W. C. T. U. PLANS

ing Ward 1 and Ward 3 W. C. T. U.'s week. Wonderland was the gift of the city of London and had excellent swimming pool facilities for the chil-

Mrs. H. W. Paddell presided over made to hospitals, the total expendiare of the department being $204.57.

Mrs. S. R. White, superintendent

Thornley, Mrs. Flora York Miller and

CHESLEY AVENUE CLUB

HOLDS SOCIAL EVENING

Mothers Are Hostesses of an Enjoyable Meeting-Other

Clubs Invited.

The numbers were varied, and included dance numbers by Miss Violet happy affair light refreshments were served under the convenership of Mrs.

It was announced during the evening that a tea would be held at the home of the new president, Mrs. Owen, Marmora street, on Friday

Owen, Marmora street, on Friday afternoon, and also that the club would hold its annual picnic on July

LONDON TOWNSHIP R. E. C.

Bryanston, June 22.—The London Township Religious Education coun-

The president, Mr. Homer Knapton.

Miss Alice West contributed a very pleasing vocal number.

The children's division work was on "The Boy," in which he pointed out the great need of sympathy and Hennerie.

10 at Springbank.

for these days of prayer

84.288.12.

WOMEN and THE HOME

ELMWOOD CHURCH OPENS ITS GARDEN

Many Spend Happy Evening Beneath Lantern-Swung Trees.

The picturesque home of the Elmwood avenue Presbyterian church which corners on Cathcart street, was the scene of an attractive function last night, the first garden party held there by the ladies of the church Japanese lanterns lit up the lovely grounds, where beneath the shadow of old trees festive booths raised their gay counters to the undoing of pocketbooks and the sweetening of many a tooth.

Inside the old house, located in the original drawing-room of the home were found the tea tables, attractive with their centerpieces of sweet peas and mignonette. Here strawberries and tea were sold under the direction of Mrs. A. MacDonald, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Charles Mitchell.

As the guests arrived at the gate of the home, they found there a huge banner bearing the name of the church, welcoming them in. And even before they arrived strains of enticing music led their feet toward the scene of the garden party. Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Love and Mrs. Anderson had charge of the music, the program for the evening being arranged by spat to mar the sacred vows which have bound them together. the choir of New St. James' church

The program also included the choir numbers, a Scotch medley and "The Song of the Vikings"; vocal Wiskie, Miss M. solos by Mrs. Wilkie, Miss M. Forbes, Miss Kuntz, Chris Pink and Percy King, and a delightful quartet with Mrs. King at the piano.

Mrs. W. A. Reid, president of the Women's Association of the church was general convener of the fete The home-cooking booth was enticing by virtue of its wares and its rose and green decorations. Here Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. C. Baker presided. Other attractive booths were the ice cream and soft drinks, all in beautiful white, and convened by Mrs. Small and Mrs. George Night ingale; the hot-dog booth, with Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. C. McCallum, Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Lowe in charge; the flower booth, a pretty stall in mauve and yellow, with Mrs. McKone and Mrs. Robert Campbell as conveners.

PRESENTATION AT WAL-of the Trinity United church recently wooded hills and bordered by a wind-at the home of Fred Assessine, an in-ing river and just as winding a road, her books in a chintz that matched of the Trinity United church recently Mrs. (Rev.) E. F. Armstrong, teacher of the class, who is leaving shortly for Listowel. It took the form of a beautiful boudoir lamp, and was ac-day school class, we wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for the spiritual and temporal interest you have ever manifested in our welfare during the past years, and durcharacter, your earnest devotion to duty, and your untiring efforts to morning for Port Stanley, whence lead us onward and upward. We now they transferred themselves and their ask you to accept this gift as a slight great bundles of luggage (for one is token of our gratitude for your labors not a camper unless the bundle is on our behalf. Asking God's choicest lessing on you in your new field of labor, we ask you to always rememyour devoted "INNER CIRCLE CLASS."

The address was read by Miss Vera Miss Jessie Gillard made the presentation. A happy evening was spent in games and contests and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs.

TRIAL.

