—Richard Tooley, M. P. P., represents one of the finest agricultural constituencies in the Province. East Middlesex. "This weather is very had for the crops," he said. "We haven't had such a backward spring for years." "Isn't that good in one way? There will be no danger of the early troats." "That's all very well for the fruits, but not for the grain. It is good enough for the Niagara Peninsula, but not for the rest of the Province. You will always find when the seed lies in the ground long before sprouting the crop is a poor one." "Then the outlook for the season is not good?" "No, it is not; very far from it."—[Toronto News.

—On the return trip from Strathroy last evening the Oddfellows had to wait over at Komoka for an hour and a half, but they enjoyed themselves during the tedious wait. Not many of them will forget their short stay, principally on account of a rarity in the flower kingdom which, through the good nature of the station master, they had the pleasure of closely inspecting and inhaling the delightful (?) perfume. Even the noted florist, Bro. John Mitchell, considered it a curlosity, and got as good a sidered it a curiosity, and got as good a sniff at it as the others. Children's "At Home."

The Palace Dancing Academy presented a gay appearance Saturday afternoon, when the closing exercises of the children's classes were held. Over 80 children took part, and the spacious academy was crowded with the parents and guests of the little ones. Through the energy and courtesy of Messrs. Dayton & McCormick, the children's "At Home" is looked forward to as one of the events of the season. London Oddfellows at Strathrov. London Oddfellows at Strathroy.

Nearly 150 city Oddfellows, including London Canton Uniformed Patriarchs, No. 1, went to Strathroy yesterday by special train to fratternize and attend divine service with their town brethren of Howard Lodge, No. 88. The order, reinforced by delegations from Mount Brydges, Hyde Park, Parkhill, Thamesford and other surposed in Lodges made a big showing recognition. Park, Parkhill, Thamesford and other surrounding lodges, made a big showing Headed by the local band, they marched to the Baptist Church. The lessons were read by Rev. Mr. Newton of the Episcopal Church, and the sermonan andmirable one—was delivered by Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, the pastor. The latter called upon Dr. Cl. T. Campbell, of London, sovereign grand sire of the order, for a few remarks. Dr. Campbell gave a short history of the society, describing its inhistory of the society, describing its in-ception, rise and progress, and particu-larly its success during the past year. There were now over 800,000 members in the world, but figures could convey no

L. and P. S. R. trains were in operation L. and r. s. iv. despite unfounded rumors as usual to-day despite unfounded rumors about the road being tied up. In conversa Superintendent Larmour expressed a decided opinion about the demand alleged by a local contemporary to have been made by the G. T. R. for the rental of their trains. "It's all nonsense," said Mr. Larmour. "Up to to-day, what with coupons and charges, we have a balance against the G.T.R., and we have made out the account." From other interested parties it was G.T.R., and we have made out the account. From other interested parties it was learned that the G.T.R. were certainly asking for money, but they had been doing that all along. In the face of what Mr. Larmour says it is not likely that the G. T. R. will enforce their demand by the withdrawal of their train just at present.

—Mrs. Shepherd, the Boston anti-Catholic lecturer, spoke twice to large audiences yesterday in the Opera House. She was strongly denunciatory of the religionists with whom she was at one time connected, and also assailed clergymen and congregations which held aloof from her, and not indirectly hinted that if they kept on ignoring her she would get up a boycott on them. Among the nosegays of rhetoric was her assertion that priests were "the lowest, the most treacherous and most contemptible things that crawl?" "Things will never be any better," exclaimed the lecturer from Boston, "till we have Meredith in power, and McCarthy with him." There was consternation on the faces of several of the managers near the platform when the lady from Boston dropped this remark, and thus recalled the political side of the agitation, as it was not intended that it should be brought out at this stage.

Keary was not made a witness lies in the fact that the chief did not know on what a small point the case would hinge. Certain it is that in the evidence given by John Biggs at the inquest it was clearly brought out that Mr. Keary was with Phair just before the fatal scuille, and this was published in the ADVERTISER at the time. Therefore, the only point remaining is to discover why the prosecution did not call a witness who was perfectly willing to testify witness who was perfectly willing to testify
