DEFEATED BY TORONTO.

The Toronto Cricket Club, who are on a tear of the western portion of the Province, and will also try conclusions with the peroit Athletic Club towards the latter ted of the week, met the Asylum team resterday. The game was interesting aroughout, but the visitors proved trium-halt. They defeated their rivals with ine wickets to spare. Two of the chief satures of the game were the magnificent core of 94 by Terry in the Londoners' second ming, and Laing's scarcely less brilliant howing of 75 in Toronto's first inning, aing captured 10 wickets for 13 runs in gradon's first inning, and succeeded in ordering the hat trick twice. Terry's tere included 18 fours. His batting was reedingly clever. Goldingham did some reallent fielding. Wadsworth made a sed catch in the outfield for a long drive, cllowing is the detailed soore:

So sure were the judges of his taking the next heat that they waived the distance penalty for the other horses in order to allow Hal Pointer to go ahead by himself and break the track record. On the back stretch, however, Blue Sign showed a great burst of speed and forgod ahead of the village farm horse, who immediately went to pieces, and Gers could not get him on his feet in time to avoid being distanced. STANLEY SCORCHED.

The Explorer's Men Said to Have Been Badly Treated.

Dr. Peters Believes that Emin Pasha Is Still Alive.

New York, Aug. 23 .- Dr. Carl Peters,

New York, Aug. 23.—Dr. Carl Peters, the African explorer, said to a reporter that he wished to correct a statement which had been attributed to him in an interview published on his arrival from Europe on Friday.

"Some papers have quoted me as saying that Stanley traveled like a gentleman while I traveled like a brigand," said Dr. Peters. "Now, I do not think that Stanley traveled like a gentleman, and I did not say so. From all that I could learn, traveling through the same country that he did, I would say that he did not travel like a gentleman, for he did not travel like a gentleman for he did not travel like a gentleman for he did not travel that he did, I would say that he did not travel like a gentleman, for he did not travel that he did, I would say that he did not travel that set with the did not travel the same of Stanley lived on good food for himself, and allowed his men to live as the negroes did. The French missionaries told me that they visited Stanley's camp at Usumbrir and saw Stanley sitting at the head of the table eating European diet and drinking claret. While Emin Pasha, Mr. Mackay, and the members of Stanley's party at negro diet and drank water. I was told that some of the white men of Stanley's party had to abandon their tents and sleep in the open air, so that Stanley's boxes of wine could be taken along. I was told by one of the missionaries that when one of Stanley's companions had the fever, and was not able to go on, Stanley took a horsewhip and flogged him saying: 'If my white men fall down, what will my negroes do?' That was on Stanley's first trip, and I was told that he had a white man flogged That was on Stanley's first trip, and was told that he had a white man flogged

Easily Answered.

"Suppose," said a Dakota teacher while hearing a class in mental arithmetic recite, "that your father should plant an addition of 30 lots to the town, and there should be a boom, and he should sell fourteen of them to a man from Chicago, and nine to a man from Minneapolis; and seven to a man from Party low, many would be left." om Denver, how many would be left?"
"I know," shouted a boy in the middle of the class.

"Very well, Tommy, you may tell us."
"All the fellows from Chicago and white men fall down, what will my negroes do? That was on Stanley's first trip, and I was told that he had a white man flogged on his last trip.

"Another thing, Stanley in his books and lectures excites the pity of his readers by stories of his men starvant ton. I always drove cattle when I was in doubt as to the country ahead of me. When men suffer for want of food it is due to carclesaness. The rivers of Africa contain plenty of fish and there is plenty of game, if other supplies fail. Stanley got plenty of glory and fame out of his travels, and I admire him for it, but I do not admire the way he treated his men."

"Is there any trouble between Stanley and you?"

"No, none at all. I stood up for Emin Pasha when Stanley was against him, but that is all. I have no feeling against him, but that is all. I have no feeling against him but that is all. I have no feeling against him between to me. People write to ask me if I know positively that Emin Pasha is alive, and to ask for my autograph, and to offer to go with me on my next trip to Africa. I have news of Emin Pasha since the report of his death. I do not know whether he is still alive, but think he is."