If you have Epilepsy, Fits, Falling Sickness or Convulsions—no matter how bad—write today for my FREE trial treatment. Used successfully 25 years. Give age and explain case. Dr. C. M. Simpson, 1857 West 44th St., CLEVELAND. OHIO.

A Vacation Hint

Campana's Italian Balm with you on your vacation. It will relieve at once all soreness from unburn or perspiration. Use it liberally before going out swimming or to play golf or tennis It won't prevent your get-ting nicely sunburned, but it will prevent all the soreness and pain after-

All druggists and de-

Campana's Italian Balm

CELEBRATE 70TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY Aaron and Mary Squier of Toronto, who celebrated the 70th anniversary of their married life this week. They say they have never had a single

the residence. Sergeant MacDonald and his pipe band were in attendance and agave many delightful Scottish numbers. BY PORT BRUCE RESIDENTS

Small Contingent of Campers Arrive to Open Season at Orendaga.

DAY OF PREPARATION

One of the busiest days in Port enced today. Such excitement! The few people in the village who would like to have had an extra nap this morning were rudely awakened by the shrill notes of a bugle, and had they glanced across Cat Fish creek they would have seen a few odd girls quickly appear on the campus from the tents surrounding it.

Though camp had by no means been officially opened, the few able to Special to The Advertiser.

Wallaceburg, June 22.—As a social evening held by the Inner Circle class be in Port Bruce so early in the sead and as a part of the color scheme of the room. The writer stated that ers, who later on in the morning arrived at Orendaga. It was then the camping grounds, guarded by high, of the cleverness and taste of some wooded hills and bordered by a wind-a few tents are up and ready for use, so it is the duty of the city girl to in the world in which books are not schools to enjoy a social e beautiful boudoir lamp, and was accompanied by the following address:

"Dear Mrs. Armstrong,—We, your Inner Circle girls, have taken this opportunity of assembling here to spend a social evening and to say farewell to you, our most esteemed teacher. As members of your Sunday school class, we wish to express Girls Leaving City. And so while tents were springing up under the trees, a small group of jolly girls were on their way to the lakeside from London, chaperoned by Miss Bessie McCamus. They had left large) into a truck and started across the lakeshore road for their camping

There was really not time for a reception committee to greet them upon their arrival at their destination, but just the same, work was suspended for a short space, while the early arrivals assisted their confederates to unload. Then came a perilous moused to crossing an expanse of water o feet deep on a narrow bridge, there was quite a thrill awaiting them as boldly set foot on the connect ing link between Port Bruce and Orengaga. They even wondered if it would really bear their weight, let alone the weight of their bundles. But it did. The villagers had builded it solidly, even though it creaked and shook a little bit.

Friends Soon Made.

It was not long after reaching the opposite shore that the new arrivals forgot that they had just met many of the girls, and before they realized it, all were the best of friends. call to dinner was sounded soon after their arrival, and it was answered with a dash to the lodge, where the long tables, covered with shiny white oilcloth and centered with flowers, greeted the hungry little contingent. t was a happy time, that hour about the dinner table, during which singing and yells added much merriment Then after the stacking of dishes and washing up, the girls went back to work that their tents might be ready to keeping out the rain.

many of the girls' parents are eating supper in their city homes this evening, their daughters are "children of the open." and enjoying a delicious, wholesome supper at the lodge. Following supper there will be an hour or so of informal games and a short talk, the learning of a few camp yells camp fire the girls will rest after a weary but joyous day.

Night Time Welcomed. Very early will they retire, as it has been a busy day for them, and if the weather is fine and the sky clear, they will be assured of a good rest, even though the night is a bit cool. But should the weatherman fail to give the girls a clear night, and intead, shower upon them a blessing of rain, they will not sleep quite so eacefully, as there is nothing so exciting, even though it breaks down the last wall between the strangers in the same tent, as a good rain, that

BOOKS ADD CHARMS

TO EVERY ROOM Bruce since Christmas was experi- Julia Hoyt Shudders at Suggestion That All Be Bound Alike.

