just make a boy's suit for that price to-day (excluding the materials), unless the boy's mother. And she will do this even if she doesn't get a vote; and who will say that a capable woman like that doesn't deserve one.

We have some other Boys' Tweed Suits in stock in odd sizes at prices of some time ago.

We have Boys' Tweed Pants in stock at low

We have even some Boys' Odd Vests in stock at the moment.

To tell the truth we purchased some of these this year, but you will find good values here spite that.

If the boy is going camping this Summer he may want an Oil Coat. We have them at last Fall's prices. Goods bought at this Spring's prices were mostly high, but the prices quoted for Fall staggered us. We can therefore advise you in all faith to buy before newer prices come Methodist Conference.

At the usual hour on Tuesday, the Conference resumed its work. Routine matters occupied attention until 10.15 when the Inter-denominational Committee representing five Protestant denominations, was introduced by Rev. Dr. Bond: Messrs. J. W. Withers, Brian Dunfield, J. J. McKay and D. Baird were invited to the rostrum and the three former addressed the Conference. Mr. Withers gave a vision of what St. John's might become, educationally, if the spirit of co-operation could displace the narrower spirit of sectarianism and di-His very sincere address impressed the Conference profoundly. Mr. Brian Dunfield, in a clear and logical way, set before the Conference the conditions facing us to-day. He referred to the "drives" of the different denominations as indicating a desire for improved schools and equipment, and feared that to carry out denominational plans separately would not produce the desired result. Referring to the report of the experts employed by the committee, he showed that our system was altogether inadequate, and quoted from the report to prove his claim. There were 1,200 children of school age in St. John's who did not attend and who could not be accommodated if they desired to go. He supported the claim of Mr. Withers that splendid results had been secured with the inadequate means at the disposal of our

Mr. J. J. McKay humorously introduced his subject and dealt with it in a very practical way. The problem was an important one and ought to be treated in an important way. The loss to the country was heavy because our young people were compelled to go elsewhere to secure education and training. His address was most attentively listened to by the Conference.

educationalists. His address was most convincing.

Several members of the Conference poke appreciatively of the work of the committee and expressed the hope that the idea could be extended throughout the dominion.

The Methodist College Board of Sovernors met again and the question of proceeding with the work of the College Residence was taken up. After a debate the resolution to postpone action was lost by a small ma-

At 8 p.m., the Conference ressembled. After the various committees had reported, the Conference paid tribute to the memory of the late Edwin Pollett Ward, who had died during the year. His devotion, conecration and high Christian characer were extolled. The loss to the hurch is great indeed.

Mrs. Dunn, wife of Rev. Dr. W. T. Dunn, had passed away during the year, and suitable tribute was paid to her memory, and expressions of sympathy extended to Rev. Dr. Dunn and

In the afternoon miscellaneous maters were disposed of. Rev. Dr. Bond was elected Conference Representative to the Ecumenical Conference in London in 1921.

Rev. J. T. Newman was elected beneficiary of the Macpherson Bequest to visit the Holy Land.
