"UNCLE JOE'S WILL"
A SUCCESS

Good House Greeted St. Andrew's Boys' Band At Opera House.

The Comedy presented by St. Andrew's Boys' Band, on Friday, Nov. 26th, under the management of Mrs. Hugh Miller, was a decided success. Mrs. Miller was assisted by Mrs. F. F. Matheson, who accompanied the choruses, and cleverly costumed several of the boys.

Mr. Roddie MacLeod of New Glasgow sang, and in each of his three selections was smoothly encored. Mr. MacLeod has a smooth scale, pure tone, a flexible voice, and that rare gift, naturalness, always delightful in a singer.

Mr. Musgrave, although not a total stranger to a Campbellton audience, sang for the first time in the Opera House. His rich and cultured voice was much appreciated. The continued interest of the audience was shown in a decided encore.

Miss Jessie Macintosh very artistically accompanied the soloists of the evening.

St. Andrew's Ladies' Quartette gave a very pleasing number, Plantation Song, the scene, "Evening in a Log Cabin."

A duet, well balanced and in good harmony, was sung by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Sowerby, accompanied by Mrs. F. Campbell, who also played a number of piano selections during the intermission.

Interesting readings were given by Mrs. Miller and The Boys. Two rousing choruses were also well rendered. The boys are receiving the congratulations of their friends on their good enunciation, their dramatic gifts, and their relieving local jokes. The part of the lawyers, was taken by Gerald Stewart and Harold Jamieson, who "called up" wonderful dignity for their years. The duet and his sister were excellently impersonated by Jack Stewart and Billy Currie. Mrs. Chatterton and her boy, with Mr. Bunker, the farmer, Billy Sullivan, Geo. Yonston and Willie Miller, respectively, kept the audience in fits of laughter. Gordon Alexander made a first class "seedy gentleman" who in time, reformed. Manie Cairns and Billy English as "Uncle Joe" and his nephew played well in an important role. Keith MacKenzie "the japers" was a good Irishman, while Billy Sowerby, the telephone man, saw to it, that nobody languished for want of a joke. The door keeper, Secretary, Typist, Office and Errand Boys, by Roland Miller, Bert, Gorham, James MacCallum, James Crockett, Edward McLean, Raymond Dugany, Geo. Adams, and Gerald Robinson, through taking minor parts, were all well played. The boys wish to thank Mr. Christie, Mr. Rissett, The Ladies' Aid, the Editors of the two local papers, and all others who in any way helped to make the entertainment a success.

The outcome will be awaited with interest.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY
CELEBRATION

Pleasant Evening Spent by Members of Caledonian Society.

The St. Andrew's celebration of the Caledonian Society of Restigouche, held in the Rose Room at Grays Tuesday evening was the most enjoyable affair given by that society for many years.

The Haggis (Great Chief of the Pudding race) was escorted to the table by the marshal to the strains of the pipes played by the Piper of the Society, Mr. Harry McLennan.

The various toasts were proposed and responded to as follows:
Our Society, by the President, H. R. Smith; The Day we Honor H. Carr, D. Murray, M. D.; Our Country, T. B. Busted, A. A. Andrew, Our Heroes, R. B. Rossborough, Geo. Wallace; Our Town, R. H. Russell, D. Murray, M. D.

The solos by Mr. H. V. Musgrave and the readings by Alex. Mitchell and H. R. Smith were repeatedly encored. The St. Andrew's Quartette surpassed all former efforts and interspersed through the programme were some delightful selections by the Rose Room Orchestra.

Auld Lang Syne was sung in true Scottish style and a most enjoyable night was brought to a close with the singing of God Save the King.

A short business meeting was held before the supper and the following officers were elected:
President—H. R. Smith.
Vice-President J. D. McMillan.
Secretary—George Wallace.
Chaplain—Rev. Hugh Miller.
Marshalls—F. McRae, John Bissett, Piper—Harry McLennan.

HOCKEY SCHEDULE
THE OUTCOME

Meeting at Chatham Forms New Brunswick Hockey League.

A meeting of the New Brunswick Hockey League, called by the league executive, was held at Chatham on Tuesday night in the town hall, when the election of officers took place and the playing schedule for the coming season was drawn up.

Besides last year's teams invitations had been sent to Woodstock, St. Stephen, Campbellton, Sackville, Sussex, and Moncton to send delegates to the meeting. Campbellton was the only new team to send delegates. Those teams that had representatives at the meeting were Campbellton, Marysville, Fredericton, Bathurst, and Chatham, and the league this winter will be made up of teams from those towns. It was decided that purely amateur hockey will be played and no semi-professionalism tolerated. The National Hockey Association rules will govern the league games with the exception that there will be no off-side playing allowed. The playing time will be the same as last year, viz. two periods of twenty minutes each and the last one of fifteen minutes with five minute rest periods between.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, Angus McLean, Bathurst; president, J. D. Black, Fredericton; vice-president, Max Mowat, Campbellton; secretary, C. Wade, Marysville.

Referees who will be asked to officiate are "Sandy" Staples, Fredericton, Frank Brown, Moncton, and W. J. George, Bathurst.

The first game will be played on Dec. 29, when Fredericton will play at Campbellton and Marysville open at Chatham. Following is the complete schedule:

Dec. 29—Fredericton at Campbellton.
Dec. 29—Marysville at Chatham.
Jan. 5—Bathurst at Fredericton.
Jan. 6—Campbellton at Chatham.
Jan. 6—Bathurst at Marysville.
Jan. 12—Chatham at Bathurst.
Jan. 12—Fredericton and Marysville.
Jan. 12—Bathurst at Campbellton.
Jan. 19—Chatham at Marysville.
Jan. 20—Chatham at Fredericton.
Jan. 28—Marysville at Campbellton.
Jan. 28—Fredericton at Chatham.
Jan. 27—Marysville at Bathurst.
Feb. 2—Campbellton at Fredericton.

Feb. 2—Bathurst at Chatham.
Feb. 3—Campbellton at Marysville.
Feb. 9—Marysville at Fredericton.
Feb. 9—Chatham at Campbellton.
Feb. 16—Campbellton at Bathurst.
The teams will play this year for the Chestnut cup, which is now held by Chatham, the winners of the last year. A new trophy will be put up for the championship of the maritime provinces and the winner of this league will play off with the Nova Scotia league winners for this cup.

FERRY STEAMER WAS BURNED
The steam ferry R. R. Call, owned by Capt. Frank J. Allard, which plies between Dalhousie, Carleton and Miguasha with Saturday trips to Campbellton was completely destroyed by fire at Carleton Saturday.

The crew were on board and made a heroic effort to save the boat but without avail, losing all their personal belongings and some having a very narrow escape.

The wreck sunk in nine fathoms of water. The loss is a heavy one. The R. R. Call was built at Chatham.