By JULIA HOYT. New York, June 22,-I recently read a suggestion, made by some writer in a newspaper whose job it is to make helpful suggestions as to decorating and arranging one's house. The suggestion of which I speak was to have all one's books covered alike, all the mystery and interest coincident with the thought of the passage of time and other lives should not be changed for the most beautiful of modern bindings. And, of course, when it becomes a question ful of modern bindings. And, of course, when it becomes a question of old leather bindings, there is nothing more beautiful in the world. Anyone who has a modern binding put on such a book is entirely lacking on such a book is entirely lacking in any sense of beauty, and is guilty of what is, in my opinion, a sacrilege. (Copyright, 1925, in U. S. and Canada by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.)

EMBRO W. M. S.

Embro, June 22.—The W. M. S. of the Ebenezer United church met re-cently at the home of the Misses Olga s assisted their confederates to Then came a perilous moFor one who has not been president, Mrs. Cody, read the scripture lesson and then offered prayer Miss Olga Loveys gave a report of the branch meeting, held in London Mrs. C. Tavener gave a report of the board meetings held at Ottawa. After the meeting the hostesses served refreshments. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. W.

WARDSVILLE M. B.

Wardsville June 22.—Recently at the home of their leader, Miss B. Gardiner, the mission band nad a social evening. Games were greatly enjoyed. After a dainty lunch, Esther Patch was presented with a Band life membership certificate, which she won by having the most money for the year in her mite box. Pauline Bridgette was also presented with a Band life membership certificate and gold pin letter, Freda and Nina Bridgette with gold bracelets. Much regret was expressed for the parture shortly to Ruthven. heir father has been stationed as a minister of the United church.

drips through the tents not yet used for occupancy by evening

The afternoon just flew by, and as sake of tired bodies, that the weather-

Clean to handle. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores

PRESENTS TROPHY AT GARDEN FETE

Mayor Officiates at Trafalgar PICNIC JULY 14 Mothers' Club Garden Party.

The presentation of the champion- peculiarities. Will Open Fresh Air Camp ship cup to the girls of the softball team of Trafalgar school by Mayor Wanter of Trafalgar school by Mayor falgar Mothers' club garden party, held in the school grounds. Alder-The Central W. C. T. U. is arrangman Robert Carswell made the ng to hold a picnic on July 14 at the presentation of the medals to each Fresh Air camp at Wonderland, invitmember of the team.

The setting for this little ceremony o join in the picnic. Decison to was a fairyland of Japanese lanterns. yesterday afternoon's meeting of the gay flags and red, white and blue Central Union. Mrs. Ida Harrison bunting. Little tables placed about announced that the Fresh Air camp the lawn invited patrons to refreshwould open on July 1, and that the W. C. T. U. huts near the Thames Valley golf course would be moved from that site to Wonderland next ments, while entrancing music was supplied by the No. 4 Corps hand. Interesting looking stalls were convened by Mrs. Fred Barnard, president of the club, who had as her subconveners: Mrs. F. W. Birch, Mrs. L. Harrison and Mrs. Philmore for the strawberry jam-colored locks. home-cooking; Mrs. Thomas Whitney and Mrs. N. S. Mills for the ice the meeting, which was featured by annual reports from the different de-partments showing excellent progress cream, and Mrs. Fred Sussen candy A delightful program was given during the evening, including attrac-tive dance numbers by Misses According to the report of Mrs. Delia Cottam, corresponding secre-tary, the central union has 193 affiliated members with 81 honorary tive dance numbers by Dorothy Wassel, Violet members, 53 members in the L. T. L. and 23 in the Y. W. C. T. U. The treasurer's report, presented by Mrs. Amy Patterson, pointed to the fact that $1,855.57 had been raised during Morrison, Geraldine Smoothey, Pegg Smoothey, Connie Stothers and Jean Tuxford, with Miss Gladys Tuller as is too old and fat, or too old and honey to wear farmer clothes accompanist.

