is being quietly collected with a view to ultimate publication.

We have recently had an opportunity of examining a considerable portion of this evidence, and we frankly confess that we have been more than a little surprised at some of the revelations which the examination has forced upon us. Very little of the testimony is of such a character as to be available before a legal tribunal, even if there were any means of bringing it to such a test. But much of it is of a kind to carry conviction to the mind of anyone who gives it serious and dispassionate consideration, and who has no object but to get at the plain truth. And if a tithe of what is alleged is susceptible of verification, it is high time for the community to awaken to the danger by which it is threatened.

It is said that persons who belong to secret societies exercise an altogether unjust discrimination as against outsiders in dealing with the business and social affairs of every-day life.

Sense of the feets brought forward in sup-

Some of the facts brought forward in support of this assertion are such that the conclusion forced upon the mind is simply irresistible. Specific instances are given, with names and dates, and a good deal of light is thrown upon certain contracts and public events which have hitherto been enveloped in an air of hitherto been enveloped in an air of have hitherto been enveloped in an air of have hitherto been enveloped in an air of have hitherto been enveloped in an air of hitherto been enve

It is even beginning to be whispered pretty loudly that, in the lodges of some of the higher degrees, political and other appointments are discussed and determined upon, and that, when necessary, pressure is brought to bear in various quarters to force the hands of those having the power of appointment.

Some of the appointments in connection with the School Board and the Public Library are thus for the first time made intelligible.

We are informed, moreover, that this is no new thing, but that it has of late assumed dimensions which it never before attained, at any rate in this country.

It is possible that the Church of Rome, in setting her face against secret societies, may have been acting not merely in her own interests, but in the interests of society at large.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no pocasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can seasily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five percent, of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous pross tration, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three does of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents Try it.

A Fair Offer.

For many years the proprietors of Hag-yard's Yellow Oil have offered to refund the money to all purchasers of that medicine where it failed to give relief in case of pain or painful affections, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, deafness, burns, bruises, sprains, stiff joints and cords, and internal or external in-

Mr. Mowat's Blunder.

From the Kingston Whig (Lib).

The Whig objected to the appointment of Mr. Fred. Mowat, son of the Hon. O. Mowat, to the shrievalty of Toronto. It took this position because the appointment was certain position because the appointment was certain those who made it and others in the state of the had vigorously protested against the practices of the Tory leaders in filling public offices of the Tory leaders in filing public offices with relatives of every sort, and for a Liberal leader to do likewise was to make wreck of one's professions and forever close the party's mouth upon the subject of nepotism. And lest it should appear that the Whig, as a or the Ottawa Free Press, whose loyalty to the Mowat Government no one dare question who is aware of the strain that was put upon it by the Coffee appointment:

Markets, improvers and apprentices Mrs. Ribout, dressmaker, No. 6 Clarence square. it by the Coffee appointment:

"In appointing Premier Mowat's son to the Toronto shrievalty the Ontario Government has committed a grave blunder. It is no doubt true that Mr. Mowat, ir., is well qualified to fill the office to which he has been appointed, and that the public interest will not suffer. It is also true that Premier Mowat has rendered great service to his province, and that the proposal to make his son a sheriff did not come from himself but from the Reform member for Toronto and the party leaders in that city. It is also true that almost every one of the members of the Tory Dominion Government has been providing for his sons, brothers, nephews, uncles, sons-in-laws and other relatives with lucrative offices, but still the Provincial Government should have better judgment than to afford any foundation for a charge of nepotism against Mr. Mowat; or for degrading him to the level of the Langevins, Popes, Costigans, McLelans, Carons and Chapleaus. As might have been expected, the Tory organs which urged that Mr. Mowat; son should be made sheriff now assail the Ontario Government for making the appointment. No doubt these organs feel a sort of satanic triumph in being able to charge Mr. Mowat with nepotism."

And by the way, was the appointment not with nepotism."

And by the way, was the appointment not hurriedly made? A deputation waits upon the Attorney-General in the morning, and urges it; he says he will not interfere with the action of his colleagues and to them the question is referred. In the afternoon there is a Cabinet meeting, attended by just two others besides Hon. O. Mowat, and these make Mr. Fred. Mowat Sheriff of Toronto, and order the publicity of the fact. these make Mr. Fred. Mownt Sheriff of Toronto, and order the publicity of the fact. Infcontrast with all this haste is the action of the Government with regard to other appointments. Still more, men deserving of the Government's favor have had a difficulty in getting their claims fairly understood, and even then they don't count for much if they are not among the sisters and the cousins and the courts of members of the Government. If the aunts of members of the Government. Mr. F. Mowat were not a relative of . Mowat were not a relative of the rless would have been heard about his

A woman named Victor, with a pronounced suicidal mania, has just been condemned to six months' imprisonment for having caused the death of her little child during one of her attempts at self-destruction, writes a Paris correspondent of the London Telegraph. She laid herself with her infant on her bed after highting a pan of charcoal, but after a time neighbor burst open the door. The child was already dead, just the woman's life was asved. Hers is a very sad story.

Mme. Victor had for some years after her o neighbor burst open the door. The shild was already dead, but the woman's life was saved. Hers is a very sad story. Mme. Victor had for some years after her marriage led an exemplary life. Her husband was a steady workman, but for some unaccountable reacon the woman suddenly fell madly in love with a bootmaker named Cordier, and after some time, as she could not live with him, she persuaded him to die with her. Accordingly, one day when the husband was out, the couple kindled charcoal in her bedroom, but as it had no effect on them Cordier suggested that they should try to stiffe themselves in a smaller chamber. Again there was no result, so they placed a noose around their necks and pulled it with all their might. But Cordier and his mistress seem to have had the nine lives of the proverbial cat; have had the nine lives of the proverbial cat; after trying to strangle and suf-

SECRET SOCIETIES IN TORONTO.

They are Said to Have Undue Influence at the School and Library Roard.

From Arcturus of This Week.

An opinion is becoming widely prevalent that the secret society business is considerably overdone, and there are well-informed persons in this city who do not hesitate to say that the influence of those societies is becoming decidedly pernicious, if not absolutely dangerous to the public weal.

Such remarks as these are made, not by wranks, or by those claiming to be suffering from chronic grievances, but by liberal-minded persons of the highest intelligence, who are traordinary charges without having facts to support them.

Direct testimony is of course very difficult, if not impossible, to obtain in such cases, but there is a large accumulation of circumstantial evidence which cannot be ignored, and which is being quietly collected with a view to ultimate publication.
