FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

A BIG SUPPLY OF POTATOES TODAY

Prices On Local Market Were 60 to 65 Cents Per Bag.

OATS PRICES ARE DOWN

Farmers Are in No Hurry to Sell Their Crops-Dressed Hogs $10 25 to $10 50.

There was a moderate sized Thursday market this morning, and trade was fairly brisk. A very large quantity of potatoes was offered, there being in all about 20 large-sized loads. The potato demand is very good, and as the crop this year has been large, the farmers are taking advantage of the good weather and roads to bring them in. The price at present is 60c to 65c per bag, with the majority of loads selling at 60c per bag. It is likely prices will be cheaper on Saturday, if the weather holds good. weather holds good There was a good demand for hay this morning at the prevailing prices, but the quality of fodder that was offered was not up to the usual standard. There were about 10 loads on the square, and only two of these were of good quality. The price is $11 to $12 per ton

Four loads of oats were offered. All were of fairly good quality and sold from $1 to $1 05 per cwt. The demand for good oats is very good at present, but the low price is evidently causing the farmers to hesitate before bringing a load in.

There is not much likelihood of the price going up at present, and one buyer stated this morning that it would not be much higher all winter. higher all winter There was no wheat on the market this norning, and the price is steady at 85c

One load of straw was on the market this morning. The present price ranges from $6 25 to $6 50 per ton.

A splendid load of beef and lamb was brought into the market this morning by a local butcher. The price of beef at present is $7 to $9 by the carcase. Mutton is bringing $8 to $10 per cwt. Lamb is worth 13c to 15c per lb, while dressed hogs are selling at $10 25 to $10 59 per cwt. Dairy produce prices are unchanged, as Dairy produce prices are unchanged, as Vegetables were not much in evidence, and the loads brought in this morning were very small. Celery, cabbage and cauliflower are most conspicuous. The prices are unchanged.

Grapes are just about done, and one fruit dealer stated this morning that he had received his last supply. The demand for grapes has been very good, but the crop this year has been poor. Apples are moving slowly at the prices Sweet notatoes are plentiful, although the quality and size are not good. They finance committee, verbally reported on the collegiate institute fee question in relation to Woodstock. and Principal Briden had interviewed County Clerk Burch last Saturday, pointing out to him that Woodstock Collegiate Institute had been illegally discriminating against Ingersoll by not collecting the established fee of 75c per month from first-year nonesident students. When they produced the statutes and pointed the clauses in the school act bearing on this question, the county clerk admitted that they were right and he was in error. Since the county is called on to contribute its proportion of the cost of maintenance, and nonresident first-year students were admitted free, while Ingersoll charged 75c per month fees, as the law requires, several students have been passing by Ingersoll to Woodstock on council is to be held to deal with the matter and adjust it equitably. Mr. Briden, on being requested to speak, corroborated what Mr. Macaulay had NEGOTIATIONS ARE reported, and emphasized the need for prompt action to remove this injustice to Ingersoll and the county. It is the duty of the county council to see that Woodstock Collegiate Institute collects these fees, for they had been exempting these students for two years illegally, and taking an undue advantage of this town.