There were excellent vocal numbers the year, while the total receipts from all departments amounted to by Fred Dowling and Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. E. S. Little acting as accom-panist: instrumentals by Mrs. Frank An important year has just passed for the social service department, headed by Mrs. Ida Harrison; 389 visits were made to homes, and 323 Aldridge and Mr. Howard Vine and clarinet numbers by Arthur Pook. visitors cared for at the office; 50 girls and 41 women were helped, and 40 families relieved; 38 visits were Mayor Wenige acted as chairman, presenting the cup to the softball team, which includes: Misses Marteam, which includes. All properties of the prop Beth Wilson, Dora Tingey Bessie Hartop, Evelyn Pearson, Thelma Keillor, Madeline Sinclair. Collectors for the evening were Mrs. A. Hartop. of the military department, reported that 68 names had been added from Middlesex county to the Dominion honor roll. Miss Cannell gave an in-Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. C. Shute and Mrs. E. S. Little.

teresting account of the recent county convention at Komoka, and Mrs. John Vale took the devotional part of the Arrangements were made to keep the W. C. T. U. rooms on Clarence street open for three days of prayer on July 2, 3 and 4. Mrs. May R. Thornley Mrs. Flore Verb Mrs. May R. Mrs. Delia Cottam were appointed a committee to make arrangements

> White Coats Like an Army Ready To Oppose Little Corporal.

> > By AILEEN LAMONT. Special to The Advertiser. (Copyright.)

New York, June 23 .- Few women today seek the beaches without two accessories once carried by woodsmen and explorers. One is a waterproof match box. For a girl always can Hostesses of a charmingly arranged borrow a cigarette but must have a evening were the members of the match. The other is an indelible do not reveal the designs of the wearers or their status in life aldo not reveal the designs violin selections by Mrs. Armstrong and her pupil. Miss Edith Mayne and a Hawaiian guitar number by Miss Mildred Yake and Miss Edith Hill. Mrs. Ed. Pellow was also called upon during the evening to take part in the program and she contributed several impromptu readings. The accompanists were Miss Francis Mayne, Miss Irene Straith and Mrs. Eckstein. A pleasing feature of the party was the presentation to Mrs. Mayne, the retiring president, of a lovely purse, accompanied by a very complimentary address. At the conclusion of the happy affair light refreshments were served under the convergence of the party was the presentation to Mrs. Mayne, the retiring president, of a lovely purse, accompanied by a very complimentary address. At the conclusion of the happy affair light refreshments were served under the convergence of the several may be contributed to defeat if he opposed the white coats being worn this summer for his forces would oc far outcompanied by a very complimentary accompanied by a very complimentary address. At the conclusion of the happy affair light refreshments were ings, Miss Lotta Fisher : several they cannot be wrapped about the throat in the manner of summer furs given the vogue for ostrich in England by the birthday gift of magnificent plumes sent by the magnificent plumes sent by the Prince of Wales to his mother, Queen Mary.

SHOWER FOR MISS BILYEA.
Special to The Advertiser.

Thorndale, June 23 .- On Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. cil held its annual convention at Joseph Gleason a shower was held Bryanston United church recently, in honor of their niece, Miss Myrtle in honor of their niece, Miss Myrtle Bilyea, a bride-elect of June. The presided at the opening exercises. Fine reports were given by superintendents of departments.

Prof. Fred Langford, of Victoria college, gave a splendid address on college, gave a splendid address on a social hour, Miss Bilyea was pre"Sunday School Evangelism and the co-operation of the Home." He gifts, Much merriment was cuased by comical rhymes which accompanied a few of the gifts. The rest of the evening was spent in games and music, at the conclusion of which touched the keynote, when he spoke of the parents and teachers living in that close fellowship with Christ, co-operating in their work to help the child to become the finest of RE-ELECTED W. C. T. U. HEAD. Associated Press Despatch. Edinburgh, Scotland, June 23.— Miss Anna Adams Gordon, of Evansillustrated by Miss Mayme Young, in which she spoke of methods to teach the child picture lessons of the ton, Ills., was re-elected president of the World's Women's Christian great giver of life, so that he might grow in wisdom according to age. Miss Young's equipment for Sunday Temperance Union today.

Fred Langford, teacher training was stressed. In order that the schools might accomplish their task trained leaders filled with the spirit of Christ are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the devotional exercises. Mr. B. Scott, boys' worker, of London, spoke on "The Boy," in which had been specified by Prof. Children do not attend Sunday school. He emphasized the great need of religious education in public schools. The officers for the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; its treatment of children do not attend Sunday school. He emphasized the great need of religious education in public schools. The officers for the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; its treatment of children do not attend Sunday school. He emphasized the great need of religious education in public schools. The officers for the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year include: President, Homer Knapton; is treatment of the coming year includes and the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the president of the coming year includes are necessary. In the evening Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor, had charge of the preside treasurer, Victor Tackaberry; childen's division, Miss Mabel Haskett, Miss Jean Stuart; girls' division, Mrs. Woods; boys' division, Mrs. W. Gibson; home department, Allen Needlove from parents and teachers, that ham; teacher training, Miss E. the boy might grown in wisdom and Ardiel; temperance, Jas. McGuffin, T. B. Hudson; missionary, Mrs. (Rev.)

Again Miss West contributed an excellent vocal number.

Professor Langford, in his closing address, outlined the great work being done in Sunday schools of the dominion, yet in the vast population of Bryanston United church.

B. Hudson; missionary, Mrs. (Rev.) Vance.

There was a good attendance at both sessions. The convention delegates were most graciously entertained at the tea hour by the ladies dominion, yet in the vast population of Bryanston United church.

Dorothy Dix

"Queer Creatures! No Wonder Men Don't Understand Them!" Exclaims Dorothy Dix.

Aren't women the funny things? Consider some of their humorous

A woman who would go to the team of Trafalgar school by Mayor stake and be burned rather than tell Wenige last night featured the Tra- an untruth about any other subject will lie like Sapphira about her age.

There are practically no women between the ages of 30 and 70. No woman admits to being middle-aged. They are all mere girls, or old. A woman who weighs 190 pounds speaks of herself as having a plump figure, but she calls a 160-pound woman "fat." A woman who can tell that another woman across the street has her hair dyed, believes implicitly that she fools all other women about her A woman will refuse to follow a diet, when her physician tells her that her life depends on her doing so, but she will heroically ish figure. Nettie Clancey, Marion Fitzgerald, A woman will have forty mirrors Eunice Foster, Mary Herring, Ella in her house, and spend hours a day Johnston, Lucile Morrison Netta looking into them, yet never see herooking into them, yet never see her starve herself to acquire a girl-boney, to wear flapper clothes. A woman will hire another woman to do her housework, and then pay out good money to take a course of exercises that involve exactly the same motions that are made in sweeping floors and making beds and scrubbing.

A woman who is too frail to keep house, or to be bothered with servants, can walk ten miles in a bargain store, play golf all afternoon and dance until 2 o'clock in the

A woman who has been an invalid can arise from her bed and go to work and support the family, if the occasion arises.

A girl who has been idle, extravagant and self-indulgent, can marry a poor man and immediately turn into an industrious, thrifty, economical

A girl who has been raised poor. and to work and pinch the pennies, guests were present at the wedding. can become after marriage the laziest and most extravagant of maid was an onyx ring and to the wives.

No woman ever admits that she is high-tempered. She has a highly strung nervous organiza-

No woman is ever unreasonable. She is temperamental.

No wife will confess that she is cantankerous and hard to get along with. She says her husband does not understand her.

The woman who has hysterics at do not have to go to a desert island the sight of a mouse will face a raging lion without the bat of an eye.

The woman who faints at the sight of a drop of blood will face naior operation without a qualm of fear.

The homelier a woman is the more vanity she has, and the more If Napoleon arrived here today she believes herself a living picture. he would feel that he was in an enemy the she talks about her "lines."

> Half the women in the world believe they would have made greater actresses than Julia Marlowe, or have been greater movie queens than Mary Pickford, if they had only gone in for the stage or films, instead of getting married. The other half are perfectly certain they could write throat in the manner of summer furs but must be thrown about the shoulders. New impetus has been world are those with a secret sorrow that they tell to every one they

In love women put more stress on words than on deeds. A woman will doubt the affection of her husband who is kind and considerate to her, and works himself to death to make her comfortable, if he never pays her any compliments, but she will believe implicitly in the devotion of the man who tells her how beautiful and wonderful she is, even if he beats and starves her.

Women are, at one and the same ime, weak as water, and strong as gifts. Much merriment was cuased steel; angels and cats; wise as Sol-

Queer creatures. No wonder men don't understand them.

ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER The fame of a successful remedy is often spread far and wide by wo-men telling one another of its merits, as is evidenced by a letter written by Mrs. Wm. Risdale of Mt. Forest, Ont. She writes: "I was weak, miserable and in pain. A friend told me what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for her. I tried it and am now well and strong. There is nothing equal to it for women's troubles." There are women everywhere who have been benefitted by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gladly tell their friends and neighbors about it .-- Advi

NEW EQUIPMENT, NEW METH-ODS AND SATISFACTORY GLASSES AT

London's Leading Optometrist

JUNE WEDDINGS

PERRIN-LINDON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindon, Marlborough place, Leamington, was the scene of a pretty June wedding at 3 o'clock on June 20, when their daughter, Miss Mildred Arlene. was united in marriage to Mr. James Harkness Perrin of this city, son of the Rev. L. and Mrs. Perrin, Farleigh Crescent, Hamilton.

The bride, who was beautifully gowned in white georgette and carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and bridal roses, entered of Toronto. the living-room on the arm of he father, while the Mendelssohn wedding march was being played by Miss Grace Lindon, sister of the bride. Rev. A. K. Kinder officiated.

The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Bennie, while Mr. Clyde Hatch acted as best man. During the signing of the register, Miss Anna Fraser sang sweetly.

Following a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Perrin left for Wabi-Kon camp, Temegami, the bride travelling in a tweed sports costume and felt hat to match. On their return they will reside in this city.

Among out-of-town guests for the wedding were Rev. L. and Mrs. Per-rin of Hamilton, Misses Edna Lindon and Florence Beattle of Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Armstrong, Mrs. G. Nevon, Miss Edith Walker and Miss Myrtle Desmond of Windsor and Mr and Mrs. Charles Miller of Detroit.

GARDINER-FURANNA.

St. Peter's cathedral was the scene Furanna, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Furanna, of Grey street, was united in marriage to Mr. John Garunited in marriage to Mr. John Garunited in marriage to Mr. and Mrs. The wedding music was played ring. The wedding music was played ring. Fligsbeth Willson of Detroit, wedding mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in yellow printed chiffor riage by her father, was gowned in white georgette, trimmed with lace, and caught at the shoulder with orange blossoms. She wore a white net veil wreathed with orange blossoms, and white shoes and hose to match. Her flowers were a shower boundet of lilies of the valley and bouquet of lilies of the valley and a lovely gown of sunset georgette bouquet of violets, sweet peas and trimmed with cream lace and a large lilles of the valley. white picture hat. She carried an arm was held at the home of the bride's was field at the nome of the prides Burel of "Burcholme," Memphis, parents, where orange blossoms, pink Mich.; Miss Elizabeth Willson, De-

For travelling the bride wore smart tailored suit of navy tricotine, Vancouver. smart tallored suit of havy tricound.

yancouver.

Following the ceremony a day blonde hat, shoes and purse. After a honeymoon trip to Buffalo and Nia-which Dr. and Mrs. Bechely left which Dr. and Mrs. Bechely left gara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner will reside in the city. About fifty kerville, the bride travelling in best man a tie pin. STEELS-CUNNINGHAM.

Roses, baby's breath and Canterbury bells in pretty profusion decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. She was leader, and a silver sandwich W. Cunnin'bham, Dundas street, this of which Dr. and Mrs. Benedictine bridge club, afternoon on the occasion of the wedding of their daughter, Hazel Madeline, to Mr. Archie T. Steels, son of Mr. W. Steels of this city.

line, to Mr. Archie T. Steels, son of Mr. W. Steels, of this city.

Rev. J. A. Holmes of Sandwich, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony, the bride entering the ceremony, the bride entering the limits room on the arm of her father.

Interpretation of the steels, son of delightful teas and showers.

The groom's gift to the bridesmald was a black and silver vanity case; to Miss E. Willson a string of crystal beads; to the groomsman, white the string-room on the arm of her father. living-room on the arm of her father promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Her wedding gown was of white georgette. embroidered prettily in silk, and she wore the conventional wedding veil of white net, exquisitely embroidered, and wreathed with orange blossoms. United church parsonage, of Donald Her flowers were a shower of roses and lilies of the valley. She wore, both of Chatham township. The at-too, the gift of the groom, a white tendants were Mr. and Mrs. William gold wrist watch.

Miss Frieda Cunningham was her officiating clergyman was Rev. T. W. sister's bridesmaid, while Mr. Russell Hazelweod, B.A. Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Shaver acted as best man.

During Callum will make their home on the Helen Thompson sang delightfully For You Alone, while Miss Holmes, an aunt of the bride, presided at the Following a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Steels left by motor for Chicago on a honeymoon trip. For going away the bride donned a smart ensemble suit of green and sand, with green georgette hat to match. their return they will reside on Mount Pleasant avenue. Among the guests were the Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Holmes of Sandwich, and Miss Gladys Raitt

LOSSING-LOSEE. A very quiet wedding was solemnized on Monday, June 15, at the Methodist parsonage, Burgessville, when Olive Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losee, became the bride of Reginald Earl, son of Mr and Mrs. Leroy Lossing of Iron Mountain, Mich., formerly of Otterville. Rev. Mr. Shaw officiated. After spending a few days with friends and relatives in the vicinity, Mr. and Mrs. Lossing will motor to their new home in Iron Mountain,

BECHELY-WILLIS. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter

G. Willis, Goderich street, Seaforth, was the scene of an interesting event at high noon, Tuesday, when their second daughter, Olive Elizabeth (Beth), was united in marriage to Francis J. Bechely, D.D.S., also of Seaforth.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a of an interesting wedding at 10 lovely gown of white georgette, with o'clock this morning, when Rosalie scarf. She carried a silver shower diner of London, son of Mr. and Mrs.

John Gardiner, also of this city. The by Miss Elizabeth Willson of Detroit, Rev. Father Stanley officiated at the aunt of the bride. The bridesmaid; wedding mass. groom, was becomingly gowned in Mrs. Willis, mother of the wore a handsome gown of French Miss Rose Furanna, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, wearing contrasting shades, and carried a

The ceremony was bouquet of sunburst roses. Mr. Joseph Latella acted as groomsman, while Dr. Balogh presided at the organ, and choir furnished bridal music.
Following the ceremony a reception
Y. McMann, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. and white peonies and ferns were used as effective decorations.

Here in the peonies and ferns were used as effective decorations.

Here in the peonies and ferns were used as effective decorations. Mitchell, and Mrs. J. J. Foote of

Following the ceremony a dainty a trip to New York, Detroit and Waland black ensemble suit, with red hat to match.

Prior to her marriage Miss Willis was made the recipient of some pieces of silver, accompanied by a suitable address from the choir North Side United church, of gold cuff links, and to the ring bearer a signet ring McCALLUM-JOHNSON. On Saturday, June 20, the marriage was solemnized, at the Dawn Mills too, the gift of the groom, a white tendants were Mr. and Mrs. William the signing of the register, Miss groom's farm in Chatham township. RED ROSE COFFEE is good coffee

You can't be your "better self"-with a corn ing pain-messages to his brain. its and sour the disposition. Many pessimists are optimists with corns. For a corn taxes the whole nervous system. It makes one feel mean all over and act that way. Anyone may acquire a corn, but it is bad business to keep it. Blue-jay is the business apply the plaster-it does the rest.

No man can be at his best- man's favorite way of banishwith a throbbing corn shoot- ing corns. It stops the pain the moment you put it on-and Corns put a wet-blanket on ends the corn in 48 hours. enthusiasm, dampen the spir- It is business-like and efficient.

> Blue-jay leaves nothing to the user's guesswork. You don't have to decide how much or how little to put on. Each plaster is a complete standardized treatment. It has just enough of the magic medication to rout the corn. The thinking is all done for you at the laboratory. You

Blue=jay

THE QUICK AND GENTLE WAY TO END A CORN